Secretary Porter Sends Out a Questionable Certificate to County Clerks.

Republican Meetings. Thursday, October 26—Grand rally, Washington hall. Thursday, October 26—Patriotic league, Millard hotel.

FUSION CANDIDATES FIRST ON BALLOT

Law Gives Party Polling Highest Vote at Next General Election First Place for Its Candidates on Ballots.

The certificate of the secretary of state showing the nominees of the various parties for state offices has been received at the office of County Clerk Haverly.

JUDGE OF THE SUPREME COURT. Name. Vote for One.

The placing of the fusion candidate first upon the certificate is evidently prompted by the hope that county clerks will follow the sample furnished by the secretary with reference to the section of the statutes which directs otherwise.

The law further provides for the leaving of a blank space beneath the names of all of the candidates in which a voter may register his choice by writing in a name.

The certificate of the secretary of state also places the names of the fusion candidates in the order of the university first upon the ballot, followed respectively by the republican and prohibition candidates.

SEEKING WRIT OF MANDAMUS

Populist County Committee Asks that Name of Carr Be Listed Among Populists.

It may be said with reasonable certainty that an application has been filed for a writ of mandamus to compel County Clerk Haverly to place the name of James W. Carr on the official ballot as nominee of the populist party for county judge.

The alleged condition was that Langdon should receive a nomination also from either the free silver republican or the democratic county convention, both of which were in session at the same time.

Attorney Covel, who was chosen to represent the populist committee, refused to say whether or not he had filed the application. He said that he had filed a paper in the office of the district court, but it is not stated to which judge.

SWEDISH-AMERICAN LEAGUE

Organization is to Be Permanent and is to Spread Throughout the State.

The second meeting of the Swedish-American Republican league in the Patterson building Tuesday night was well attended. Much enthusiasm was evident.

The meeting was devoted to business. About 200 new members were enrolled yesterday and the membership committee was kept busy fixing the records.
