John C. Wharton drew a sharp contrast between the prevailing conditions of the country and those when he last addressed had nothing to do but sit around on dry goods boxes and talk politics, but today it is different. Laboring men, and even women, are employed and it is often impossible to secure servants. #### Change from Three Years Ago.

Referring to the campaign three how Bryan had beguiled his audiences by Mr. Rosewater. The latter devoted only by calling for a gold dollar, and enough attention to national issues to take finding none, had declared that money a vote in the desire of those present for was scarce and that they were voting for a change from the present conditions. No Pierpont Morgan and the syndicates. Mr. one in the audience signified a desire for the republican party, not because he wanted any office, but because he wanted prosperity. Bryan declared that if McKinley were elected money would be scarce and interest braska. would be doubled. The other day in a populist paper up in Burt county he had noticed an advertisement, "money to loan at 4 per of the two candidates for supreme judge, single file, seeking work, but the foreman cent." Three years ago it had loaned at how Reese had come into office under ad- could only select five or six from that num-7 and 8 per cent.

With slight reference to the I am now able to command $3 a day for old this cry was among democrats and with judicial and county tickets he turned to nine hours work. These are facts that canwhat little avail it had proven to them, a discussion of the reported defection of not be denied. He detailed the history of the republican the Bohemian voters, showing that what party for unvarying patriotism. James Buchanan, the last democratic president but one, was unable to find anything in the constitution denying the right of a state to withdraw from the union. The republican party found the colors trailing in the dust. It took them up and triumphantly planted them on the pinnacle of honor. It made and won the fight for the freedom any one to deny, were repeatedly and enof 3,000,000 slaves. The democrats then, as now, declared the war a failure and demanded that it should cease.

Bryan a False Prophet.

"Then came the free trade contention and the first speech Bryan ever made that brought him any prominence was in favor of it. We got the Wilson bill and you know the result. Do you want any more of it? Then they said the disaster we sustained from it was because we didn't have free silver. The republican party said it was because under free trade the factories were not in operation, wherefore the laboring man could not find employment and thus be enabled to buy the products of the farm. Then we got McKinley and the protective tariff. Is there a laboring man in the house who can't find employment now? We gave the laboring man a dollar as good as Pierpont Morgan's, everything has gone up and now they are crying for cheaper things again."

Speaking of the trusts, Mr. Wharton said that Bryan, while in congress, did nothing to discourage them, that the first law ever passed against trusts was a republican measure and that the home of nearly all of them is in the good old democratic state of New Jersey. He believed the republican party can be trusted to regulate the trusts to the same satisfaction of the people as it has given in the regulation of the money ques-

My little boy broke out with an itching rash. I tried three doctors and medical college but he kept getting worse. There was not one square inch of skin on his whole body unoffected. He was one mass of sores, and the stench was frightful. At the time I was induced to try CUTICURA remedies, he was so had that I had to cut his bair all off, and put the CUTICURA (ointment) on him on bandages, as it was impossible to touch him with the bare hand. In removing the bandages they would take the skin with them, and the poor child's screams were heart-breaking. After the second appli cation of Curicusa (continent) I saie signs of rement, and the sores began to dry up. His skin peeled off twenty times, but now he is entirely cured.
