15

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE.

E. ROSEWATER. Editor.

PUBLISHED EVERY MORNING.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION. Six Months Six Months Bunday Bee, One Year Saturday Bee, One Year Weekly Bee, One Year Opploge 1.00 1.50 65

OFFICES. Omaha: The Bee Building. South Omaha: City Hall Building, Twenty-

South Omana: City Hall Building, fifth and N Streets. Council Bluffs: 10 Pearl Street. Chicago: Stock Exchange Building, New York: Temple Court. Washington: 501 Fourteenth Street.

CORRESPONDENCE. Communications relating to news and editorial matter should be addressed: Editorial Department, The Omana Bee.

BUSINESS LETTERS. pany, Omaha

REMITTANCES.

Omaha or Eastern exchange, not accepted THE BEE PUBLISHING COMPANY.

STATEMENT OF CIRCULATION.

Biate of Nebraska, Douglas County, 85.: George B. Tzschuck, secretary of The Bee Publishing company, being duly sworn, says that the actual number of full and complete copies of The Daily, Morning, Evening and Sunday Bee, printed during the month of May, 159, was as follows: May, 1899, was as follows: .370

1	17
2	18
3	19
4	20
5	21
6	22
7	23
$	24
9	25
10	26
11	27
12	28
13	29
14	30
15	31
16
T many transmitted manual and

Less unsold and returned copies .... 9,807 24,228 Net daily average ... GEO. B. TZSCHUCK, Subscribed and sworn b fore me this 2d lay of June, 1899. F. J. SUTCLIFFE, (Seal.) Notary Public. day of June, 1899. (Seal.)

Parties Leaving for the Summer. Parties leaving the city for the summer may have The Bee sent to them regularly by notifying The Bee business office, in person or by mail. The address will be changed as often as desired.

The new sign at the Douglas county corner of the popocratic pie counter reads, "No populists need apply."

The weather man will be pardoned if he desists for a while in his artillery practice up in the clouds that hover negotiations looking to such an arrangeabout Omaha and vicinity.

The Herdman gang is bound to have probably would not be unheeded by the the scalp of D. Clem Deaver and that imperial government. of every other populist or popocrat who does not approve of the Tammany ring methods.

The first Spanish consul has arrived in the Philippines. He is doubtless congratulating himself that he did not arrive until after the last Spanish soldier got out.

Milwaukee is celebrating with a mid-has stopped campaigning and for the next month or two the American forces. will do little more than defend the terbeen driven. Otis says we occupy a large portion of the Tagalog country. but whoever will examine a map of Luzon will see that our occupation is by no means so extensive as might be inferred from the report. The fact is that from a military point of view we are not very much better off than we were at the beginning of the war.

HALT TO CAMPAIGNING.

General Otis again informs the au thorities at Washington that the insurgents are scattered, only one large force. Business letters and remittances should estimated at 4,000, being held together. addressed to The Bee Publishing Com- But it is more than probable that this But it is more than probable that this empire. Such a view may be utterly statement, like others of similar tenor Remit by draft, express or postal order payable to The Bee Publishing Company, Only 2-cert stamps Accepted in payment of mail accounts. Personal checks, except on Omaha or Eastern exchange, not accepted. proaching an accurate idea of the strength of the enemy. At all events ported to have recently placed large the halt in the campaign will give the orders for quick-firing artillery in Gerinsurgents the opportunity they have | many and this country. There does been waiting for and undoubtedly they will take full advantage of it. The tions in England, but as a London cor-Filipino leaders will perhaps be able respondent remarks, in times of a crisis to impress upon the people the idea the war office automatically makes all that the Americans are weakening and of its preparations on paper and these thus draw support to their cause. It are complete as regards South Africa, will be surprising if at the end of the There is no doubt that the situation is not considerably stronger than now and found without recourse to arms. well prepared to give us at least five more months of fighting President McKinley having returned to Washington, it is to be presumed that consideration of the question of calling notoriety that the passage of the bill for volunteers for service in the Phil. making the district court clerkship a ippines will be resumed. If the presi- salaried office was resisted by an ordent has been keeping in touch with ganized boodle lobby which resorted to public sentiment during his vacation every conceivable device and scheme to army.

