OUTLOOK FOR YACHT RACE IS POOR

Revised Agreement for an Start Every Week Day Leaves Possibility of Fate of Can Being Decided This Week.

NEW YORK, Oct. 11 .- The outlook for a race between Shamrock and Columbia tomorrow is none of the best. Even the hitherto optimistie weather bureau will not promise a breeze.

The revised agreement calls for a start every week day from this on, so there is a possibility of the fate of the cup being decided this week. Looking as fine as two fiddles tuned up to concert pitch, the Columbia and Shamrock lay quietly at their moorings all day, with their tenders close at hand and tugs standing by for a call.

During the early morning hours the fog was even thicker than on Tuesday, but when the sun came up the fog cleared away under the influence of the light breeze from the gouth-southwest. Many fogbound Atlantic liners that had been waiting for hours to cross the bar passed into the harbor and up to quarantine. Among them was the White Star liner Oceanie, which rounded the southwest spit soon after

The cover was taken off Columbia's mainsall just before noon and it was given a thorough overhauling and drying. The new clubtopsail was also loosened and the running goar inspected from fore to aft. The new clubtopeail was tested on Tuesday for the first time, of which Mr. Isolin said "Yes, it is larger than the other one and them have wagered a month's wages on it and all agree that it cannot be beaten. Captain Barr has little or nothing to say, but he also, the sailors say, has no thought of anything but making Columbia cross the finish line first in every race.

Designer Nat Herreschoff says less than any one on board, but he never lets a chance go by to improve the yacht in every possible way. Sir Thomas Lipton was as cheerful as usual, full of hope for a breeze tomorrow and full of confidence in the Shamrock's ability to lift the cup. "There it ie," said he with a show of pride in his voice and gesture as he pointed to the green beauty, lying peacefully at its buoy, "nothing has been done to it since the last race, and nothing needs to be done. It is all ready to start when the gun is In response to a question Mr. Iselin said

Designer Herreschoff would sail on the Columbia on all of the cup races, as he had sailed on the trials already held, and would add his experience and knowledge of the boat to that of Captain Barr. At the New York Stock exchange today offers of 8 to 10 on Columbia were not taken. There is no money backing the Shamrock in the hands of the commission brokers. Money at the New York and other clubs has found no Shamrock takers and the Columbia seems to be the favorite yet with the American bettors. The betting has been even, 10 to 8 and 10 to 6 in Columbia circles, but no money for the opposition is ready. One bet of 5 to 4 in hundreds was recorded at the Hoffman house, LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 11.—The Kentucky stake was the feature of the trots today and Major H. C. McDowell's grand filly, Extasy, was the favorite over a good field, selling at 25, the field being 10. There was little betting at these odds, as the race seemed a gift for the filly. She proved worthy of confidence, winning handliy in Malzour was another favorite to land the money. He was a mild first choice, bringing only 13 to the field's 25. He won the first heat and for the second was a hot favorite. Malzour took the next two heats and the race easily.

The 2:19 trot was the only split-heat event of the day. The well-played second choice, Glory, took the race after dropping the first heat to Fleetwood. The favorite, Culting, could do no better than third money. The track was slow, as a drizzling, rain had fallen during the night. Results:

COLORS OF MISS HOYT LOWERED.

Defented in First Round of Women's Golf Tournament. PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Oct. 11,-The colors of Miss Beatrice Hoyt of the Shinnecock Hills Golf club, Southampton, L. I., were lowered today by Mrs. Caleb F. Fox of the Huntingdon Valley Cricket club, Rydal, Pa., in the first round of the women's golf championship turnament, now being held on the links of the Philadelphia club at Country Club Vat Bala, north of this city.

Miss Hoyt was the favorite all along and even when Mrs. Fox was two up, with five to play, the Shinnecock player was still looked upon as a winner. Miss Hoyt has been the champion of women golfers of the United States for three years. A great "gallery" followed Miss Hoyt and Mrs. Fox around the course. Mrs. Fox started well, but Miss Hoyt drew up to her on the fourth hole and was one up on the seventh hole. Here Mrs. Fox braced up. She evened up on the eighth and went ahead on the ninth hole. Miss Hoyt, try as she would, could not catch up and Mrs. Fox work on the green was expensed. Pa. in the first round of the women's golf not catch up and Mrs. Fox won by 3 up and 7 to play.

