BATTLE AND ROUGH RIDING FEATURES

Belletts Receives His Third Call Saturday Will Be Gala Day and All the Midway Will Be on the Parade.

Minnesota Editors' day, Sioux City day and Venetian carnival.

The attractions at the Exposition Thursday were numerous and the attendance was in consequence good.

The Indian sham battle on the East bluff tract was a lively one and interesting in the extreme.

Delacelo Muldeado, a Mexican cowboy, rode a horse that has hitherto been considered untamable.

Fritz Mueller and was loaned for the occasion. The rider had some difficulty in mounting, but after that stuck to the saddle as though he were glued there.

At a meeting of the executive committee Thursday afternoon it was decided to give Belletts' band another call, making the third that has been given that organization.

The present engagement expires October 1, but it has now been extended to the 15th to remain here for one week longer.

At a meeting of the executive committee Thursday afternoon it was decided to give Belletts' band another call, making the third that has been given that organization.

Four running races were pulled off Thursday afternoon in the presence of a very good assemblage.

Bill Powell won first money in the one mile race, Bell Corsica second and Miss Chambers third.

In the five-furlong of a mile heat Al Stokes made the best time, with Sir Walter a good second and New Moon third.

Director Belletts inaugurated the soloists' night Thursday night and the new attraction received with high favor and was a decided success.

Everything now indicates that the excursion to the Hastings street fair next Saturday is going to be a great success.

At 12:30, but if it does not the street car company has promised to have cars wait at the Webster street station until it does come in, no matter what time.

accompanied by Chief Engineer Prince, spent the day inspecting the several pumping stations. The visit of President Woodbury has no significance at this time. He is simply on a tour of inspection, which is made usually from three to four times each year.

FUR ROBBERS BROUGHT BACK

Captain Donahue and Detective Dunn Return from Joplin with Men Who Robbed Shukert's Store.

Captain Donahue and Detective Dunn returned on the 1 o'clock train from Joplin, Mo., bringing with them the two men who looted the vault of Shukert's fur store the night of September 13 and stole garments valued at $10,000.

At the police station one of the pair gave his name correctly, Charles Dennis. He said he was a salesman by occupation and his home was New York. The other man, who is known to the police as Mich Lavery, said his name was Thomas Molihan.

Detective Dunn said they were delayed a day after the arrival of the requisition papers by the reluctance of the Joplin authorities to give up the prisoners.

When Chief White's guaranty that the stolen furs reached Joplin by mail the authorities consented to turn over the men. Prince and Lavery had many friends among the gambling fraternity of Joplin, who tried every way possible to have the two men let out.

The party started for this city Wednesday morning. At night the burglars were left in the Kansas city jail, the officers having stopped at the Ashland house. Shukert was at the depot upon the arrival of the train in Omaha.

James Hyland, sr., conductor, forsook the rear platform of a street car Wednesday afternoon long enough to don civilian dress and appear before the judicial bench at the police court to defend his 12-year-old son, James, jr., arraigned on the charge of disturbing the peace by fighting.

James Hyland, sr., conductor, forsook the rear platform of a street car Wednesday afternoon long enough to don civilian dress and appear before the judicial bench at the police court to defend his 12-year-old son, James, jr., arraigned on the charge of disturbing the peace by fighting.

Hyland was arrested for fighting with a lad considerably smaller than himself. They came to blows over a question of the right to undersell one another in disposing of newspapers, both being newsboys.

At the Hyland boy is too young to be legally prosecuted for any offense at all. Judge Gordon would have discharged him without hearing arguments, but Hyland hadn't deserted the bell-cord without a motive.

The climax of Hyland's oratorical effort was reached when he described the people coming in from the valleys and the hills-top. He thundered, rising on his toes to impersonate hill tops, "and that craven coward of a copper cowed like a felon in the shadow of a patrol box that the electric light might strike on his guilty face."

Everything now indicates that the excursion to the Hastings street fair next Saturday is going to be a great success. Committees from both the Commercial club and the Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben are putting in the touch of the time.

SOUTH OMAHA NEWS.

An adjourned meeting of the city council was held Thursday night at which considerable business was transacted and several ordinances pertaining to the renewal of maturing bonds were passed.

The ordinance providing for the removal from office of elective officers. This is the ordinance which was introduced last month when six members of the council signed a resolution requesting Mayor Enos to step down and out.

The ordinance came up on third reading and before directing the clerk to call the roll the mayor took occasion to remark that the document was illegal on the fact that it conflicted with ordinance No. 42, which is still in force.

Successful grocers know full well that Ivory Soap is best to sell because 'tis best to use, and so their trade, well satisfied, will grow.

There are many white soaps, each represented to be "just as good as the Ivory." They are not, but like all counterfeits, lack the peculiar and remarkable qualities of the genuine. Ask for "Ivory" Soap and insist upon getting it.

To Relieve Taxpayers. The council has before it an ordinance introduced by Stult authorizing the payment of special assessments or personal property taxes prior to 1897 without penalties and with remission of interest in excess of 6 per cent, provided such payment is made before January 1, 1900.

Goins to Try Bankruptcy. Horner Horner and his wife, Mary Jane Horner of Wallace, this state, have filed their applications in the office of the clerk of the United States court, asking to be declared bankrupts. They allege that they owe debts aggregating $5,000 and are without any property with which to liquidate.

Children with Matches Cause Fire. Children playing with matches in Frank A. Stroup's barn at the rear of 326 South Thirty-fifth street, set fire to a pile of hay and kindled a fire that totally destroyed the barn and its contents. It was a story and a half structure in which a small supply of feed was kept. The flames were communicating to the dwelling in front when the department arrived. The prompt action of the firemen prevented the fire from spreading and no further damage was done but the house that is on the same lot, which the barn was $115. There was no insurance.

Youths Arrested for Horse Stealing. Deny Guilt Until Members of Family Conclude to Tell Truth.

Ord Henley and George Roach, held at the city jail on the charge of horse stealing, admitted Thursday afternoon that they took the horse belonging to J. M. Martin, having found it hitched to a post in front of McKinnis' saloon near Fort Omaha. The youths say they only went for a drive, intending to return the animal when tired of driving. They explain that the horse ran away near Thirty-eighth and Grand streets, throwing both of them from the vehicle. Afterward they made their way home on foot and did not know the horse was dead until the next day.
