At the meeting of the directory of the Greater America exposition, held yesterday afternoon, with thirty of the thirty-four members present, the executive committee was reorganized by the election of Fred A. taken to the soldiers by teams from the kee & St. Paul Railroad company; William leave without having undergone five days' F. As the executive committee is now composed it consists of the persons heretofore mentioned and William Hayden, P. E. Her, C. J. Smyth and H. J. Penfold. Messrs. Hayden and Smyth tendered their resignations, but the same were tabled. The new committee is authorized to borrow the sum of $25,000 to finance the exposition over the dull months.

At several times the meeting was punc tured with pyrotechnice, the first coming when William F. White moved that the record of the proceedings of the members of the old executive committee be brought before the directory.

There was a spirited discussion over the question of whether or not the directors had a right to review the official acts of the members of the executive committee. The members of the directory decided that they had and a messenger was sent out after the records. While awaiting his return Thomas Kilpatrick suggested the amending of the bylaws of the association in order that the executive committee might be increased by adding two members, thus making seven The motion to amend was seconded by R. S. Wilcox and was carried by an unanimous utes of the executive committee were brought in and the secretary was instructed to read. He commenced with the record of several days ago, but was stopped by Mr. White, who remarked: "Read the minnites of the last session."

Turning to the last page of the book the records showed that at 1 o'clock yes terday, or three hours prior to the conven ing of the Board of Directors, J. B. Kitche and C. J. Smyth, a majority of the old committee, had called a meeting of that body and allowed J. B. Kitchen the sum of $1,926 for services as manager of the Bureau of Admissions and $1,130 in payment of meals furnished the members of the executive committee at his hotel. The same records of the same meeting showed that the sum of $10,000 had been returned to William Hayden, being for a stock subscription made on July 3. For a minute or so an awful stillness pervaded the room and until C. M. Wilhelm mustered up courage to break the silence by asking: "Is it not a fact that the bylaws of the association prohibited any of the members from receiving remuneration? President Miller said that he had been unable to find any such provision. Here S. D. Mercer picked up a bomb and fired it. He did it by asking these "I would like to know if it is the proper thing for officers of this exposition to get together and vote themselves large sums of money? To me it seems that the question of the integrity of the three members who participated in that meeting is called into question." Explanations in Order.

Chairman Smyth of the old executive committee said that he was called into the meeting by Mesers. Kitchen and Hayden, that he was but a figurehead, not having a vote. Concluding said that he could tell nothing more than was shown by the records. Mr. Hayden explained his claim by saying that on July 1 he paid his money in, but that afterward he learned that the stock subscription books had been closed and that he did nothing more than what he considered his legal right in withdrawing the amount

It was in order for Mr. Kitchen to do some explaining and he did so by saying that at the meeting called so hastily be presented a claim for salary at the rate of $300 per month, feeling that he was entitled to that compensation. Mr. Kitchen declared that he had nothing more to explain, after which Mr. Wilhelm moved that the action allowing the claim of Mr. Kitchen for salary be disapproved and that steps be taken to stop the payment of the check which had been drawn against the balance in the exposition treasury. His Grasp Closes Over Republican Nomination for Governor of Kentucky.

CHAIRMAN BOREING LOOKS FOR SUCCESS

Misrule of Democrats in Kentucky and the Nation is Recounted and Policy of Republicans is Outlined.

LEXINGTON, Ky., July 12 .- The repub ican state convention today completed all its work except the adoption of a platform and the nomination of a ticket. It would have nominated part of the ticket tonight but for the fact that it became entangled in mistakes and misunderstandings regarding the adoption of the report on rules. The majority report was adopted without taking any action on the minority report, and those favoring the latter not only objected, but insisted that they voted for the majority report when they thought they were voting for the minority report. The convention adjourned while points of order were being

The evening session was not one of parlia mentary decorum. The delegates were kept waiting for over two hours on the committee on credentials and were not in good humor after that time over any questionable rulings and other things. The Taylor men have had their way in everything today at the district meetings, the committee meetings and in the convention. They have the permanent organization as completely as they had the temporary organization and have reconciled the colored element by making a pegro secretary of the convention with a list of white assistants. The Stone and Pratt men are still holding secret conferences at midnight with reports that Judge Pratt may accept the nomination for attorney general, but Colonel Stone declines a minor place and it is reported that he does not want Judge Pratt to go on the ticket.

Efforts are said to have been made today to get Governor Bradley to come over from Frankfort and address the convention, but he is not here and he is not now expected, as the convention will assemble at 9 a. m. and remain in continuous session until its work is completed. SCHOOL EXHIBITS AT PARIS Omaha Among Cities Which Will Make Adequate Showing of Educational System.

NEW YORK, July 15 .- Howard J. Howard, director of education and social economy to the the United States commission of the Paris exposition, said today about the exhibit being arranged for the United States: "It is impossible to estimate how many parts of the country will be represented in the educations which the cities which have adequate appropriations and will be adequately represented from the kindergarten to the High school are Boston, New York, Albany, Chicago, St. Paul, Omaha and Denver. Other cities are preparing work in ecial ways or to illustrate special feature The educational exhibit will be distinctly na tional in form, although all material con tributed by any city or state will be properly credited to that locality. The effort is to show irrespective of state lines the best and most advanced work which is being done in every grade of public school work, and in colleges and in university departments in the United States. To accomplish this the exhibit will be arranged in grades, so that in examing one can find in one section all the primary work of any country, in another all the grammar school work, and so on. "In the department of higher education the same scheme will be followed, and instead of a certain definite amount being assigned to the great universities, the space is blocked n various departments, viz: law, medicine theology, pure science, philosophy, language and literature, fine arts. All the great universities of the country are preparing exhibits in two or more of these departments as they choose."

Commenting on the sentiment then and now the Montgomery Journal, which is tooked upon as the organ of the state administration, says:

"Then there was some sympathy for the cause in which General Wheeler was engaged, a foreign war was in progress and the country was in a flame of patriotic fervor and enthusiasm over the contest, but there is no such sentiment today as that which then swept over the country and the people are in a more practical mood and are inclined to look at things in a more practical way. There are many people who would particularly approve the act if the governor were to order an election in the Eighth district to elect a congressman and the governor will no doubt be urged to take some action in the premises.

STANTON, Neb., July 12 .- (Special Telegram.)-Word reached here today of a horrible murder coupled with suicide in Ramshorn precinct. The crime was committed last evening, the principal actor in the tragedy being Frank Lepley, a Bohemian farmer 60 years of age. It transpires that early in the evening Lepley took a hammer and attacked hie wife fiercely, beating out her brains and leaving the body in a fearfully mutilated condition. The head was beaten almost to The cause is said to have been the loss of a jelly and the floor and walls of the room were covered with the unfortunate woman's blood, showing that a dreadful struggle for life had occurred. The woman must have made a brave fight for existence, as the furniture of the room was strewn all about. The skull was crushed in several places and NEW YORK, July 12 .- A dinner was given the face so badly disfigured that it was Miser Perishes in Burning House. RICHMOND, Mo., July 12 -The residence Thomas Graves, eight miles southwest of Richmond, was burned during the night, and Mr. Graves and his sister. Miss Lucy, perished in the flames. It was not known that the building had been burned until late in the afternoon, when a neighbor visited the place. Graves was considered a miser, and it was supposed that he had considerable gold hidden on his premises, and it is the general belief that the two were murdered and the bodies and building burned to hide the crime.
