Strange as it may seem, the ball of amusement was started by a flamingo, a beauti-fully pink-tinted bird, with long, slendes legs and a long neck. The neck, it happens, is much longer than the legs, and more easily twisted. It is a rubber neck in the strictest sense of that expression. It is long enough to take a knot and still be as long as a man's forearm, and its action yesterday evinced an objection to being chided by boys with the innocent charge of "rubbering." The flamingo was strutting about the inclosure, unconscious of two urchins whe stopped to watch the graceful serpenting
