The address will be changed as often as desired.

The only famine in sight this year is a freight car famine.

The harmony which prevails in Sarnonia is of a brand similar to that displayed in the late Kentucky democratic convention.

Iowa savings bank deposits increased $5,000,000 during the second quarter of the current year.

The people of Santo Domingo lost no time in burying the late president in order to get him safely under ground before civil war over the succession should break out.

Attorney General Smyth will be too busy to adopt the suggestions of the senate investigating committee that he proceed against those officials and ex-officials shown to be corrupt.

When Colonel Bryan asks his followers to keep up the free silver battery of 1896 he seems to overlook the free gold that is being put into circulation by Nebraska wheat and corn fields.

People can laugh at the anthracite coal combine for raising the price of stored heat just now, when they are struggling with the ice man, but the coal man's turn will come soon enough.

The county democracy is a thorn in the side of the gang which it would be willing to rid itself of by amputation if necessary.

Examinations of applicants for positions in the census bureau will take place at Omaha from November 14 to November 22 and all parties looking for this class of employment may govern themselves accordingly.

The erstwhile calamity howlers are not now cultivating mortgages on their property, because that business has become unpopular.

The returning veterans of the First Nebraska are first of all things Americans. Whatever honors may be tendered to them should be on broad lines of American citizenship without partisan distinction or political demagoguery.

At 10 cents a bushel Nebraska's corn crop this year will be worth $50,000,000. At an average of 15 cents it will be worth $45,000,000.

The Chicago police have just broken up the original Edelweiss club, all because the club without taking out a license entertained 2,000 people in a beer garden.

General Toral is now being tried by court-martial for the surrender of Santiago. The commander of the victorious army was not court-martialed, but has been constantly on the spit of the yellow press ever since.

It is announced that the insurance combine in Missouri has been broken up and that the companies have paid a fine of $1,000 each for violation of the state law.

THE DUTY OF CONGRESS.

Discussion of the duty of congress in respect to currency legislation is steadily developing sentiment in favor of a definite and unequivocal declaration of the gold standard.

These things are not likely to occur, observes that paper, but they are possible and they would be no more wonderful than some other things that have happened.

There is no doubt that sentiment favorable to congressional action fixing the gold standard is steadily growing and we are very much mistaken if by the pressure that will be brought to bear upon the next congress in behalf of a declaration to this effect does not prove to be well nigh irresistible.

The next congress need not wait for an expression on this subject from the republican national convention. On the contrary its position should determine that of the convention.

A BAD CONDITION IN HAWAII. Semi-slavery exists in Hawaii under the contract labor system and this condition may yet give our government some trouble.

Lincoln is having all kinds of trouble with its proposed reception to the returning troopers of the First regiment. The populists are disgruntled because of the forwardness of local republicans in making up the program.

General de Gallifet appears to be the man for the hour in France. Finding insubordination and intrigue rampant in the army he has not hesitated to punish the guilty ones.

Whatever the democrats or populists do the republicans of Douglas county must nominate a county ticket from start to finish must be aggressive and not defensive.

The proposal to enlist several regiments of Cubans to take the place of American regulars in the island has met a stumbling block. The United States will furnish the officers and Cuba the privates.

The trades unions of Cleveland have publicly proclaimed their abhorrence of the act of the bomb-thrower whose missile wrecked a street car hauling passengers who had no active part in the street railway strike.

government's policy should be to do whatever is practicable to promote the business of the Cuban merchants and there can be no justification for a course that operates to their injury.

HOW TO AVOID STREET RAILWAY STRIKES. The recent street railway strikes in various sections of the country will compel the managers of street railways to wrestle with the problem of adopting policies that will prevent these periodic conflicts.

Revive It By All Means. They are seriously agitating the use of the whipping-post in New York. It will be revived for the taming of wild-beaters, if at all.

Torture Most Terrible. Human agony in its keenest, most acute and fearsome stages was witnessed in this city the other day, and yet no physician came to save, no white-capped nurse stroked to soothe the fevered sufferers.

Canada's Objections. What Canada objects to is not only that we get the gold from the Klondike region, but the trade. There is no reason in the first objection, because the gold costs far more to dig, considering all the labor engaged, than it is worth.