WEST INDIAN RECIPROCITY. The order to the Jamaican reciprocity commissioners to go to Ottawa and confer with the Dominion government was probably due to objections on the part of the Canadian officials to the tentiary business should have the aumovement for reciprocity arrangements dacity to threaten to appeal to the between the United States and the British West Indies. The fact that Canada has much the same food prodwhich would give an advantage to American products and it is not to be as of the civil law. doubted that she will protest against imported into this country by making public.

under the former reciprocity agree- no chance or contingencies connected summer carnival. But then nobody will ments had no perceptible effect upon with place of public trust, but every be permitted to suffer from the heat the amount of our exports, because the officer should have a limited income amidst the beverage that has made articles chiefly imported into the Brit- commensurate with the duties and re-

THE OMAHA DAILY BEE: WEDNESDAY, JUNE 28, 1899.

Jealous of their authority and unwill. United States is bound to protect its The report of General Otis in regard | ing to hand it over to others who might citizens, no matter in what country to existing conditions in Luzon is exercise it in foreign interests. Presi- they may be, in all of their legitimate Captain, King, who was obliged to leave hardly reassuring. The rainy season dent Kruger has proposed to give the rights. To be entitled to protection, the Philippines on account of his shattered outlanders the elective franchise, but he however, they must obey the laws of bealth, gives imperialists a hard blow by wants to put off the time of granting the land in which they are sojourning this privilege so far that many of the and in mixing up with revolutionary people would not live to exercise it and movements they forfeit such rights. It is this attitude, regarded by the The United States has enough interna-British government as unreasonable, tional trouble without taking up the which has created the issue.

Britain only wants justice, but the easily, Boers are manifestly apprehensive that British purpose contemplates something more than securing to British citizens in the Transvaal the right to vote: that it looks to obtaining a domination there. which would make the little republic practically a British possession and ulttmately, perhaps, actually a part of the groundless, yet it must be admitted that it is a quite natural one for the Boers. Meanwhile preparations for possible war are being vigorously pushed by the Transvaal government, which is renot appear to be any warlike preparaworth.

rainy season the insurgent forces are full of danger, but a solution may be MONKEYING WITH A BUZZ SAW Some people do not know how to let well enough alone. It is a matter of he knows that it is strongly in favor have the bill sidetracked, mutilated or of largely reinforcing the Philippine stolen. It is an open secret that a pot by the parties interested in defeating this legislation, to be divided between boodle lobbyists and purchasable members of the legislature. In view of all these facts it is simply amazing that parties engaged in peni-courts to barricade the law which they failed to kill by boldest conspiracy. Should they persist in their effort to ucts to sell as this country naturally thwart the law to the point where the inclines her to regard with disfavor a full light of publicity is thrown upon trade agreement with a British colony the principals and their associates they may get a taste of the criminal as well

The salary of $5,000 a year prescribed by the new law for a service which any ment. Whether Canadian objection will intelligent business man can render is have any effect is a question, but it certainly liberal. It is still the highest pay any public officer in Nebraska will receive, and the desperate effort to What the people of the British West retain the malodorous fee system one Indies desire is to secure some advan- day beyond the limit set by the law tage for their sugar over other sugar will receive no encouragement from the some concessions on imports from the | Instead of countenancing the reten-United States. But it is a question tion of the fee system in the office of the whether they can offer concessions district court clerk public sentiments deface. The concesssions they made in every public office. There should be quarrels of adventurers who, on their from self-destruction. General King has the people almost as a matter of necessity. Mr. Chamberlain declared that Great own statement of the case, escaped

> We understand one of the noisiest of the local Jacksonians is preparing a kee Jorual he states that "the capability of eral public. Good roads in the country atbrondside to be fired at Governor Roose- | the Filipines for self-government cannot be tract residents, increase the value of real velt which is expected to annihilate at doubted, and if given a fair start they could estate, economize time and energy in the one fell swoop the whole political fu- look out for themselves infinitely better transportation of products, reduce wear and ture of the distinguished Rough Rider. Having dauntlessly faced the Spanish cannon, Governor Roosevelt may hope the United States have given the right of expended in rural road construction is sure to escape the Lilliputian firecrackers. suffrage.

The constitutional republic of France has had another narrow escape, according to all the most observant newsnarrow escape at least once a month the people of France would not feel that they were getting their money's

Change of Program.

Wasnington Pos Now that General Otis has captured the Filipinos' brass band, perhaps he will be able to change the tune.

Taxing Credulity. Baltimore American,

A war pensioner has sent a petition to he thinks he is receiving too much. The Manila, says: inherent incredibility of such a story is enhanced by the fact that this moral wonder halls from Ohio.

