Norfolk News: That poor overworked word-anti-should go on a strike and execute a boycott against the democratic party. Their leaders seem to be unable to originate any policy of their own and so seek to tear down and destroy what their opponents have accomplished. Anti-prosperity is the sum and substance of it all. Bradshaw Republican: The actions of fusionists at Omaha are such as to cause a feeling of general rejoicing in the repub lican camp. The fusion forces can no more successfully vindicate Si Holcomb at the polls than the republicans did Tom Majors in 1894. The cases are a close parallel and the same result may be looked for. Republicans can now confidently look for a vic tory in Nebraska. Valley Enterprise: Charles S. Elgutter, whose residence in Douglas county dates back thirty-one years, is out for the nomination of county judge on the republican ticket. Mr. Elgutter is a clean-cut, able lawyer of high personal integrity. member of the Board of Education of Omaha during 1891-1894, he advocated many reforms in the school board which led to a better and more economical administration. Arrington Times: The Omaha Bee hits the nail square on the head when it utters the following: "The republican party has enough and several times more than enough men of good ability and clean records to fill every office of honor and trust within the choice of the people. Under such circumstances, what folly to encourage the aspirations of men whose homination would be sure to jeopardize the success of the
