DOLLARS RAIN IN SALE RING

Stock Dealers Make the Widow of Charles S. Cross of Sunny Slope Stock Farm a Present.

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 26 .- Dollars rained for three minutes in the sale ring at the Hereford show today. It was the culmination of a roose that was entirely foreign to a stock sale. The money was for Mrs. Kate Wilder Cross, widow of the late Charles S. and the word "oleomargarine" from pack-Cross, founder of the Sunny Slope (Kansas) ages containing that commodity. The stock farm and one of the most noted breeders in the country. When Cross last fall found that he could no longer keep up under a weight of debt which wrecked him and the Emporia National bank, of which he was president, he shot himself. His widow promptly turned over to his creditors all that she possessed. Finally one calf, Bonnte Prince, a Hereford of fine lineage, reverted to Mrs. Cross. She today put the animal up for sale.

When auctioneer Colonel Woods asked for bids an offer of $500 was made. Immediately a spirited contest began, the representative of Marshall Field of Chicago finally bidding $900. Then Colonel Slaughter of Fort Worth, Tex., stepped into the ring and throwing a silver dollar into the sawdust near where Bonnie Prince stood, called on those present to "throw in a dollar as a little present for the brave little woman.' Dollars fairly rained and when they were later gathered up they filled a peck measure. Then Mrs. Pauline Whitman, whose late husband, C. N. Whitman, was one of the great Hereford breeders of the country, offered to add $200 to the highest price bid for Bonnie Prince. It was announced that Marshall Field's representative had offered $916 for the calf, which with Mrs. Whitman's $200 made $1.110, Field was declared to be the purchaser.

Fancy prices were again the rule at today's sale and many high-bred Herefords were disposed of Colonel Slaughter of Fort Worth, Tex., paid the highest price of the day, giving $1,950 for Aaron, a calf just a year and a day old, owned by W. S. Van Natta & Son of Fowler, Ind.

A man of sense upon the wisdom of the acts of the Porto bought a Buck Steel Range. He says now that he never knew how smart he was until his wife complimented him.

Some wives are hard to please—but the Buck pleases all.

Its Strong Points:

Steel oven bottom that will not warp. Balanced oven doors that do not fall with a crash. Heavy gray east iron tops that stand the wear. Duplex grates that can be used for wood or coal. Asbestos lined bodies that keep the heat to the oven. White enameled oven doors and racks. Ventilated fire pot linings; will not warp.

Many others and all good. Cole & Cole, 41 Main Street.
