WINNERS ARE NAMED

Douglas County Republicans Select the Men They Propose to Elect.

FIVE OF THEM NAMED BY ACCLAMATION

Others Chosen by an Overwhelming Vote of the Delegates.

ENTHUSIASM A CONSPICUOUS FEATURE

Successful Candidates Cheered While Losers Plunge Support.

VICTORY FORECASTED BY THE SPEAKERS

They Declare that This is a Republican Year and the Delegates Most Enthusiastically Endorse the Sentiment.

- Clerk of the District Court, IRVING G. BARRHITT; Sheriff, LEONARD W. BARKER; County Clerk, D. M. HAVELY; County Treasurer, FRANK E. BRYAN; County Judge, W. W. WINDHAM; County Coroner, N. P. SWANSON; County Surveyor, GEORGE M. WELLS; County Superintendent, E. B. BROWN; Police Judge, R. P. THOMAS; State Senator, W. C. BURRISH; Commissioner, Third District, JAMES WATSON; Commissioner, Fourth District, HENRY E. OSTROM.

This is the ticket for which the republicans of Douglas county will wage battle during the coming campaign. It was nominated at Washington last yesterday afternoon in a convention remarkable for the enthusiasm that prevailed and for the intense interest manifested in the proceedings by the rank and file of the party.

The hall was packed by the largest crowds that ever attended a political convention in Douglas county. The delegates were crowded by hundreds of spectators who surged through the aisles and wedged themselves compactly in the lobby and galleries.

The only unrepentant feature on the program was caused by a desperate effort of Chairman Burbank of the county committee to arrogate to himself the choice of a temporary chairman for the day.

Called to Order. The convention was called to order at 2:30 and the anti-convention confusion gradually merged into order.

Mr. Wharton thanked the convention for the honor and declared that the big and important work was before him.

Settle the Contests. It was announced that the committee had a contest from the Fifth ward on its hands and a representative of each of the contesting delegations was called in to present its side of the controversy.

It was reported that the anti-Saunders delegation would be seated. Here 128 voters had voted for the name of Saunders.

At the close of the sixth ward moved that Mr. Haverly for county clerk, N. P. Swanwick for coroner, George McElreath for surveyor, Henry E. Ostrom for county commissioner, and for the office of assessor, the unanimous nominees of the convention.

Galiff's Resignation Denied. PARIS, Sept. 9.—A semi-official news was issued today emphatically denying the report that General de Galiff, the minister of war, had tendered his resignation and saying that proceedings would be taken against the paper for publishing the report.

ASTOR MAY TURN SPECULATOR

England Doubts, However, He Will Sell His American Estate—What Astor's Life Is.

(Copyright, 1899, by Press Publishing Co.) LONDON, Sept. 9.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—The report of the negotiations of the English syndicate to purchase the New York estate of William Waldorf Astor is generally discredited in financial circles in London.

At present Astor is identified as the holder of a considerable amount of English railway stock which he has been buying for years, but any attempt to buy up the market so as to buy up larger interests would be met by large demands for the stock by the present holders.

Astor leads a very solitary life in London. He goes down to his office at 11:30 each morning, there he attends to his estate and newspaper business for a couple of hours, as a rule, and remains in his office until after 5 o'clock.

When he is living at Cliveden, his lovely place on the Thames, which he bought from the duke of Westminster, he comes to town just the same every day except on Saturday and Sunday.

At Cliveden a firm of builders is always in possession of some part of the estate and alterations and additions are constantly being made.

MARLBOROUGH'S NEW HOUSE

Various Unpleasant Complications in Getting the London Site—Prove Hindrances.

(Copyright, 1899, by Press Publishing Co.) LONDON, Sept. 9.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—The purchase of Curzon street chapel, Mayfair, by the Duke and Duchess of Marlborough has not proved the simple business transaction that was expected.

Reginald Ward, who has just returned from Mexico, where he has been inspecting the Avino mine, has now gone for a short holiday to Spa.

Will Be Given Thorough Trial Along English-Built Engines—Interesting Experiments with New Kind of Armor Plate.

