WATER SPORTS ON LAGOON

Feats of High Diving Attract Very Large Crowds on Tuesday.

CAPTAIN SORCHO BLOWS UP THE MAINE

Margaret Johnson Exemplifies Monte Cristo's Reconstruction at Sea—Alfredo Delights Spectators with Rope Walking Feats.

ODD FELLOWS AND DAUGHTERS OF REBEKAH

10:30 a. m.—Adelmann's Omaha band—Parade through the city. 12:30 p. m.—Belsted's Concert Band—Auditorium. 4:30 p. m.—Stonk Indian Dog Feast and Dance—Indian Village, Bluff tract. 6:00 p. m.—Alfredo, champion high wire walker of the world, across Lagoon. 7:00 p. m.—Adelmann's Omaha Band—Colonial building. 8:00 p. m.—Odd Fellows and Daughters of Rebekah reception, with Adelmann's Omaha Band—Prater's building. 9:30 p. m.—Alfredo, champion high wire walker of the world, across Lagoon.

The attendance at the Exposition Tuesday was larger than for some time, and most of the people on the grounds were from out of town. The big list of attractions was attended by good crowds all day. It was Western Illinois day and a contingent of people from the Sucker state were present to see the great white city.

The carnival of aquatic sports at 3:30 drew very large and enthusiastic assemblages. There were swimming contests, high diving and other attractions that seemed to please the throngs immensely. The diving from a pole sixty feet in height in the middle of the Lagoon caused a sensation. The divers did some daring work from the pole and obtained thunderous applause for their feats. Matthew Gay dived backwards from the pole and struck the water head foremost. Several other high dives were made by the men.

Mrs. Margaret Johnson gave an exhibition of fancy swimming and brought her act to a close with a wonderful performance. She was placed in the burial sack, such as is used at sea, weights were put at her head and feet, and she was shoved overboard into the lake. In just forty-five seconds she came to the surface with a glittering knife held above her head, like the hero in Monte Cristo. This feat pleased the crowd greatly and was given great applause. In the swimming contest between Gay, Johnson and Bernard the first named won first money and Johnson second.

MUNYON'S INHALER CURES CATARRH

Colds, Coughs, Hay Fever, Bronchitis, Asthma and all Diseases of the Throat and Lungs. The card consisted of four good, brisk races. The first was for seven-eighths of a mile for a purse of $75. There were seven starters. Belle Corsica won first money, Bill Powell second and New Moon third. Time: 1:32.

thousand pieces with a roar that shook the buildings. The shock threw the water into the air for many feet and made an inspiring spectacle.

The high rope walking by Alfredo also attracted the crowds after the carnival. He did some daring feats that brought out much applause. He walked the rope at first in a street suit with a small stove upon his back. He sat down when he reached the center of the lagoon and cooked his dinner and ate it while balancing himself at the same time. Later he removed his street clothing while on the wire and walked blindfold across the space.

One of the most perilous feats was that of standing on his head on the rope. In the evening he gave a fine exhibition of fireworks on the rope and performed seemingly impossible feats of balancing in mid-air.

"Santingo" Successfully Repeated. Kelly and Belsted's big spectacle, "Santingo," was produced Tuesday night on the Plaza, with Belsted's band as the background and other musical organizations, soldiers, dancing girls and a big army of other actors. The second presentation of the extravaganza was smoother than the first, for the reason that the actors knew better what to do and how to do it.

The music furnished by the band is a big part of the show and it was appropriate and in good taste from the beginning until the end. The Castilian scene in the opening was especially beautiful, with the graceful dancers in their picturesque costumes. The marching soldiers made a brave showing and the sunset gun and the lowering of the flag to the strains of the "Star-Spangled Banner" was an impressive sight, dramatic in its entirety.

RUNNING RACES DRAW WELL

Four Heats Are Puled Off in Good Style. The races in the afternoon were very largely attended, but would have been more so had not an attempt been made to charge 30 cents for seats on any place on the bleachers. Heretofore admission has been charged for seats in the covered part, but ropes were put up Tuesday and all seats were sold. Several hundred people came to the race course and went away again when they found out what was going on. The executive committee called a halt to the proceedings and the people then flocked to the races.

The card consisted of four good, brisk races. The first was for seven-eighths of a mile for a purse of $75. There were seven starters. Belle Corsica won first money, Bill Powell second and New Moon third. Time: 1:32. In this second race Joe Faustis came under the wire in the lead, with Patsy Dolan at his heels, and Charles Lamar third. There were seven starters. Distance seven-sixteenths of a mile. Purse, $50. Time: 0:45. Robison won the third race, with Cap Hardy second, and Sir Walter third. The purse was $75. Distance, five-eighths of a mile. Time: 1:05. The last race was half a mile. Cora Venus won, with Belle second and Vampire third. Elsie Zase and Tida Wavy were left at the post. Time: 0:51 1/2. At 7 o'clock in the evening a "Hostlers' Stew" was served in the Transportation building. This is a famous Kentucky dish and consists of all sorts of meats and vegetables stewed together and served in bowls. The affair was free to all and was attended by a good many people. All the jockeys were present and horsemen and horsewomen mingled in the crowd and had a great time. After the stew had been enjoyed thoroughly a dance was indulged in until a late hour.
