CATARRH CAN BE CURED.

ONLY BY FOLLOWING ONE METHOD OF TREATMENT.

Sufferers from catarrh become discouraged and give up the idea of ever being free from this horrible disease, after years of treatment with local applications, such as ointments, salves, washes, remedies forced into the nose with the nasal douche or snutting salt water two or three times a day; however it is radically wrong to think that catarrh is incurable. It is the fault of the treatment.

Catarrh can be cured only by employing some ramedy taken into the stomach and thus acting upon the delicate membranes and tissues through the system. A remedy to reduce this inflammation and not a wash or inhalent to increase it.