Too Much of a Trust Job. Kansas City Star.

It will take a mighty big trust to corner the cattle industry in Texas, and even if and Nebraska and Oklahoma and Coloof several thousand dollars was hung up rado and New Mexico would still continue had been forwarded through official chani to raise steers on the side.

Gunpowder Ticket. Boston Transcrip

"Roosevelt and Funston" in 1904. How does that strike you for a presidential ticket? It comes all the way from Kansas and is as redolent of gunpowder as were those "Beecher Bibles" which made so much noise in the Sunflower state in its territorial days.

The Overflow of Gold. Globe-Democrat.

The aggregate gold exportation since the ing the year than the steamers carry out of grain movement begins in September or October, gold is likely to flow into the country. In any case the United States is going to keep at the head of the list of gold-owning nations.

Lessons of Experience Ignored. St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

The fatalism of the democracy is one of the most marked traits of that strange party. Very nearly all of its leaders appear to believe that Bryan's candidacy next year would a school, constitute the public buildings. be suicidal for their side, yet many of them The schools were neat, substantial buildwhich will be important even on their mand the abolition of the fee system declare that he is certain to be nominated. ings, which testified that the Spanish made They know he can by no possibility carry the country, but they see no way whereby Filipino is very anxious to learn and the he can be kept off the ticket. This is an new government of Aguinaldo used every efextraordinary condition of things. Henry fort to start afresh these schools. The num-Watterson's figure of 1896 of the democ- ber of natives who speak Spanish as well racy's march through a slaughter house to as their native tongue and who also know an open grave expressed the conditon of that party now, with this difference, that its school teacher has been appointed in San defeat next year will be much more disastrous to it than was that of three years the American officers. In spite of this disago.

ECHOES OF THE WAR. PROGRESS OF ROAD BUILDING.

Brigadier General King, better known as Summary of What Has Been Accomplished in Recent Years. Philadelphia Record

The lessons of experience which have induced populous urban communities throughasserting that the Filipinos are capable of of those who uphold the argument of Asiatic of dollars in improving city streets should living in rural districts. The best possible readers. unable to govern themselves, consequently payements in a city are insisted upon by American control is necessary to save thim beeen among the natives for months prior Whatever the cost, the streets must be to the outbreak and fought them for ever made level, smooth, holseless and durable. three months. Thus he had the bust facili- What is being done by local authorities ties for observing their characteristics in for urban residents should be done also peace and war. In a letter to the Milwau- by farmers for themselves and the genthan our people imagine." Furthermore, he tear of vehicles, horses and harness, and, to be returned to the locality many times over.

Admiral Dewey expressed a similar opin- Much has been accomplished in recent ion nearly a year ago in a dispatch to the years in this direction throughout the older Navy department. On August 29, 1898, he settled sections of the United States, and cording to all the most observant news-paper correspondents at the French Luzon is reported to be something over capital. If the republic did not have a 3,000,000 mostly natives. These are gen-remotest districts, has vastly stimulated tle, docile, and, under just laws and with the work of improvement. Highways benefits of popular education would soon adapted in all essentials for the most admake good citizens. In a telegram sent to vanced modern requirements may be conthe department on June 23 I expressed the structed at the present time at a cost alopinion that these people are far superior most insignificant in comparison with the in their intelligence and more capable of outlay for road making fifteen or twenty self-government than the natives of Cuba, years ago. In the New England states and I am familiar with both races. Further | and in New Jersey, where the best roads intercourse with them has confirmed me in in the country may be found, macadam this opinion." and telford roads are built for from $2,000

Lieutenant Henry Page of the regular army at Manila, writing to the Chicago down. The excellent gravel roads of New with original illustrations and subject mat-Record concerning the evidence of native Jersey, which are the admiration of all ter and is a high compliment to the busithe department to decrease his pension, as statecraft found in abandoned cities near horsemen, cost from $1,000 to $1,300 per "When we reached the headquarters at practically indestructible. In western New for here was found some of the machinery stone is available, the cost of single track of Aguinaldo's government. Among the stone roads has been brought down as low papers scattered about in confusion by the as $900 per mile, the work being first class retreating officials were telegrams, letters in every respect. Wherever the country is and commissions showing something of free from steep grades, and may be thortheir system. One letter was from a town- oughly drained, the outlay for good roads such a scheme were practicable, Kansas ship governor asking relief from his duties; has been reduced by modern invention to a a surgeon's certificate was inclosed. It comparative trifle.

