pension five years ago and it is averred that some payments were made. About a year ago the pension office received information that the woman's claims were bogus. An investigation was immediately begun. It was alleged that Valle certified to her affidavits and aided her in her efforts to get the pension. He was arrested today by United States marshals and taken before the federal court. Valle was arraigned and pleaded not guilty. Judge Adams fixed his bend at $1,000. Attorney Reyburn volunteered as surety and Valle was released pending trial of the case.