Mrs. Fox's work on the green was excelent while that of Miss Hoyt was somewhat indifferent. Mrs. Fox's strokes were also superior to those of the Long Island player.

The best contest of the day was that between Mrs. J. Franklin McFadden of this city and Miss Genevieve Hecker of Norton, Conn., which was won by the former. It took twenty holes to decide who was the winner, and the match was a stubborn one threughout.

Judge Day set forth the reasons which, in his mind, justified the payment of $20,-000,000 for the Philippines, declaring that a high religious duty? it was never contended by the American commissioners that the United States had a right to the Philippines as a matter of conquest. The letter is as follows:

conquest. The letter is as follows:

CINCINNATI, Oct. 4, 1899.—Hen. D. K. Watson, Columbus, O.: Dear Sir—In reply to your recent inquiry as to my understanding of the reasons which induced the agreement on the part of the American commissioners in negotiating the treaty at Paris to incorporate in the treaty an article which should require the payment by the United States to Spain for the cession of the Philippines the sum of $20,000,000 I beg to say I think the subject is made quite plain by a reference to the printed protocol of the joint commission which you will find in senate document No. 62. Fifty-fifth congress, third session, being the printed volume published last winter after the treaty was submitted to the senate. You will discover that this subject was first brought by the American commissioners to the attention of the Spanish commissioners in a proposal for an article in the treaty in which Spain should each to the United

"The American commissioners beg further to state that they are prepared to insert in the treaty a stipulation for the assumption by the United States of any existing indebtedness of Spain incurred for public works and improvements of a pacific character in the Philippines." (Senate document 62, page 195.) character in the Ph document 62, page 109.)

Quotes from Records.

It is unnecessary to review the long discussion which ensued or to restate the grounds upon which the Spanish commissioners rejected this proposal and declined to cede the islands to the United States. You will find the discussion fully developed in the record if you see fit to read it. On November 21, following, the American commissioners in a joint session of the commission presented a proposition which the American commissioners regarded as final, in connection with which it was said that the "proposal presented by the American commissioners in behalf of the government for the cession of the Philippines to the United States having been rejected by the Spanish commissioners and the counter proposal of the latter for the withdrawal of the American forces from the islands and the payment of an indemnity by the United States to Spain having been rejected by the American commissioners, deeming it essential that the present negotiations, which have already been greatly protracted, should be brought to an early and definite Quotes from Records. have already been greatly protracted, should be brought to an early and definite should be brought to an early and definite conclusion, beg now to present a new proposition, embodying the concessions which, for the sake of immediate peace, their government is, under the circumstances, willing to tender. The government of the United States is unable to modify the proposal heretofore made for the cession of the entire archipelago of the Philippines, but the American commissioners are authorized to offer to Spain, in case the cession should be agreed to, the sum of $20,000,000, to be paid in accordance with the terms to be fixed in the treaty of peace." (Senate document 62, page 210.)

Another concession proposed consisted of an agreement to admit Spanish ships of merchandise for a term of years into the ports of the Philippine islands on the same terms as American ships and merchandise. The American commissioners also ex-

You will observe that in making this proposal it is distinctly said that it embodies the concessions which, for the sake of immediate cessions which, for the sake of immediate peace, the American government was willing to make. There were doubtless other reasons actuating the commissioners in making this proposal, though I think the chief one is embodied in the statement above written. It was not claimed that the United States had a right to the Philippine islands as a matter of conquest. Agrees with Senator Gray. In this conclusion I cordially agree with the following remarks of Senator Gray, one of the commissioners, made at the Ohio society dinner in New York February 25,