> returned with abundant indorsements ap- ment of inferior material in order to save proved. With it was an order to the gov- on the first cost-these and other objecernor of the province to have a new elec- tionable features of earlier road making tion. Another letter was a complaint made should be abandoned for good and all by against another local governor for malad- American road makers. As population exministration. It stated the charges in real pands, wealth increases and new devices legal form and was duly signed. The nu- of road locomotion come into use the de-> appointments showed that the Filipinos had perious. It is no longer merely the wagon already perfected arrangements for the loaded with produce which is to be consideducation of the youth on a large scale.

erty, records of births, deaths, etc., to show movement began has been about $13,500,000. | that Aguinalldo's organization is at least varied yet allied interests will be rewarded Nobody knows, and probably nobody cares. not a laughable farce. I might mention also by public gratitude and the material enhow long the outflow is to continue. The meteorological and other scientific instru- hancement of local conditions of proschances are, however, that the mines of the ments and records to show that the Fili- perity. United States will contribute more gold dur- pinos didn't neglect science during those busy, warlike times. Letters dated Febthe country. Moreover, when the outward ruary 4, from Malolos showed that they had a good courier system. A book on tactics, engravings of the several uniforms beautiful topographical maps, copies of the Declaration of Independence and the revolutionary consultation, military and state seals and other articles all went to show that la production. "In each town a church, a convent, or priest's home, a 'tribunal,' which is courthouse, jall and record office all in one, and braska. But the club is no longer serviceable. Democrats love Bryan mone the less, but they rather fear less the threats of the populist manipulators. an honest effort to educate the masses. The

with the populists, but we do say that there will be no more one-sided deals in state politics. Either the democrats will be given a fair show, or they will have a whole show of their own. This is not intended as a threat. It is simply an expression of opinion on the part of one who believes he is in touch Every bloomin' victory, On land or sea, with the Nebraska democracy-one who yields first place to no man in loyalty to due to me. Paste that Bryan. In your hat! We ask our populist friends to look th the whole thing-the boss And every time we have a fight I see that our loss Is gol-derned slight. situation in the face like men, and do something to check the fast rising opinion in democratic minds that we are loved by And still populists only for the value of our votes oodness knows, kill Let's get together right, or separate. When we talk about running a separate democratic ticket our populist friends tell us that we do not dare do it, because it would hurt Bryan's chances. That scare will not work this year. No one state can hurt Bryan's chances this year. He is too big for that We do not want to see Nebraska drop back into the republican ranks, and that's why we are now appearing to our populist friends to be fair, and give us a democrat for su preme judge this fall, or else give us Allen and a promise to send some democrat to the United States senate to succeed Thurston. We frankly admit that with three tickets in the field in this state the republicans exists between three prominent populist

one of the three to congress in the Sixth district, one to the office of supreme judge be successful this fall the fusion forces will find themselves all chot to pieces when the votes shall have been counted. If the pops play fair it will be our republican friends

the popocratic ticket will never get a scratch who will need the services of surgeons, and

"For Bryan's sake" will not be a good club for populists to use in the democratic state

GOOD THING FOR SOLDIERS.

Action of the War Department in Sustaining the Canteen. New York Herald.

The decision of the War department to retain the army canteen is in the interests of the soldiers' health, happiness and efficiency

The opposition is confined mainly to theorists, who have had no opportunity of studying the question at first hand. Its post earnest advocates are the officers who serve cause it decreases desertions, reduces pup-ishments, promotes re-enlistments, maintains discipline and increases the savings of Whatever may be thought of the interprelaw passed by the last congress directing possibilities. Assuming that the majority of control this by salutary regulations or to permit its abuse amid the most demoralizing surroundings? If the soldier cannot ge his daily beer with his comrades within the limits of the post he is apt to have his ir-the groggeries freed from military control.

regular debauch when he is forced to seek

There are many opportunities open for the improvement of the soldiers' condition and it is a pity some of the surplus energy so much misdirected against the cantoen cannot be shunted into these profitable avenues.

To the average layman the petulant oppori-tion seems to be an unwarrantable interferof an impertinence.

ence with the decent rights of society and enlisted men are accustomed to alcoholic the men.

convention this year in Nebraska.

