Attorney John Lindt, who was awarded Broadway, erected by the Schlitz Brewing company on the property formerly owned by Mrs. Pralor, brought suit in the district court yesterday against Linder & Filter and W. H. M. Pusey to recover $2,500 damages. Linder & Filter occupied the building as a saloon under a lease from the Schlitz Brewing company and in August, 1897, secured an injunction restraining Lindt from interfering with their possession. After two years of litigation Lindt won out in the supreme court and secured possession of the building about two months ago, turning out Linder & Filter by force. W. H. M. Pusey, the banker, was surety on Linder & Filter's injunction bond.

In addition to the loss sustained by being kept out of the building by the restraining order, Lindt claims that the defendants by using the building for an illegal business and purposes have greatly damaged use for any legitimate business. He further alleges that the defendants during the period they occupied under the restraining order defaced the walls; that the flooring has become worn and rotten, the stairways worn and injured and the building has become stained and soiled by spilling intoxicating liquors upon it. For all this he asks the court to award him $2,500 of the defendants' money.

COURTS ARE RE-ESTABLISHED

Latest Step in Promoting Peace and Order in the Philippine Islands.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8 .- The orders of General Otis establishing courts in the Philippines have been received by the War department. On June 5 there was an order issued in which courts in the province of Manila and the courts of peace in the city of Manila were re-established as they were prior to August 13, 1898, "insofar as compatible with the supremacy of the United States in the Philippine islands and the exercise of military government therein."

The province is divided into districts and the judges, district attorneys and justices of the peace are named. All of these have Spanish names. The secretaries of the courts are directed to report to Lieutenant Colonel E. H. Crowder, judge advocate of the army in the Philippines.

He was arrested some time ago for counterfeiting, but jumped his beil. It is stated that while in the penitentiary he was assigned to work in the prison photograph gallery and succeeded in making a number of counterfeits of good workmanship which he managed to dispose of to parties on the outside. He is said to be a very dangerous workman and his capture, after a search of several months, is

The amount so far received at San Francisco is approximately $2,700,000. These amounts however, do not represent the entire output of the fields, as large quantities are supposed to have been held for later shipment and considerable amounts are believed to have been brought into the states by other
