Red Rough Hands Made Soft and White a Single Night by CUTICURA SOAP

On retiring, soak the hands in a strong, hot lather of CUTICURA SOAP. Dry thoroughly, and anoint freely with CUTICURA, greatest of emollient skin cures. Wear during the night old kid gloves, with the finger ends cut off and holes in the palms.

For red, rough, chapped, or discolored hands, dry, fissured, itching, feverish palms, with sore, cracked and painful finger ends, this treatment is wonderful.

T. C. Patterson, R. H. Langford, H. S. White, W. T. Wilcox, A. Glaze, F. W. Johnson, H. M. Grimes, J. S. Hoagland, Wiley Mathews, I. L. Dare.

CHADRON, Neb., Aug. 26.—(Special.)—The republicans held their caucus here yesterday and elected the following delegates to the county convention, which meets at Wausa on Saturday, August 26: O. W. Rice, W. A. Meserve, W. H. Britt, L. B. Cross, W. H. Saunders, M. C. Von Habden and S. J. G. Irwin. They also put in nomination the following township ticket: Treasurer, L. B. Crews; clerk, W. A. Warner; assessor, J. H. Stoddard; justice of the peace, M. L. Graesser and Charles Lyons; constables, M. Darnell and J. L. Burns; road overseer, S. A. Young.

Ed L. Adams Nominated. MINDEN, Neb., Aug. 26.—(Special.)—The populist and democratic judicial conventions met in this city yesterday in separate halls.

A conference committee was appointed and reported in favor of requiring a majority of both conventions to nominate. The report was adopted and balloting commenced, resulting in the nomination of Hon. Ed L. Adams of this city on the fifteenth ballot. Fuston was elected, but there is an understanding of the money required to be paid at the polls. The other candidates were: R. A. Batty and J. C. Stevens of Hastings; Judge Garrett of Holdrege; Judge P. B. Beall of Hastings and Judge Everson of Alma.

It was well known that the democrats would not endorse anyone but J. C. Stevens or Adams, and possibly Judge Everson. The field seemed to be against Beall and knowing he could not be endorsed by the democrats he was forced to retire and evidently tried to nominate Judge Garrett.

The nominees served two terms as county judges and two terms as county attorney in this county.

CURRIE SAFE IN HIS RETREAT.

Something About the Desperate Bandit from His Home in Chadron.

CHADRON, Neb., Aug. 26.—(Special.)—The notorious Currie and his accomplices over the heads of whom a standing reward of $6,000 is offered, dead or alive, for the now famous train robbery in which an express car was blown to atoms with dynamite and a large amount of money made away with, are at remote from the clutches of the law now as at any time since their successful escape into the Hole-in-the-Wall country of Wyoming. From authentic information it is learned that the recent report of Currie's successful escape from Chadron, tend to disquiet even the supposition that he would take such desperate chances. Currie will feel satisfied to rest secure with his confederates in the Hole-in-the-Wall, where he is plentifully supplied with provisions and where the combined efforts of an army of "dead-shots," detectives, officers and bloodhounds have met a Waterloo. Currie is the "black sheep" of a family bearing the best of reputation in this city. It is asserted that should he appear in his own name, he would be recognized as a fugitive, he would not be harbored by any one of them. Two of his sisters are married to reputable railroad men holding important positions here. His mother is a quiet, unpretentious lady, who greatly deplors the waywardness of her son, George. She is at present keeping house with her two younger sons, Hugh and Don, and daughter, Barbara, whose standing in this community is the best.