ANOTHER DEMOCRATIC ULTIMATUM.

Threat That the Nomination of Holcomb Will End Fusion.

Papillion Times (dem.)

For three years the populist leaders have

LINE THE ILLUSTRATED BEE.

Seward Reporter: The Omaha Bee com monced last Sunday the issue of an illustrated supplement, which is quite an addition to the paper. The supplement of last Sunday was full of fine illustrations and self-government. The principal argument out the country to spend untold millions urst-class reading matter. The mustrated supplement will be a feature of The Sunday inquest is that the Filipinos are utterly not be lost upon the still larger population. Bee that will be much appreciated by its > Beatrice Democrat: On Sunday last The Omaha Bee commenced the regular publication of an illustrated weekly news magazine to be sent out as a part of its Sunday edition. The magazine is printed upon fine book paper, treats of current events, fashion and travel, all illustrated in the highest style known to art. It is an advance step in journalism.

Stanton Picket: An interesting feature of the Omaha Sunday Bee hereafter will be an illustrated edition. The first issue declares they rank far higher than the in short, secure profits where with bid Cubans or the uneducated negroes whom roads tosses would ensue. Money wisely number of handsome half-tone cuts, the frontis page being one of Admiral Schley seated on the veranda at the Senator Manderson residence in Omaha. Truly The Bee is a great paper.

> Hebron Register: The Omaha Bee started on its twenty-eighth year last Monday, it having been established June 19, 1871. Bee has had a checkered career, and, while we have not always agreed with it in many of its assertions, political and otherwise, we are compelled to acknowledge that it is a good newspaper and that it has in times past fought nobly in defense of the people Central City Republican: The Omaha lilustrated Bee, which comes free with every copy of The Sunday Bee, makes its initial appearance on our table this week. It is an ambitious effort even for so enterto $5,000 per mile, the variation being due prising a paper at The Bee. It is really a to the different widths of roadway laid magazine, printed on the best of paper, ness sagacity which is able to accomplish mile, and when properly constructed are so much for the good of the public.

FLASHES OF FUN.

Chicago News: Clara: "I never sing ex-cept for my very dear friends." Maude: "There's where you make a mis-take. You should sing only for your worst aromics." enemics.

Cleveland Plain Dealer: "That hard bolled egg gave me a headache." "You shouldn't eat hard bolled eggs." "I didn't eat it. A fellow hit me with it behind the ear."

Cheap and haphazard methods of road Detroit Free Press: Clerk: "I am only waiting for you to raise my salary, sir, to get married." Employer: "Then don't expect it. I think too much of you." nels to Aguinaldo's secretary of state and improvement, earth roads and the employ-

Chicago Record: "Do you send home your customers' purchases?" inquired the hew customer in the wet goods emporium. "We do more than that, sir," replied the genial proprietor, "We often send home our customers."

Chicago News: "You must be very care-ful of that gown." cautioned the matron. "It is easily mussid." "Perhaps." returned the beautiful girl with that forethought so seldom found in the young. "I would better change it before Harold calls."

Detroit Journal: Mother: "Nellie, dear, do you think that young man who has been you think that young man who has been calling on you twice a week for some time is matrimonially inclined?" Neille: "I really don't know what to think, mamma. He has such a knack of keeping one in the dark."

Indianapolis Journal: "Yes, indeed, Brad-by Biggs is a real widower." "What do you mean by a real widower, arey?"

Lucy?" Why, he is so afraid some strange woman will marry him that he takes his mother-in-law around with him all the used the love of Bryan which animates democratic hearts as a club to hold democrats in line for any plan or ticket which the time. populist politicians might formulate in Ne-

Washington Star: "Impossible." ex-claimed the caller to the proud mother. "I can't believe that your son, who has only been in the employ of that great corpora-tion for six months is already a director." We do not mean to say that the democ-racy of the state will no longer affiliate and here is the news in his last letter. He had just finished directing 10.000 circulars."

REAL HERO OF MANILA.

Catholic Standard and Times, I'm the hero of Manila, See?

Only thing that ever happened, merous papers concerning school teachers' mand for better highways becomes more imered, but also the bicycle, the tourist's car-

"I might also mention the deeds of prop- riage and the automobile. The road makers who shall cater successfully to these bor and intelligence were united in their

Santa Ana another surprise awaited us, York, where an excellent quality of broken

Milwaukee famous.

