Legislature of Iowa is Requested to Blot Out Illiterney in the State by Statute Enforcing Attendance at Schools.

The question of cumpulsory education will ome up before the next general meeting of the Council Bluffs Women's club in the shape of a petition to be presented to the next general assembly, and which is being circulated by the educational committee of the Iowa Federation of Women's clubs. At the biennial convention of the Federation held in Burlington last May, the following esolution was adopted:

"That compulsory education for the state shall be the object to engage the concentrated efforts of the State Federation for the next two years and that a committee be appointed to formulate methods of work." A petition was drawn up which is now being circulated among the various women's clubs of the state. It has already received over 1,000 signatures, and is as follows:

over 1,000 signatures, and is as follows:

To the Senate and House of Representatives of the Twenty-eighth General Assembly of lowa: Your petitioners respectfully show that under the laws of the state wisely enacted to secure the diffusion of knowledge among the masses which is declared by the ordinance of 1787 to be one of the things "necessary to good government and the happiness of mankind," the people of the state pay more taxes to maintain the common school system than all other taxes combined, amounting in the aggregate to about $8,000,000 per annum; that such burden is cheerfully borne by the people because it is recognized that education is a public necessity to secure good citizenship. But your petitioners show that the best results are not obtained because many parents and guardians do not send their children to the schools for a sufficient time to obtain a fair common school cient time to obtain a fair common school ficient time to obtain a fair common school education.

Your petitioners therefore respectfully pray that a law be enacted requiring all parents and guardians in the state having children in their care, between the ages of 7, excepting where there are kindergartens, then 6, and 14 years, to send them to school in the country districts not less than sixteen consecutive weeks, and in cities and towns not less than six consecutive months during each year, with such provisions for the enforcement, and the exemption thereof of such children as may be physically unable to attend as your wisdom shall deem proper. For which your petitioners will ever humbly pray.

PRAISE FOR GALLANT SAILORS Commander of Bennington Describes Plucky Resistance Made to Sudden Attack at Malabon.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15 .- The Navy department has made public a report from Commander Taussig of the Bennington, with appended reports of subordinate officers, concerning an engagement at Malabon on March 4 last. The purpose of the department in making public the report appears to be solely to make known the gallant conduct of the sailors engaged, and particularly that of Assistant Engineer Winship.

A landing was made at Malabor, by a force from the Bennington, the purpose be- speeches. ing to take photographic views of the damage wrought by the big shells from the Muriel Wilson intends to adopt the stage preceding week. Although told by some ents about, Commander Taussig took ample precautions to prevent a surprise. One of the steps taken was to post the tender Balanga so as to enfilade the north wall. This boat was in charge of Assistant Engineer Winship and rendered great service. The insurgents appeared behind the entrenchments and fired upon the Bennington's people and upon the Balanga, and after an hour of desultory shooting, not being authorized to retain the place and having taken the ROME, Oct. 15 .- (New York World Ca- photographs desired, Commander Taussig blegram-Special Telegram.)-Verdi has re- withdrew his men, who were fired at as they rowed away in their boats.

Verdi, Balanga eighty-seven times, and although wounded early in the action retained charge of the gun and the Balagna, not only throughout the action, but until the ship returned to its anchorage about noon. The Balanga was lying bows on to the beach very hotly engaged with the enemy in the trenches, and the fire of musketry against them was hot, although his men fought without cover till the Bennington's landing force had gotten safely beyond range. Upon his return to the Bennington Winship, though wounded in five places, set the doctor to look after Coxswain Terry, who was slightly wounded, before asking for medical attendance for himself. Commander Taussig commends for special consideration Chief Master-at-Arms William Mackay, Coxswain Terry and Private Kirkman, although he says the entire battalion behaved so gallantly that were he to name the deserving he would furnish a roster of the battalion. Ensign E. H. Campbell is mentioned as deserving great credit for the skill displayed in placing the Bennington during the engagement, he being at the time in command of the ship.
