Contests Do Not Materialize and Sample Ballots Are Unnecessary.

THIRD STIRS UP THE ONLY COMMOTION

Dissatisfied in that Ward May Asl for an Official Count-Miles of the Fourth the Latest Candidate.

The republican city primaries Friday resulted in the election of the regularly filed delegation in every ward in the city, no contests materializing. The election passed off much more quietly than had been expected and owing to the fact that practically all differences had been settled a day or two before, the vote was light. In the Fifth ward alone a heavy vote was cast, the total being over 250. This was caused by a slight nervousness early in the afternoon among the supporters of the regular delegation as to what the Hess crowd might do. A bogus ballot joke, which someone perpetrated by distributing some ballots left over from the judiciary primary several months ago, served only to increase the number of votes cast early in the afternoon for the regular nominees. Some protest is expected in regard to the n from the Third ward, where a small faction became dissatisfied because the judges refused to count scratched ballots. The clerks of the board, who were in sympathy with the protestants, seized the ballot box, sealed it with all its contents and delivered it into the hands of the central committee. While there is little doubt that the regular delegation as printed on the ballots came out ahead, an official canvass of the returns by the convention will be песевзагу. Candidates for the school board had been announced in all wards but the Third and Fourth. The latter now has a candidate in the person of Attorney Charles V. Miles, upon whom the delegates are united. The Third has not named its man, but doubtless has one ready. The delegations as chosen are the following: First Ward-W. H. Hanchett, John Cline,

TO BE DEPENDED ON

Because it is the Experience of an Omaha Citizen and Can Easily Be Investigated.

A stranger lost in a large city would place far more dependence on the directions given | ence climbed for the exit. him by a local resident than the guidance of another stranger like himself. This is a natural consequence of experience; it is like a ship in a strange port—a trusty pilot familiar with the harbor is always called upon to bring her safely to her moorings. So it is with endorsement; we doubt the sayings of people living at distant points because we can't investigate, but public expressions of local citizens can be depended on, for 'tis an easy matter to prove it. Evidence like the following is beyond dispute:

Mr. Wm. Sage, bricklayer of No. 4211 Burdette street, says: "Always after a hard day's work or when I caught a cold which settled in my loins, backache became very severe. TROTTING OUT THE CANDIDATES. First Ward Fusionists Meet in a Beer Garden. The fusionists of the First ward held an enthusiastic meeting in a beer garden down at Eighth and Hickory streets, and whether it was the oratory of the speakers or the surroundings that caused the enthusiasm was not explained. Most of the candidates for the judicial and county offices and some other speakers occupied seats on a raised platform, partially hid from view by the American flage that were festooned about the place. The first number on the program was speech by C. C. Wright, a candidate for the district bench. Mr. Wright devoted a greater portion of his time to telling incidents in connection with cases that he has tried, and he promised fair decisions if elected. Frank A. Broadwell, candidate for clerk of the district court, explained that he is not an orator, but simply wanted to show himself and become acquainted with the voters of the ward. Ed P. Smith, ex-assistant attorney general, spent his time roasting the administration, alleging that President McKinley brought on the war in the Philippines, and that if he would order the armies withdrawn the war would cease within forty-eight hours, and that Aguinaldo would form a government and take care of the people there. Mr. Smith expressed great fears of an alliance with England, providing the republicans continue in power. Some of the other candidates were called out and then E. F. Morearity spoke-while the audi-

Governor Jackson stated that in his western trip he had marveled at the signs of prosperity manifest on the coming term. He was also honored at a meeting of the International Bar association of which he was elected vice president. There is every probability that the plate company over which lowa's ex-governor now glass trust, controlling nearly the entire presides as its head and out of which he output of plate glass in the United States, is realizing a handsome fortune. They had every hand. Every one has money and the insurance companies, he said, find difficulty now in being able to invest their money in securities which will pay a nominal interest, for the reason that the people are not searching for money. They already have it in abundance. "Politically," said Governor | the start and cured me. It is now my ever-Jackson, "lown is now just as it always has lasting friend." been-all one way. 8:30 p. m.—"Alfreno," champion high wire walker of the world, across Lagoon. There was the usual attendance Friday and the usual attractions. The band concert in the afternoon was a good one and the audience was in a mood to enjoy it for the band played with snap and vim and was rewarded by great applause. The program was bright, crisp and full of fire and Mr Bellstedt in fine fettle, so that everything went off as merry as a marriage bell. Since cooler weather has arrived the members of the band feel more like playing and in consequence the programs are more interesting. The evening concert was also u good one and the attendance was much better than in the afternoon. Today's Music.
