TROUBLOUS DEATH SCENES

Management of the Expiring Exposition is Much Disturbed by Hungry Creditors.

WORRYING ALONG TO TUESDAY'S WINDUP

Children Free Today—Elks Will Disport Themselves Tonight—Sham Naval Battle to Be Given on the Lagoon.

2:00 p. m.—Belleville's Band, Auditorium.
5:30 p. m.—High Diving and Trip of Oceanic. Across the Lagoon Between Submarine Mines.
7:30 p. m.—Indian Sham Battle and Wild West. Blue Trail.
8:00 p. m.—Elks' Night and Concert by Band, Auditorium.

The last days of the Greater America Exposition are troublous ones and the White City is surrounded by importunate creditors. Now that the big show is rapidly nearing its end, there are many who want what is due them, and in order to get it they are attempting to scare the management by all sorts of threats to close down this and that and make the last days a hideous nightmare. The management, upon whose shoulders the White City has weighed like the proverbial white elephant, is unable to pay and so it stands, with the creditors in a threatening attitude and the exposition on its knees. The Midway is pretty well deserted, as few of the shows are open to the public at this time. The exhibits, however, have been receiving much attention for the past few days, and they are well worth the time spent in inspecting them. The agricultural showing is abundant and very thorough, comprising extensive assortments of every vegetable and grain indigenous to this soil. The committee, which has been acting to ascertain which counties are entitled to bear off the prizes, will finish work today and the winners will be announced. This committee has had a very difficult task, as the counties have been very close and it has been a hard matter to ascertain just which ones were the best. The matter of colonial exhibits and state displays will also be decided today.

ON "EASY STREET."

Comfortable Way to Be Rid of the Coffee Habit.

"It was hard to give up coffee, but I was one of the poor unfortunates who had known the horrors of indigestion, caused, in part, if not wholly, from the use of it; so when Dr. Clemens advised me to leave off coffee and take Postum Cereal Food Coffee in its place I was quite ready to do so. "That was something over three years ago. "I have been using Postum Food Coffee ever since and the benefit obtained has been remarkable. When I drink Postum I have no trouble at all with indigestion. I am glad to send you a list of names of friends whom I know would be benefited by leaving off coffee and using Postum Food Coffee." Mary C. Whitney, Dover, Ohio.

Children Free Today. Today children under 12 years of age will be allowed to enter the grounds free. This evening the Elks will be out in full force to disport themselves in honor of their brother, Herman Belleville, who is a prominent member of the order, and there is a promise of a very warm time. Mr. Belleville has made out a program which contains some selections of a nature to please his visitors and has some encore up his sleeve that will not dampen the spirits of those who attend.

MEETING OF LIBRARY BOARD
Collection of Valuable Indian Relics Can Be Obtained if Money is Forthcoming.

At the meeting of the Omaha public library board Friday night the main topic of interest was the discussion of whether or not it would be advisable to begin an Indian museum in connection with the library. It was ascertained that a collection of valuable relics was for sale and the members of the board favored obtaining them, but were handicapped by lack of funds. This matter and also the matter of purchasing some of the curios at the exposition were put over until another meeting.

AN EVENING AT THE THEATER
Moggy and His Nephewboys Have a Pleasant Time as the Guests of Manager Rosenthal.

Enthusiasm ran high at the Orpheum Friday night and it is safe to say that Manager Rosenthal has not had a more appreciative audience in his plausable this season. The new-comers were there under the patronage of their king, Moggy, who ruled them so well that their exuberance was checked except at the proper outlets, and there they let loose the most enthusiastic applause imaginable. About 125 of the boys who sell papers on the streets congregated early in the evening and marched around for a short time. They visited The Bee building and gave three cheers and a tiger for The Omaha

PUTS IT ALL UPON HIMSELF

William Miller Talks of His Escape from the Broken Bow Jail.

