will step out immediately, in pursuance of an arrangement which will change resulting politics in Illinois. The story, ridely circulated yesterday, runs to this effect:

Senator Mason will resign in a few weeks to take a high salaried legal position of 12,000 or more a year, with one of the bigicest corporations in the country, having teadquarters in Chicago. Governor Tanner will then resign and Lieutenant Governor Northcott, on succeeding to the governor-hip, will appoint Tanner to the vacant tenstorship.

With Tanner thus eliminated from the gubernatorial situation Northcott can be made the "organization's" candidate for governor next year.