(Copyright, 1899, by Press Publishing Co.) LONDON, Sept. 9.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—The craze for motor car riding is distinctly on the increase in this country.

A test of absorbing interest to American and British railway locomotive builders is about to be tried on the Midland railway.

H. A. Ivatt, locomotive superintendent of the Great Northern railway, has been examining American engines and says he cannot find any important part that ought not to be tried on or nearly as long as those of the British engines.

New Armor Plate.

Interesting experiments on new armor plate for war ships have just been concluded at Sheerness, at the mouth of the Thames.

The postmaster general, the duke of Norfolk, has shown a profit of nearly $18,000,000 on the working of the British post office for the year ending March 31.

England's Trade Increases.

England's foreign trade continues to expand. Returns to the Board of Trade for August show imports nearly $18,000,000 higher than during the same month last year.

COMING OF A NOTED BEAUTY

Muriel Wilson, Formerly a Rival of Consuelo Vanderbilt, is En Route to America.

(Copyright, 1899, by Press Publishing Co.) LONDON, Sept. 9.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—Muriel Wilson, the most striking beauty in England, smart society, accompanied her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Wilson, and two or three other friends on a visit to America by the Majestic Wednesday.

Muriel Wilson fills now the unique position in English society occupied by Margaret Tennant before her marriage with Herbert Asquith, but while without Muriel's grace and beauty, she is incomparably handsomer and has displayed histrionic talents of a rare order.

DREYFUS HAS TWO FRIENDS

Lieutenant Colonel de Broon and Captain Beauvais Vote to Acquit the Accused Officer.

She Likes the Character of Mrs. Trevelyan in the Play and Believes It True to Life.

(Copyright, 1899, by Press Publishing Co.) LONDON, Sept. 9.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—I interviewed Mrs. Langtry at Haymarket theater tonight, but considering that she travels to and from Brighton each day to the theater, it is not surprising, remembering the small amount of time at her disposal and the numbers she had to see between acts, that the interview was of the briefest.

In my arms, sobbed long and then told me about her interview with her husband after the verdict. What an awful thing. These two, after all this hope, find themselves torn apart again.

"You were right, wrong? Your plan of making the case impossible by disqualifying thoroughly all military witnesses shows we have penetrated them more than we. Henceforth count me as the most determined partisan of a vigorous fight and no mercy in the foe when we have him down."

PARDON LOOKED FOR

The general belief is that Dreyfus will be pardoned, but this will not satisfy his friends, who vehemently declare that they will refuse to accept the verdict and will continue the battle until the judgment is reversed.

TEXT OF THE JUDGMENT

Today, the 9th of September, 1899, the court-martial of the Tenth Legion army corps, deliberating behind closed doors, the president put the following question: "Is Alfred Dreyfus, brevet captain, Fourth regiment of artillery, probationer on the general staff, guilty of having in 1894 entered into machinations or held relations with a foreign power or one of its agents to induce it to commit hostility or undertake against France or procure it to do so?"

RENNES GENDARMES KEPT BUSY

RENNES, Sept. 9.—Scenes of great excitement occurred at Rennes tonight. The anti-Dreyfusards broke loose and started a demonstration which, but for prompt and rigorous measures by the police, would undoubtedly have developed into serious disorders.

CONVICTED MAN MAY YET BE PARDONED

His Lawyers Leave Rennes for Paris and Will at Once Take Measures Looking to a Revision of the Case.

RENNES, Sept. 9.—The expected has happened. Dreyfus has been condemned, but though a majority of those in the court room this afternoon expected the verdict, they were completely stupefied when it was given.

The silence which prevailed in the room, when men turned pale and caught their breath, was more impressive than any other manifestation could have been.

DREYFUS BEARS HIS SENTENCE

Meanwhile a tragedy was being enacted in the little room off the court room, where Dreyfus listened to the reading of the verdict. He had been told the result by his lawyers and had wept bitterly, but when in the presence of the officials of the court-martial he listened impassively to the sentence.
