

CONSTANCE IS TWICE VICTOR

American Yacht Again Outfits the Glencairn for the Seawanhaka Cup.

CANADIAN BOAT RALLY COMES TOO LATE

Its Superior Stretch of Canvas Is Valuable Before the Wind, but Yacht Is Outpointed by Its Opponent.

DORVAL, Quebec, July 31.—The second race for the Seawanhaka cup came off on Lake St. Louis and was won by the American boat Constance by fifty-five seconds, this making two wins out of five races against the Glencairn's nothing, and as the course tomorrow will be to windward and return the Constance should have a good show. It certainly did not windward work in the first two rounds of the triangular course today. The Constance pointed much higher and stiffer than the Glencairn against the wind, while, of course, the Glencairn made gains before the wind. ...