"When, after four or five weeks of doubt "When, after four or five weeks of doubt and anxiety it became apparent that these negotiations must be broken off and your commissioners return without a treaty at all, and that we would be relegated to the necessity of taking not only the Phillippines, but Cuba and Porto Rico, by the ruthless hand of conquest or by some concessions that comported with the magnanimity and greatness and character of this country, gain them by the voluntary cession of a treaty of peace. And, therefore, we believed that it was better for this country, strong in the hour of its victories and the hour of its triumphs, that it should exhibit to a beaten and prostrate foe the magnanimity of which I speak, and take, from them by voluntary cession and purchase, so to speak, those distant islands, rather than expose ourselves in the eyes of the world as playing a role of barbaric conquest and by military power tread the path of mediaeval rapine and warfare.

The advanced position which the United States has always maintained in its international relations, its opposition to any thing like harsh or severe treatment of a States has always maintained in its inter-national relations, its opposition to any thing like harsh or severe treatment of a fallen foe, as well, were cogent reasons which would seem to justify the payment of the $20,000,000 as an act dictated from a high sense of national honor as well as sound policy under the circumstances of the case. Very truly yours, WILLIAM R. DAY.

CONFERENCE WORK

Unitarian Ministers and Lay Dele gates Return to Their Homes.

After having devoted three days to the consideration of religious topics and general business tending to advance the interests of the church, the ministers and lay delegates of the Iowa-Nebraska conference of Unitarians held their concluding session yesterday afternoon. Most of them returned to their respective homes last night.

The afternoon session was devoted largely to closing up some unimportant matters lef over from previous sessions. A vote of thanks was tendered the members and friends of Unity church for the entertain ment furnished during the stay in the city The church committee reported a growth of membership throughout both Iowa and

Nebraska. It is also stated that all the kindred societies are growing rapidly and that members are evidencing a deep interest in the church work. Yesterday morning the business committee recommended that the annual conferences risable to adopt the idea and selected De- Moines delegates favored the adoption of the > plan, arguing that in the interest of Unita rianism other towns should be given an onportunity of entertaining the conference. As a compromise it was decided that the next conference shall be held in Des Moines and that at that meeting the question of future location shall be settled. The midwinter fellowship meeting was given to Burlington A summer school along lines similar to the Chautauqua association meetings met with favor and Okoboji, Ia., was agreed upon as a proper place for such an institution. Both of these places are held at the pleasure of the state committee. The national committeeman, however, cannot take his seat until he has been approved by the national committee. David B. Hill will attend the meeting with many proxies from up the state. It is alleged that ex-Separat Murphy and Richard Croker are making the fight on Campbell. Friends of Mr. Hill intimate that Campbell is attacked because of his devotion to Mr. Bryan, but Mr. Murphy and Mr. Croker have both declared for Mr. Bryan very recently and the trouble seems to be a continuation of the old feud between Hill and Croker.

For years I have felt that I ought to write you a testimonial for the benefit of women suffering from ailments peculiar to their sex. My wife miscarried with her first child. Her feet, hands, face and whole body swelled so bad she could not stand on her feet. The doctor said she had the dropsy. He doctored her for three or four weeks. I asked him if Wine of Cardui would help her. He saids "It's not worth a d——." Seeing my wite steadily going down hill, I went to our druggist and told him of the doctor's remark. The druggist said his wife owed her life to Wine of Cardui—that it had twice saved her, and for me to take a bottle of it and if it did not help my wife he would give it to me. Before she had taken a whole bottle she was able to pick cotton, and did at times pick 250 lbs. a day. After our next boy was born wife had the falling of the womb. The doctor examined her and said she was so bad she would have to wear a supporter. I thought we would try Wine of Cardui again and got her another bottle, and that bottle brought her back to good health before it was used up. With the next child she used it to prevent miscarriage with good results. After the child was six months old. Wife has been weak all the time with aching limbs, weak back and no appetite, trembly spells, etc. We got Wine of Cardui four days ago, and already it is showing its wonderful effect. My wife looks at this great medicine as an "Angel of life." We have gotten many of our friends to use it. The same doctor that said it was no good is now using it in his practice.
