Convention Splits Over Admitting Participants of the Spanish War.

NEW ASSOCIATION TO BE ORGANIZED

National G. A. R. Encampment Sel. Chicago as the Next Place o. Meeting-Commandership Will Go to Missouri or New York.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 6 .- There were vely times at today's session of the fourteenth annual convention of the National Association of Naval Veterans. A resolution providing for admission of participants the Spanish war to membership in the association started a rumpus and the result is that there is now a split in the convention. At the convention last year at Cincinnati the above resolution was offered and, under the rules, was laid over until this year. There was much discussion as to the advisability of admitting the Spanish war veterans and when the resolution came up today everybody was ready to fight for or against it. The leader of the forces in favor of the proposition was Past Rear Admiral B. S. Osborn of Farragut association, New York. He delivered a passionate address, in which the said that the Naval Veterans' association should be perpetuated by admitting the men of the late war and not let the organization die with the veterans of the civil war.

He was followed by Surgeon A. Trego Shortzer of Baltimore, who stoutly main tained that the association was organized for the sailors of the civil war only and that it should die with them.

The national encampment has selected Chicago for the next place of meeting,

The greatest secrecy is being maintained report begins in an exhaustive review of the pension legislation and the causes leading up to the present pension system and methods. It declares that no class of citizens bears more cheerfully the burden of supporting the government and its institutions than the veterans. Comrades in encampment are not here to criticise, but to discharge a patriotic duty to the country in considering the pension question. The national encampment, the report continues, has never made an appeal to the country in vain and reason, not passion, and argument instead of invective are becoming to men who are all marching on the downward slope of life. The report goes on to say that ment of a solemn compact made when they manfully and bravely gave all they had to the country, not counting the cost to themselves. The report then cites the conditions when, in 1890, congress passed the act to provide relief for disabled veterans and their widows and orphans, not conditioned in the service. This act is intended to meet assistance as the soldiers in state homes. were suffering from the hardships of army life. It was claimed that the original construction of this law was announced in 1893 by most unjust and arbitrary rulings of the pension commissioner first placing the burden of proof upon applicants for pensions that they were not suffering from disabilities consequent upon their own vicious habits and in the ruling that widows ported that during the last eighteen months of veterans who applied for pensions were not eligible if they had an income aggre-

WOMEN'S ORGANIZATION IN SESSION.

President Flo Jamieson Miller Makes Several Recommendations. PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 6.-The seventeenth annual convention of the Woman's Relief corps began this morning. President Flo Jamieson Miller of Monticello, Ill., presided. Nearly 300 delegates, representing every state in the union, were present. Following the presentation of credentials and the appointment of temporary committees President Miller read her annual re port. It was largely a detailed review of the work accomplished by the various departments during the past year, as indicated in the report. Mrs. Miller also made a number of recommendations. Among the more important were the following: That departments be given the privilege of disposing of all money in their emergency fund as they may deem for the best interests of their respective departments.

That a committee of three shall be appointed to urge the adoption of a bill making the wives, mothers, widows and daugh ters of soldiers living in the various soldiers' widow's homes eligible to the same The remainder of the session was devoted

The Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic and the Ladies' Auxiliary of Naval Veterans also held executive sessions. About 300 delegates were present at the former, which was presided over by Mrs. Agnes Winslow of Chicago. The other,
