VISITORS' VICTURE OF TO HEAVY HITTING

Exciting Base Ball Game on Diamond at Nonparell Park Watched by a Large Crowd of Enthustnatic Rooters.

The first base ball game of the series between the Omaha Brewing association and the Denver nines was won by the Colorado players Saturday afternoon at Nonparell park by a margin of a single run, The score was 6 to 5, and the contest was St. Louis ......1 3 2 0 1 0 1 0 *-S replete with exciting incidents and sensa-Baltimore .....0 1 0 0 1 0 1 1 0-4 The score was 6 to 5, and the contest was tional plays that kept the rooters continually howling.

The Denver nine is a strong aggregation, Simmons, the pitcher, and Riley, the third baseman, being old league players of considerable prominence. They are heavy batters and it is to superiority in this respect that the victory was due. Green, Logue and Riley, heading the batting list, rapped out some long hits that were responsible for most of the scoring. Simmons, in the box, combined excellent judgment with a speedy delivery and kept the local players guessing most of the time.

Only once did the Omaha men strike a batting streak and then they bunched hits, netting three runs. It was in the last half of the seventh inning. Mclivain pitched a steady game, but the Denver men experienced little difficulty in finding the ball at times when hits were needed and the infield's support was frequently ragged. In the initial inning Denver scored on and Riley's single to left. The locals went out in one-two-three order. Bradford failed beat out an easy grounder to Riley, Scully was caught napping at second, after receiving a pass to first, and Lawler bunted a ball that he touched in running, retiring

In the second both nines drew a blank and the locals repeated the performance in the third, but the Colorado men managed to land three runs. Green started the scoring by taking first on Lawler's wild throw and crossing the plate on Logue's triple to left field. Logue ran in from third on Riley's single, and Simmons, who got a base on Bradford's wild one, secured a tally on Taylor's line hit between third and short-

The fourth inning was non-productive of runs for either side. The locals scored their first in the following round, when Waller knocked a high one out of Green's reach and chalked up a run as Jelen went out via Cotton to first. In the sixth there was another goose egg for Omaha and a run for the visitors by Cotton, who hit safely and came home on Davis' long fly to center.

It was in the seventh that the game began to take on a winning aspect for the locals. Riley juggled Waller's hot grounder too long to catch the runner at the bag. Then Dorcas, Kennedy and Lacey singled in quick succession and three tallies were registered before Lacey was thrown out at second in an unsuccessful attempt to move up one. When Denver came to the bat the players were retired in succession.

In the eighth the visitors scored and in the next round Omaha evened things up by squeezing in Lawler's run for an offset. When Jelen stepped to the plate he had a chance to cover himself with three-ply glory, as two men were on bases, but the best he could do was to strike out, practically ending the game. the week in cricket circles has been Prince Ranjits'nghgi, who will probably go to America shortly. He has immortalized himself in the annals of the game by scoring 2,000 runs in one season in first-class matches. Such a feat has never before been accomplished. The next highest record is that of the veteran W. G. Grace, who scored 2.799 in 1874. It is regarded as remarkable that an Oriental should eclipse Englishmen so emphatically at their own national game.

Veteran Monument Association Game The Union Pacific base ball club and the Young Men's Christian Association club will play a game of ball at the ball park of the Young Men's Christian association on Saturday afternoon, September 9. The proceeds will be donated to the monument fund of the Veteran Monument association.

SCENES ALONG THE MIDWAY Points of Interest Taken from Two

Miles of Midway Attractions. The coming home of the First Nebraska has put the stamp of genuineness upon the Philippine Village, the boys with very few exceptions recognize old acquaintances from Manila and the skeptics and want-tobe doubters have been compelled to admit the nationality of the dusky boys from the Island of Luzon. This, too, has evidently convinced the public, for the attendance has been much larger than heretofore and the attraction bids fair to be, as the manage ment have intended it should be, the peo

