Attorney General Does Nothing to Recover from Lincoln Cooperage Company.

FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS DUE THE STATE

Amount is increasing Rapidly and the Prison Board Has Airendy Ordered Mr. Smyth to Take Action to Collect.

LINCOLN, Neb., Aug. 20.-(Special.)-Attorney General Smyth has not yet carried out the instructions of the State Prison Board relative to instituting proceedings in court for the recovery of about $5,000 due the state from M. D. Weich and the Lincoln Cooperage company for convict, labor. Deputy Oldham has been at Lexington for several days attending the congressional and district conventions at that place and Mr. Smyth has so far shown no disposition to push the claim to a settlement. The amount due the state is increasing rapidly, as the cooperage company absolutely refuses to pay anything at all for prison labor until its set-off claim for $2,400 allowed. Ex-Warden Leidigh made several unsuccessful attempts to secure a set-tlement through the Prison Board, but that organization of state officials did not give the matter any serious consideration until about the time his successor took charge of the penitentiary. The attorney general was then recommended to commence suit, the amount due at the time being $4,000 and the set-off claim $400. A week later another meeting of the board was held to give Mr. Welch an opportunity to explain why he had not paid for the prison labor. He then claimed a set-off of $2,400, just $2,000 more than his claim of a week previous. Members of the Prison Board have nothing to say of the case other than that the attorney general has been instructed to take the necessary legal steps to recover vesterday and trial of the case can not be held before the winter term. State officials have no explanation to offer as to why proceedings have not been commenced.

Wants Writ of Mandamus.

Allen P. Ferguson, treasurer for the Sprague school district, this county, has applied to the district court for a peremptory writ of mandamus to compel William Krull, a district director, and William Piepho. moderator, to sign a lease for a building which the directors propose to rent for school purposes. This application is a novel one in that it seeks to compel a director to consent and approve a certain proposition which he emphatically opposes. The trouble arises over the location of the building, the applicant for the writ holding that the building in question has the most advantageous location, while Krull favors leasing a building in another portion of the district. The Lincoln Traction company of this city through its vice president, William Belcher of New London, Conn., has made another proposition to Mayor Winnett, looking toward a settlement of the city's claim for $11,000, due from the company as paving and grading taxes. A large portion of this amount, for which judgment has been rendered in the district court, represents interest and fines imposed for the non-payment of paving and grading taxes assessed against various companies which were later merged into the Lincoln Street Railway company. This company was succeeded by the Lincoln Traction company about two years ago and since then numerous attempts to compromise have been made, the last being an offer by President Scudder to pay the city $58,000 and have the suit dismissed by the supreme court, to which it has been appealed by the defendants.

The proposition of Vice President Belcher is to pay the city $65,000 as a full settlement when the freight was sighted on the main of the claim, these figures representing nearly the amount of the claim, less the in-sponsible for the bridge repairs; that the site of the proposed bridge is part or all in Sarpy county and beyond the authority of the Saunders county board; that taking any action on the matter of building the Ashiand bridge would be contrary to the position taken by the board in the dispute now on over the line between Dodge and Saunders over the repairs of the Platte river bridge.

Their Conventions. TRENTON, Neb., Aug. 20 .- (Special.) -

Judge.

The democratic and populist county conventions met here Saturday and notwithstanding the democrats offered to accept county clerk only, the populists refused. Every offer made again. by the democrats was rejected by the populists and as a result two full tickets are now in the field. This is the deathblow to fusion in the county, owing to the office greed in the populist ranks. The democratic ticket, which is a strong one, is as follows: W. A. Stewart of Blackwood, county clerk; Patrick Fitzgerald, a returned soldler of Stratton, county treasurer; Libble Swart of Cornell, county superintendent; Dan Brennen of Palisade, sheriff; G. V. Hunter of pest. Culbertson, coroner; H. L. Weyl of Trenton, judge.

The populist ticket is as follows: T. H. Britton, treasurer, renominated; John Ridnour of Palisade, county clerk; Jim Crews of Culbertson, sheriff; Stella Smith, county superintendent; C. W. Shurtleff, county

WEEPING WATER, Neb., Aug. 20 .- (Special.)-The republican county central committee met here Saturday and set the date for the convention at 11 o'clock, September 16, at Weeping Water. The primaries will be held the 9th. The basis of representation is one delegate for every twelve votes cast for Hayward for governor and one at large for each ward and precinct.

Collision on the Burlington. LINCOLN, Aug. 20.-(Special Telegram.)westbound passenger train on the Burlington railroad collided with an eastbound double-headed freight train at Denton, about ten miles west of this city, at 6:25 this evening. Nobody was hurt, but one engine was almost totally wrecked and the other two were badly damaged. None of the cars of either train were derailed or injured and traffic was delayed only a few hours. H. F. Rhodes was exhibiting in Ord some samples of a strange kind of thistle that seems to be getting a dangerous foothold in the county. The plant looks like a cross in the county. The plant looks like a cross between a burr and a thistle. It grows in scraggly, bushy shape, is of a light green hue, is provided with long slender horns that cover the stock and the seed pods quickly. It produces a yellow bloesom and develops seed pods which are round and very prolific. The thorns have very fine books at the point and their sting resem hooks at the point, and their sting resem-bles the nettle. The plant gives forh a very rank and rather offensive odor. It is most hardy grower, not being killed by utting, as it quickly sprouts and comes on gain. Mr. Rhodes says that he has cut the plants on his place several times this wear and they are as thrifty as ever. So he established beyond peradventure that there cincludes that they must be pulled up to stop their growth. He first saw them last year when a small patch was seen in his year when a small patch was seen in his hog lot, but he gave no beed to them, as he did not know that they would be any-thing bad. But this year he finds that they have spread over a good deal of land, and so he is making a hard fight against them and hopes that other farmers will do like-wise. He looks upon them as a serious were to start from Lingayen and move south at the same time that another were moving north there would be a very great probability of soon securing the entire railway for the use of the army and the insurgents would be separated into divisions east and west by the railroad, as they are now divided into northern and southern bands. Between Angeles and Lingayen is Tarlac, a town of considerable size and situated in province where the natives are said to be not unfriendly to the United States. If this province could be occupied it might be of great advantage to the government. While these are merely suggestions, it may be that when the army in the Philippines consists of 60,000 men, instead of about 20,000 or 25,000, it will be possible to have four or more armies operating instead of two, as during the last campaign. The locations of troops, as marked by pins show the places occupied as follows: North point above Angeles (General Wheaton).
