Fistle Bout at Sloux City.

Fistle Bout at Sioux City. SIOUX CITY, Aug. 1.—(Special.)—Sioux City is promised some new attractions in the fistle arena. Billy O'Donnell, a Sioux City featherweight who has made quite a reputation in the east, has signed articles to fight Tommy White in the opera house in Sioux City August 16 in a fifteen-round go for points. This will be for a purse of $90, and it is sure to be a clever exhibi-tion. Then Patsy Magner of Yankton bas signed to fight "Australian" Billy Murphy August 18. This, too, will be fifteen rounds for points, athough a knockout might occur at any time. The mayor of Sioux City is against finish fights. It is highly probable that George Dixon may come here, and Valuable Gift to Elks.

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 1.-Mrs. E. B. Crocker has conveyed as a gift to the local lodge of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks her manslon in this city, which, with the surrounding grounds, is valued at $99,000. The property is the old ome of E. B. Crocker, brother of Charles rocker, and one of the builders of the Cenral Pacific railroad. It is connected by covered passage with the Crocker Art gal-lery, presented some years ago by the widow of Judge Crocker to the city. The building is spacious and well built and the grounds are extensive and highly improved grounds are extensive and might minister and It is understood the gift is absolute and that the only requirement is that the man-sion and grounds shall be kept in good con-dition. Mrs. Crocker is now in San Fran-cisco with her son-in-faw, J. Sloat Fas-

 WORCESTER, Mass., Aug. 1.—The second annual regatta of the Quinsigaman Interna-tional Regatta association on Lake Quinsig-aman was witnessed by nearly 10,060 people. Champion Ten Evck was the hero of the day, and was greeted with cheers while he was on the water. He made two appear-ances, in the final heat of the single sculls and in the eight-oared Fuce as stroke of the Wachusetti crew. His rowing in the singles was the distinctive feature of the regatta. He had Amos Kubic of Spring-field for competitor and beat him about twelve lengths. It is the most severe beat-ing Ten Eyck has given any sculler and was done for the purpose of making a record for the mile and a half course. The previous record was 9.58 2-5, made by him three years ago. Today he covered the course in 9:46 3-5.
