The incorporated town of Walnut has filed with the board its resistance to the petition of Joseph Bolter and others for refund and remission of taxes on property which they claimed had been severed from the town. The town claims that the petitioners brought suit for severance of territory and prosecuted it to a decree, but failed to comply with the law requiring that the decree should be recorded by the county auditor.

Getting Down to Business. No delay was experienced in getting the convention down to work and when Chairman Everest of the county central committee called the gathering to order promptly the members of the central committee were represented by its full quota of delegates. Mr. Everest at once named O. S. Blanchard of Council Bluffs as temporary chairman and Jacob Geizer of Minnea as selected temporary secretary. Mr. Blanchard, on assuming the gavel, made a short address, saying in part:

The republican party today stands as it stood in its infancy for principles and theories demonstrated by experience and history to be the best calculated to preserve the interests of the people. Always a friend of the people, endeavoring to lighten burdens, guard and protect rights, repelling all unjust and oppressive laws, it has ever been a party of moderation, conservatism, respect for law and order, which has secured to the humblest toiler immunity from the exactions and wrongs of the few.

Domestic soap whitens your clothes. PROCEEDINGS OF THE CITY COUNCIL. Measures Taken to Give Fifty-First Iowa a Reception. The extreme heat and regular monthly meeting of the city council last night was cut as short as possible and very little outside of routine business attended.