These Heroes Deserve Medals. There will be hearty and unanimous approval of the action of the president in recommending a special medal of honor to eight army corps in the Philippines.

As Good as a Gold Mine if Found in Paying Quantities. J. Sterling Morton's Conservative. The president's intelligent and exhaustive search for coal in the state of Nebraska.

Coal in Nebraska. Since that investigation was ended, thirty years ago, there has been no more thorough or diligent search made in the state.

The convention of bankruptcies referees is opposed to the repeal of the act within the next year, or after the victims of democratic times have been relieved of their burdens.

The wall of distress organs should speedily coach Adjutant General Barry. It will not do to have telegrams from him coming in stating the Nebraska sick and wounded are being well cared for when an effort is being well made to show they are abused and neglected.

Western Farmers Joyful. Philadelphia Leader. The western farmers refuse to feel sad over the 100,000,000 bushel wheat shortage in Russia.

Center of Population. Springfield Republican. The center of population in 1890 was located near the southeastern boundary of Indiana.

OTHER LANDS THAN OURS.

There is nothing improbable or inconsistent with the known facts of the situation in the report that the dowager empress of China has dispatched a mission to Tokio for the purpose of negotiating an offensive and defensive alliance with Japan.

There are some interesting points in the recent confidential report of the Paris prefect of police to the procureur, with regard to alleged monarchist plots, which has been published by the Gazette de France.

President Kruger threatened to resign in order to discipline a hasty Raad, he doubtless believed he was acting in harmony with the designs of Providence and in the interest of the people.

Correspondents of English newspapers in attendance upon the peace conference at The Hague are careful to explain that the objections raised to the use of the no-famous dum dum bullet were not founded upon any notion of the missile being of an explosive character.

Alfred Harmsworth of the London Mail is as great a devotee of the automobile as is James Gordon Bennett.

Dr. H. O. Howard, the entomologist of the Agricultural department, is credited with saying that it is the judgment of the highest authorities that a considerable part of the typhoid in our camps during the Spanish war was due to the flies, which carried the contagion.

Some statistics recently collected in regard to the education of 220 literary celebrities of the day indicate that Eton, which has always enjoyed a distinguished place in letters, leads with eleven representatives of the following order, with ten, and a London school, King's college, is credited with six.

A. B. Slawson, who is to have charge of the Congressional Library's Reading room, where 600 newspapers are kept on file, is probably the greatest authority on American newspapers.

Miss Adelaide Everhart, who was commissioned by the Georgia legislature to paint a picture of the late Charles S. Crisp, has already finished the work, which has been accepted and will be hung in the state capitol building.

William F. Coston, who designed the army transport flag now in use on all government transports, and received a patent for the design on June 13, 1899, has assigned the patent to the war office for the nominal sum of $1.

BELIEVES IN LEVEE SYSTEM

Annual Report of Mississippi River Commission—Over One Million Dollars Used Last Year. WASHINGTON, July 28.—The annual report of the Mississippi river commission has been received by General Wilson, chief of engineers.

The commission believes fully in the levee system. The commission has recognized in the past the obligation of giving an equal degree of security against overflow to each of the basins and districts, and the allotment of government funds has been based on this intention.

Washington Star: "What the matter" inquired the visitor at Paris. "I never saw the streets so quiet and orderly."

Washington Times: City Patron—Going to have the hay fever this year? Country Patron—No. My congregation cut off at it.

Indianapolis Journal: "I am writing an article," he said, "on 'The Way to Manage a Woman.'"

Chicago News. "Love me little, love me long— Now it's 'Love me for a day— And we'll be divorced tomorrow."

THE HAPPY FARMER. Somerville Journal. The farmer is a happy man. He lays a wealth of dollars up. He has no care to worry him.

"Some People" Think that our clothing is high priced simply because it is known to be good—that is a mistake. Just now it is possible to get the genuine Browning, King & Co. garments at even less than cost.

Store closes every night at 6 o'clock. N. B.—Are you going to attend the races at N. Y. M. C. A. Park Saturday? If so we have the proper outing garments at very reasonable prices.
