INTEREST IN ROBINSON-RINGWALT NUPTIALS

Card Parties, Luncheons, Dinners and Lawn Fetes Cause the Time to Fly Rapidly and Make the Summer Weather Bearable.

In spite of its being universally acknowledged by all society to be the dull season. and a season suitable only for the making of great and mysterious preparations for lengthy flittings to seashore, mountains and even more distant retreats, there have been sisters quito a number of good things on the social calendar during the last week. In the matrimonial world, of course, the center of all interest was the Robinson-Ringwalt wedding, and the dinner given in honor of that all-important event at the Omaha club on Monday evening. Quite a generous sprinkling of card parties, luncheons and dinners, and those most seasonable of all affairs at present moment, lawn parties, are recorded in the social chronicle for the week past, many of which have been given in honor of guests from other cities, of whom there are quite a number in the city just

Rennie-Anderson

Miss Clara S. Anderson, daughter of Redmond Anderson of Paw Paw, Mich., and Rev. J. H. Rennie, formerly pastor of the Park Avenue United Presbyterian church in this city, were united in marriage on Wednesday, June 28, at Paw Paw. The wedding occurred at the residence of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Mary A. Murdock, and was performed by Rev. Mr. Hammond of Decatur. a brother-in-law of the bride. The event was one of the prettiest weddings in Paw Paw this season. The house was elaborately decorated. The parlor was in smilax, white roses and palms, the sitting room in red roses and palms, the library in yellow roses and the dining room in pink roses, carnations and smilax. The hall and banisters of the stairs were decorated with white lilies, smilax and white satin ribbon. Miss Anderson was attired in an elaborate creation of white silk with an overdress of white silk grenadine trimmed in Brussels lace and white satin ribbon. She carried a shower of white roses.

Rev. Mr. Rennie resigned his pastorate in Omaha last April because of ill health. During his residence here he made many warm friends, who unite in congratulating him on the happy event. While in Omaha, beside officiating as paster of the Park Avenue United Presbyterian church, Rev. Mr. Rennie also filled the pulpits of the Central and First United Presbyterian churches. Rev. Rennie and his bride expect to reside in Paw Paw.

Hopper-Findley.

Mr. Charles T. Hopper and Miss Adela B. Findley were quietly married on Wednesday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Findley. The ccremony was performed by Rev. J. M. Wilson, pastor of Castellar Presbyterian church, in the presence of relatives and intimate friends only. Palms and cut flowers decorated the house, and white carnations were used for the bride's bouquet. The happy pair descended the stairs to the strains of the wedding march from Lohengrin, played by Miss Florence Campion. The bride and groom were preceded by the ring-bearer, Mattie Kennedy, and the flower girl, Ida Kennery, who strewed daisles and sweet peas in their pathway.

On Monday evening about three sets of fours marched in a body to Captain Alvison's home. 2525 (Charles after) In a body to Captain Alvison's home, 2525 Charles street, and presented him with a magnificent sword and belt. Neat little presentation remarks, appropriate to the octasion, were made by Lieutenant Moriarity. The gift was accepted with the most profound gratitude and for once Captain Aivison was silenced and didn't gay "Steady, Boys!" After the first indescribance joy of giving and receiving was controlled the evening was spent very pleasurably with music and song, in which the captain's two staters joined. Light refreshments were served and all was merry as a marriage bell. Judge Dickerson, who chanced to be bell. Judge Dickerson, who chanced to be calling at the Alvison home, joined in the pleasures of the occasion. Wit and humor for which Council Bluds is famous, inter-spersed with class yells and company greetings, made the time pass all too quickly, and all too soon "good nights" were said, and the bonny boys of Company II took their leave, their hearts heating with the Joy of giving, and leaving Captain Alvison in-expressibly grateful for their appreciation. He will ever cherish the Jove of the boys of Company B, wishing them the greatest success under the command of Captain George Wolders. operation several days on the street cars of the city. The management of the company states that it works as well as it was exected to, although the compny still refuses transfers at several points where they are asked for. The company says that, as a rule, such demands are made in cases where granting them would enable passengers to make a round trip for one fare, going on make a round trip for one fare, going on one line and returning on a line parallel and not far away, or otherwise arranged so as to form a "loop" back to the starting point. There has been some objection to the present arrangement from persons living in the north part of the city near the Twenty-fourth street line, who are compelled to go down to the Sherman avenue line to get a transfer connection with South Omaha. They assert that the company should be made to issue transfers to South Omaha from both lines.