while not making a great amount of money, bave been fairly well patronized, Cyclorama, or Battle of Missionary Ridge receiving its proportion of the large at tendance; all the old soldiers had to see the wonderful painting and show younger soldiers what they did back in the '60's. One becomes spellbound by the realistic effect upon the canvas. Hobson Sinking the Merrimac is another war-time picture and yet not a picture, but a miniature reproduction of the harbor of Santiago, with the great rocks that make the foundation of Morro Castle; the collier Merrimac i steamed into the parrow entrance blown up just as Hobson did it, making a wonderfully attractive performance. Then over on the east Midway is the Waragraph, giving the battle of Manila and the charge up San Juan hill; the latter picture is thrown on the canvas and gives every move of our brave boys as they make that wild charge; one forgets it is only a picture, for here comes the excited captain cheering his men onward, down falls a comrade and an unexploded shell that lights near him is kicked away by the colonel and explodes in mid-air. The Red Cross rush in care for the wounded while the smoke of the battle hides the boys in blue. It is a thrilling scene which never fails to please. The Moorish palace, besides the wide range of wax figure subjects gives a fine moving picture entertainment in the passion play as given in Bavaria. Of course it is not all given, for it takes four months to give it in its entirety, but the best scenes are shown, such as Christ entering Jerusalem, before Pilate, the crucifixion, etc. The Old Plantation gives life and snap to the West Mid-theater is a splendid reproduction of darky ness men.

DERBY FEATURE OF THE DAY life in "ole Alabam" befo' de wah," The new Darkness and Dawn is one of those entertainments that hold you and you go through it again and again. There is a fascination about being pinched by a skeleton that springs from where the man that dug the tunnel only knows, and then the beautiful electric fountain effects that greet you at dawn are simply beyond description, but must be seen to be appreclated.

There are two attractions on the Midway that capture the children and old people at the same time, the scenic railway catches them if they are out, the downward shoot of an elevator sensation only magnified one hundred times of the up and down road is irresistable. The same can be said of the merry-go-round, old but ever popular, and the only five-cent show on the grounds. There is a charm about the artist and his living models at the artist's studio and the way he paints the masquerader from nature opens the eyes of our critics and artists. Captain Louis Sorcho's deep sea diving exhibit is probably the newest, most scientific and interesting entertainment on the grounds. The captain is quite interesting himself, inasmuch as it was he who recovered the bodies of our sailor boys from Havana barbor. The entertainment consists of showing how this was done. -Greater America Expositio

Musical Director Kelly and Herman Bellstedt, conductor of the celebrated band, are making elaborate preparations for the new and original musical extravaganza, entitled, "Santiago," which is being written expressly for the Greater America Exposition. It will be presented with the assistance of about 150 soldiers in regulation uniform, some Rough Riders, one of the posts of the Grand Army of the Republic, a veteran drum corps, sixty Sioux braves, with their horses; a company of High school cadets, Spanish dancing girls, toreadors, etc.; illuminations, cannon, Gatling guns, musketry and elaborate fireworks

Belistedt Will Remain. At a meeting of the executive committee held Saturday afternoon it was decided to retain Bellstedt's band for four weeks more, with the option of the last four weeks of the exposition given them if they so desire. The manager for Phinney's band asked that he be given the contract for the last four weeks, and the committee advised him to canvaes among the business men of the city and find out if they wanted his band before anything further is done in the matter.

BOOM TIMES IN NORTHWEST Observations of a Business Traveler

on Conditions of Trade and Farming.

Henry P. Kolb has just returned to the city after being absent since last May on a business trip through the states of Wyoming, Utah, Idaho, Montana, Oregon and Washington. He gives an enthusiastic account of the business prosperity which the north and northwest are enjoying. The construction of business and residence houses in the states he has visited, he says, is remarkable, especially so in the cities of Spokane and Walla Walla, Wash.; Pendleton, Portland and Baker City, Ore., and Lewiston, Idaho. Mining interests are in the best of condition and many new strikes | north. are constantly reported which are attracting the capital of eastern men. Railroad building is also going on at a rapid rate, and Mr. Kolb believes that the young state of Idaha will lead the union in the mileage of new construction this year.
