"All of this land," said an official in the Union Pacific land department, "is considered to be as good as the best in Wyoming. The most of it is situated on the celebrated Laramie plains and is the best feed ground in the state of Wyoming for cattle. The company is putting these lands on the market at prices which will sell them, as is evidenced by the applications already at hand."

Rock Island Has Five Sections.

The Rock Island road carried the Nineteenth infantry, enroute from New York to the Philippines, through Omaha yesterday, five sections being necessary to accommodate the 1,080 men who made up the regiment. The first section was composed of twelve passenger coaches and went through here at 1:40 a. m. The other four were made up of ten coaches each and followed at intervals until 6 o'clock when the last one sped through on its way westward.
