WOULD STOP SALE OF LIQUOR

I. L. Milnor Desires to Regulate Affairs at Lake Manawa.

CLAIMS THE MULCT LAW IS VIOLATED

Commences an Action in the District Court and Gives His Reasons-Says He Disapproves of the Beer Garden.

I. I. Milner commenced an action in the listrict court yesterday to stop the selling of intoxicating liquors at the Grand Plaza Waddell both morning and evening. Sunt Lake Manawa. W. W. Cole and George Mooser, the lessees of the Plaza, and Charles R. Hannan, receiver of the Lake Manawa Railway company, are named as defendants in the suit.

Milner in his petition alleges that the mulct law is being violated by the defendants inasmuch that the place where the liquor is sold has both front and back door entrances and that the liquor is served to the patrons of the place at tables and that chairs are provided for their convenience, all of which he claims is contrary to the spirit of the law. Milner further alleges that the beer garden at the Plaza is the resort of drunken and disorderly people of both sexes.

BARBERS UP AGAINST A SNAG.

County Attorney Takes a Hand in Favor of Sunday Shaving. The members of the Barbers' Protective association, in their fight to enforce the Sunday closing law, have run up against a snag who has decided that so far as he can prevent it the county shall not be put to any not to issue any warrants in the event of the evenings. association filing further informations against proprietors of barber shops for keeping open on Sundays.

The county attorney's action was prompted against closing the barber shops on the Sabbath and that it was impossible to secure a conviction at the hands of a jury. The county has already been put to an expense of over $100 in the cases brought by the association against Barber Bernhardi and his assistants, and Mr. Kilpack thought it was about time to call a halt.

Acting on instructions from the association, Attorney Sweet yesterday morning filed an information in Justice Vien's court against William T. Silver, the proprietor of a barber shop on Pearl street, for keeping his place open last Sunday morning. Justice Vien, however, declined to issue a warrant for the arrest of Silver, relying on the section of the code which provides that a justice of the peace must file an information but leaves the issuance of the warrant to his discretion.

Failing to get a warrant from Justice Vien's court, Attorney Sweet then hied himselt to the court of Justice Ferrier, where he filed another information against Barber Silver. Here again he met with no better success, as Justice Ferrier likewise declined to issue any warrant for the arrest of Sil-county attorney to decline to prosecute a state case, but his arguments had no effect on either of the justices and they both remained firm in their refusal to issue a warrant. The members of the association feel aggrieved at the action of the county attorney and the justices and are now more determined than ever to continue the fight. Attorney Sweet stated that he would take the matter into the district court and apply justices to issue a warrant under the in-

County Attorney Kilpack says that while there is nothing to prevent the members of the Barbers' association from applying for a writ of mandamus, such action, in his opinion, will avail them nothing. All that the court could order, he says, would be that the justices act in the matter, and the manner in which he shall act is under the law left to his discretion.

idence of C. W. McDonald.

The residence of Charles W. McDonald, manager of the Sandwich Manufacturing company, at 410 South Eighth street, was visited by burglars some time during Friday night. Two gold watches and chains comprised the booty secured. Entrance to the house was obtained by cutting out the screen from a dining room window on the ground floor which had been left open. Once chain, the slide of the latter being set with opals and diamonds. In Mr. McDonald's room they secured his wife's gold watch and chain. They took Mr. McDonald's trousers and searched the pockets for money, but were disappointed, as he had taken the precaution to place his pocketbook under his pillow. The garment was found in the hall yesterday morning and Mr. McDonald, missing his trousers when he awoke yesterday, was the first notice he had that the house had been burglarized.

This is the third time within two years that the McDonald residence has been visited by burglars during the night time and on each occasion the thieves went through the house without awakening any of the family. On both former occasions the burglars secured gold watches as a result of

SOCIETY IN COUNCIL BLUFFS Past Seven Days Socially Dull in the

Outside of two weddings and a few small functions last week in Council Bluffs has been socially dull. The lack of social affairs is mainly due to the fact that so many are away from the city, spending the heated term at the different summer resorts. Colorado appears to be the Mecca for a large number of Council Bluffs people this summer and the list of families sojourning among the mountains there is a long one in the person of County Attorney Kilpack, Early bathing parties at Lake Manawa, followed by an al fresco breakfast, are becoming quite a feature among the doings further expense in the matter. MOB OUTWITS THE SHERIFF Si Smith, a Georgia Farmer, Murdered in His Cell by Alleged Deputies.

GAINESVILLE, Ga., July 15 .- Si Smith, the Habersham county farmer who killed William Bell, the commercial traveler from Atlanta, several months ago, was shot to death in the jail here this morning.

About midnight Sheriff Munday, who lives at the jair, was awakened by a man at his door, who, when the sheriff answered the summons, stated that he was the sheriff of Gilmer county and that he had a prisoner he wanted to have locked up for the night. In the dark Sheriff Munday could see nothing but three or four men just outside the building and hurriedly dressing himself appeared at the main entrance to the jail building. Gathered about it were some eight or ten men, all of whom were armed. The sheriff took them for deputy sheriffs. The leader of the mob stepped forward and said: "Here, come here," using a name the sheriff does not now recall. The man stepped forward with his hands bound and in every way played the role assigned to him. As he advanced those around him closed in and in a few seconds the entire crowd was inside the jail building. Then a gun was thrown in Sheriff Munday's face and the keys were de manded. The sheriff saw what was up and remarked: "The keys are downstairs." "Well, get them quick," replied the leader Sheriff Munday hurried down the stairway ollowed by the two men. Half way down the steps he was brought to a sudden stop by the rattle of firearms in the room he had just left. Wheeling around, he bounded up the steps until he reached the cage in silver meeting to be held in this city or which Smith was confined. Upon examina- at one of the nearby summer resorts or tion he found that Smith had been shot six Labor day. At this meeting, if the wishes times and was dead.
