BURGLARS PLY THEIR TRADE

Safe-Workers Make Themselves Unnecessary Labor in a Vain Attempt to Secure Plunder.

Burglars entered the hide store of F. S. Bush & Co., 513 South Thirtieth street Thursday night. An entrance was effected through a rear window, which had been unfastened. The safe had been closed, but not locked, and all would have been easy for the burglars had they not made themselves the unnecessary task of forcing the combination and breaking open the inner door. They secured a 3-cent piece and a check which was worthless to them and was later found in the street. The damage to the safe was the only injury done.

The daylight train is a little bit the finer and faster of the two, but the Vestibled Flyer, on account of its convenient hour of departure, is the train most people take when they go to Chicago.

FRED DELASKA IS ROBBED

Man Knocked Down and Relieved of His Cash by Two Brutal Assaultants.

A highway robbery occurred Thursday night in which Fred Delaska was badly injured and robbed. Delaska, living at Seventeenth and Leavenworth streets, was on his way home from his saloon at Twelfth and Chicago streets at a late hour, and in passing Fourteenth street, along Chicago, he met two men, who stepped on either side of him and each struck him heavily in the face. He was knocked down and beaten until almost unconscious and then his assailants rifled his pockets, taking $36 in cash and a new revolver.

A. L. Cooper, 402 North Fourteenth street, saw the two men as they were running away and gave the police a very good description, which may result in their capture.
