SUNDAY SHAVING ON TRIAL.

Case of the State Against Silvers Called in Judge Macy's Court. GOES UP ON APPEAL FROM AYLESWORTH.

Evidence is Taken and the Case Given to the Jury—All Interested Agree to Abide by the Decision. The case of the State against F. E. Silvers, the Pearl street barber, charged with violating the Sunday law by shaving on the Sabbath, was tried before a jury and Judge Macy in the district court yesterday.

The defense made that that shaving on Sunday was a work of necessity and a number of witnesses were called to the stand in support of this contention. One of the witnesses was Dr. George Smith, manager of the Grand hotel, and he testified that if the barber shop in his hotel was compelled to close on Sunday, the business of his house would be materially damaged.

DESPERADO'S DARING DEED.

made a run for a nearby barn. Albro started in pursuit and reached the barn just as Williams appeared on the back of a horse he had taken from one of the stalls. He fired again and the bullet struck Williams in the leg. Just as Williams was about to fire at Albro, the latter raised the bullet wide. Albro then managed to strike Williams on the head with the butt of the revolver and brought him to the ground.