The council is on the right track in declaring a war of execution on the ex-Independence day properly does not re- provisions and dairy products, which quire the slaughter of the innocent.

Ninety per cent of the stock subscriptions returned to shareholders in the position success for many years to come.

The referees in bankruptcy are to have should be shown their sugar. But this document: a convention. If the men bankrupted is impracticable by reason of our attempt to get together not a city in the and besides it would be hostile to our land would have entertainment facili- domestic sugar industry. The condities sufficient to care for them.

fighting the scalpers. The best way to ment for relief without avail. Their fight the scalpers is to establish low hope is in entering into closer trade rerates for the public and stop supplying | lations with this country, but we canscalpers with tickets to beat the com- not help them at the expense of our peting railroads while pretending to own interests. It would not be surmaintain uniform rates.

The Kansas regiment retires from the firing line in just about the same condition as the Nebraskans, with a little over 400 men in condition for active lain, colonial secretary, on the Transduty. A vast difference exists between vaal question, shows that the British the climatic conditions of the Philip government fully realizes the portenpines and the bracing air of western tous nature of the problem and that its prairies.

Congressman Bland's seat has been vacant but a few days, but the governor of Missouri announces he will call an election for early in September to fill the vacant seat in congress. Congressman W. L. Greenc's seat has been vacant several months, yet no move has been made to call an election to fill not propose to recede from the position the vacancy in the Sixth Nebraska district.

Fusionist politicians are not the only ones with an appetite for pie. The prisoners in the Anamosa, Ia., penitentiary | vaal government with flagrantly violatstruck for a pie ration at least once a week and set up such a howl and kept it up day and night that the warden is certainly some ground for this alleyielded to their demands. As a means gation. The outlanders, constituting a of averting a further outbreak the war. majority of the people of the Transvaal, den should secure a larger stock and owning most of the property and paying make a more equitable division than the greater part of the taxes, have has obtained in the Nebraska fusion cause for complaint in the fact that fold.

For the second time The Bee pro- It is easy to understand that they pounds the question, Has any one should regard this condition as intolerheard of any one connected with the able and earnestly seek relief. But ou proprietorship of the World-Herald the other hand the Boers are quite going down into his pockets for a single naturally indisposed to surrender condollar to be contributed to the various Herman relief funds? Is it not true would practically do if they acceded to that the only offer of cash emanating the demand of the outlanders in regard, their own salaries. from that paper was the harm- to the suffrage. From an English or less offer of $50 reward for the American point of view there is no quesarrest and conviction of the par- tion as to the justice of this demand. ties said to have removed the The people who contribute most to the of sympathetic donors?

ish West Indies from the United States sponsibilities devolving upon him, are those that they must get here and a whether any income attaches to the little more or less duty has little or no office or not, and serve all alike, effect upon the purchases. Our exports whether they pay big fees, little fees or ecutionary giant cracker. To celebrate to the islands are chiefly breadstuffs, no fees at all. An insight into the underhanded nothing short of prohibitory duties would prevent the islands from buying methods of our desperate popocratic of us.

THE TRANSVAAL PROBLEM.

thority and rights it claims.

contemporary in procuring by false rep-It is not apparent, therefore, what resentation an arraignment of The Bee Transmississippi Exposition of 1808 benefit the United States could derive coupled with a boycott pledge is given promises to be high water mark of ex- from reciprocity with these islands, by the following letter in answer to an though it is easy to see how the islands inquiry what was the occasion and circould be benefited if special favor cumstances of the circulation of the HERMAN, Neb., June 26, 1899 .- To the by the late democratic times were to treaty obligations to other countries Editor of The Bee: Yours of the 25th to hand and contents noted. I do not know who got it up. The station agent, Mr. G. V. Coyle, handed it to me and said it was tions in the British West Indies are thanking the World-Herald for their good undoubtedly very bad and the people work. I did not read it. I do not think The railway passenger agents are still have appealed to the British govern- there was any intentional attack on The Bee. However, I think you had some statements in The Bee that were not correct. Respectfully, J. H. CHAMBERS. Doubtless in the hurry and confusion of the scene at Herman a few misstatements found their way into The prising if Canadian objection put an Bee's reports, as into all reports. If end to the negotiations.