In discussing his escape from the jail at Broken Bow, William Miller, the alleged robber of the postoffice at Mouna, says that Bill Olsen, the young man who went with him and who was captured near Indianola by Deputy United States Marshal Palmer and Barber, is as innocent as a babe. "It seems that the postoffice was robbed, but I had nothing to do with it," said Miller. "I was waiting at Mouna for a letter from home. I was eating at a hotel and sleeping at cheaper places, in order to save money. One night I happened to be walking past the postoffice when some one shoved a gun into my face and commanded me to throw up my hands. Instead of doing so, I turned and ran. When I had gone about twenty feet the fellow let drive at me and filled my right leg full of chicken shot. That's all I know about the robbery. After being shot I was picked up and carried to the jail, and later on taken to Broken Bow and placed in the county jail in the basement of the court house. After my hearing and after being bound over to await the action of the United States grand jury, I determined to escape. Olsen was the only other prisoner in the jail and I concluded to kill or take him, as I did not propose to have him squeal on me. After my leg got well enough so that I could use it a little, I commenced to work. I pounded away at the brick in the wall and finally loosened several of them. Then I waited for a dark night. "A couple of weeks ago, during a storm at night, I awakened Olsen and told him that if he did not go with me I would kill him. Not having much nerve the fellow mumbled out something and promised that he would go. I knocked out a few more bricks from the wall, pushed him through the hole and then crawled through myself. After getting out we went over to a barn where I stole a horse and buggy, after which we started on our trip, heading toward Kansas. We drove all night and all the next day, going across fields and fording streams, keeping away from towns as much as possible. We followed gullees and gulches and had gone 150 miles when overtaken. The two officers who caught us are entitled to great credit, as I did not think that it was possible for anybody to follow like trail. "I think that I am in for it and it nettled me. I think that I shall plead guilty, notwithstanding the fact that I am innocent. I did not rob the postoffice, but there would

BELLSTEDT GIVEN A MEDAL

Leader of the Popular Band is Fittingly Remembered by His Antecedent Brethren.

At the regular meeting of Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks No. 39 Friday night Herman Bellstedt, director of the Belleville-Ballenberg band, was the center of interest, as the brothers of the lodge invited him up after the concert and gave him a beautiful gold medal in commemoration of the regard in which he is held not only in the lodge but in the city as well. George P. Moore made the presentation speech.

CELEBRATING ITS BIRTHDAY

Joint Meeting of Local Lodges, Ancient Order of United Workmen, is Held.

The Ancient Order of United Workmen of Omaha, South Omaha and Council Bluffs, met in a joint meeting at the headquarters of Union Pacific lodge, No. 17, the various divisions of the order united in a central meeting for the celebration of the thirty-first anniversary of the founding of the order. Several prominent members made brief speeches and the history of the work was reviewed in detail. Elaborate preparations had been made for the occasion and the visitors were properly entertained. The story of how a mechanic in Meadville, Pa., founded the order on a small scale, which afterward branched out to its present proportions, was recited and it was the sense of the convocate that the thirty-first anniversary was celebrated in regal style.

TESTIMONY TO THE GOOD QUALITIES OF Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

On the 10th of December, 1897, Rev. S. A. Donahoe, pastor M. E. Church, South, Ft. Pleasant, W. Va., contracted a severe cold which was attended from the beginning by violent coughing. He says: "After resorting to a number of so-called 'specifics' usually kept in the house, to no purpose, I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which acted like a charm. I most cheerfully recommend it to the public.

Runs Up Against Uncle Sam.

Haykal Kozoka, an Armenian running a jewelry booth at the exposition, is in trouble and is called upon to answer to the charge of passing a piece of paper resembling one of the treasury notes of the United States. C. M. Howe is the complaining witness. He says that he took the paper, thinking it was a 10c bill. The case was called before United States Commissioner Anderson Friday afternoon, but owing to the absence of a witness it was continued until today. The paper, an old Tennessee warrant issued in 1890, and purports to have been for the sum of $20. In some respects it resembles a greenback of recent issue.