so it would have made prompt correc- plating deserting from the democratic party tion of any error called to its attention. It did not, however, make any The speech of Mr. Joseph Chambersensational charge that the whole community had become a set of vandals, robbing one another right and left, or ask the governor to call out the militia to suppress the reign of crime. That present intention is to insist upon a fake was left to the Fakery. solution on the lines it has proposed. What effect this utterance will have The new law making the position of upon the situation remains to be seen, clerk of the district court a salaried inbut probably its effect will not be to stead of a fee office will go into effect lessen the tension even if it shall not in-July 1. It behooves the commissioners tensify it. It is very plain notice to of Douglas county to take the necessary the Boer government that England does steps to have the books and records of the clerk's office checked up and make | doze the cowardly and the weak, was made it has taken and while it desires to a settlement for the business covered avoid war will fight rather than abanunder the fee system. It will also dedon its demands and surrender the auvolve upon the commissioners to ascertain how much clerical force is actually Mr. Chamberlain charges the Transrequired to carry on the work and fix and in their stead were served up the folthe number and pay of each employe. ing the equality which the London con-Unless steps are taken promptly to vention was intended to secure. There comply with the new law serious com## plications are liable to arise, besides endless litigation. Unless Germany changes its mind

there will be no agreement at the peace conference to limit expenditures for the army and navy. Germany's acquies- in 1896 are not apt to be dismayed now. they have no voice in the government and are treated in all respects as aliens. central location in Europe. The Ger- back and help us in this fight." man official class is thoroughly con-

> Two Americans returned from Central American ports on late steamers bureau and thereby to have deprived to participate in the administration of They complain that they were put on can be see better before the next election? pumps would not give forth a sound. Howthat paper of some of the self-adver- affairs. Yet it is not difficult to un- board ship and told to leave, all betisement it was making at the expense derstand why the people who founded cause they had simply given aid and the South African republic should be comfort to a tillbustering party. The plenty?

American Troops in Cuba.

Philadelphia Press. The greatest danger that menaces our troops in Cuba is in the use of old Spanish lazy, but, with all due respect to his own barracks. For scores of years these build- nationality, he believes we would be the ings were utilized by the army of occupa- same under like conditions. In conclusion ion, and as a result they are reeking with he says: "The educated and polished Filithe germs of tropical fevers. No amount of disinfection will entirely eradicate the quick to comprehend and he possesses a danger from this source. The army health peculiar dexterity in accomplishing his authorities apparently realize this, for the announcement is made that after four deaths musiciau. The negro race is called musical, and eighteen cases of yellow fever in the but the Filipino also possesses the soul of hospitals at Santiago the troops have been moved to an open air camp on the hills. With proper precautions in the matter of housing and feeding our troops in Cuba men' and 'Tannhauser,' on home-made invery little danger need be apprehended from vellow fever.

BEFORE AND AFTER.

Honeyed Words of Bryan Addressed to Gold Democrats.

J. Sterling Morton's Conservative, During the tumultuous campaign of 1896 in the city of Richmond William J. Bryan declared:

"I want to warn you who are contemat this time that the man who, in the face of such an enemy, either goes to the rear or is found in secret conference with the enemy, is a traitor upon whom the brand for nearly all his work. shall be placed and HE SHALL NOT COME BACK.

The capitalization of the last declaration was very sonorous, solemn and inexorable when vehemently proclaimed by the splendid lung-and-tongue power of the orator.

The dictatorial and majestic manner in which Mr. Bryan, by his own authority, thus banished from the privileges of association with the sanctified silverites all those who had adhered to the diabolism of the gold standard was lofty in its imperialism and unparalleled in its modesty. But that cruel remark, calculated to intimidate and bullbefore the election of 1896.

Mr. Bryan is better inclined to forgivenees and mercy now, for in a speech made at Louisville, Ky., during the last six weeks the defiant and the dictatorial were erased lowing persuasive sweetmeats. There is nothing of the bravado in this:

"I have been told that there are here number of people who were democrats prior to 1896, but who, in 1896, wandered away into the republican fold or walted for awhile at that halfway place known as the gold democratic party. Now, the people who were all right in 1896 are all right now. I do not need to talk to them. Those who went through the flery furnace of criticism cence is a necessity, not only from its But I want to talk awhile to those who left Importance as a power, but from its us in 1896, because I want them to come Really, can this be a true report of the ing the preponderating military power them to come back and help us in this fight" trol of their government, which they and there is no likelihood of them to the same supreme distator of the Chicago and he shall not come back!"

Is it possible that Mr. Bryan would accept have a great tale of woe regarding their enough of the ballots of those recusants to pired that they only looked like what they sign from the World-Herald relief public treasury should have the right treatment in the southern republies. elect him to the presidency? After the last If 16 to 1 was beaten in hard times how and failed to leave his future address at the can it win in good times? If it failed with prison when he departed. He is believed, the effort to array unsupported theories money scarce how can it win with money however, to be in some spot where he can against fortified beliefs takes on the aspect how to read and write, is remarkable. No Jose and the school buildings are held by couragement there is a private school flourishing in a native hut."

Lieutenant Page speaks of the natives as pino is not at all a bad fellow. He is very work. He is among other things a natural music and can easily rise to lofty heights. When I see these ragged beggars playing selections from 'Faust,' 'Rigoletto,' 'Carstruments, with an expression and touch like a German orchestra, I am impelled to believe that there is somewhere an undewould win. We assert that the same resul veloped capacity. Such music does not dwell will follow even with fusion, provided the n a mind barren of all else save music populists shall continue to treat their demo-

Such music appeals alone to higher qualratic friends with contempt. ities, undeveloped though they may be." It is generally understood in this state that an alliance, offensive and defensive leaders, and that the plans are laid to elect St. Louis continues to protest vigorously against receiving Lake Michigan water by way of the Chicago drainage canal.

PERSONAL AND OTHERWISE.

this fall, holding the third member of the Senator George F. Hoar writes what i triumvirate in reserve for the senate. Now probably the most illegible hand in the senthat is all right as far as it goes, but it will ate. He consequently uses a stenographer not go very far in the democratic convention. Should the initial play of this trio

The recent intimation by Oom Paul that "trusts in the Lord" in his controversy with Great Britain is not receiving as much attention from the newspapers as the various other trusts.

Up to the day of his first entering school Booker T. Washington's name was Booker Taliaferro. Then the teacher said that all the colored boys of the section had three or four names. "Well," said the new pupil, "put me down as Washington."

General Miles is fond of the theater, but will never attend a military play. "The last drama that had soldiers in it that I saw," he says, "got everything so twisted and wrong about them as to completely break the illusion and spoil the whole thing for me."

Senator W. A. Clark said in an interview last week that he owed his success in life entirely to his early experiences on his father's farm in Pennsylvania. "I learned with troops and these favor its retention be that hard work," he said, "was necessary if a man wanted to live. The trouble with most people is that they do not realize this

Three of the chemical experts of the Agricultural department, Prof. Wiley, chief tation given by the attorney general to the chemist, and Profs. True and Runyon, will join a party of chemists which leave the abolition of the canteen, the practica Chicago today for San Francisco, where the results are beneficial, because in essentials Association of Official Agricultural Chemists | the whole question is reduced to a choice of will hold its annual session on July 5 of this year.

Governor Roosevelt shortened the sen- stimulants, which is the better practice-to tence of John Howard, a convict in the Sing vinced that its safety depends upon he- Richmond Times and hardly credits "I want two large pipe organs for the chapel, work-Sing prison, because the prisoner constructed ing two years on the job, and thus saving the state an amount of money estimated at agreeing to any proposal to cut off platform abomination who rampantly yelled about $5,000. The organs were finished in 1896 that whoever differed from that ag- about two weeks ago, just as Howard's senglomeration of fallacies and blunders "is a tence expired, and he was released. The traitor upon whom the brand shall be placed | organs presented a most imposing appearance, and were greatly admired. When it came to trying them last Sunday it transpurported to be, and despite all the electric laugh aloud and undisturbed.

More foes Than 1 could count Furthermore, I never sleep, For it's my mission To always keep The army in "superb condition." I'm a thinker. I'm a thinker, Also something of a tinker, Sheridan wouldn't be Knee-high to me Turning defeat to victory, Give me any o'd defeat, Ravelled, frayed, rusted, Ripped and busted, And I'll turn it and rebind it Like an old dress; Then I guess You'll find it As neat As neat And complete And complete A victory As you'd care to see! You will also take notice I know every art Of attack or defense or— What's that? Am I Dewey or Otis? Why, no. bless your heart! I m the Press Censor.

You stubbornly resist our advice on felt hats and continue paying from one to two dollars for a hatter's label is no reason why you should take a straw with him.

ىلار يلار يلار

We don't think there are worthier straw hats in town than ours at > $1.00 $1.50 and $2.00

See if there are.

