Uneasiness by local shorts shown on Saturday's curb was much more apparent at the opening today and buying from that class of traders had much to do with the advance in prices that took place. The demand was not heavy, but offerings were few and far between, and shorts in consequence had some difficulty at times in covering. There was some selling by professionals on the first announcement of northwest receipts, which turned out to be heavier by nearly 200 cars than the actual receipts, and later some selling was also done on the announcement of an increase of 1,400,000 bu. In the visible supply. But all offerings were quickly absorbed and at no time did the market exhibit weakness. The trend of prices was steadily upward and during the last hour of the session the best prices of the day were obtainable. New York was a fair buyer, presumably against export engagements, although only five loads were reported as taken up to a late hour. St. Louis was also a fair buyer at times. Minneapolls and Duluth receipts were 1,235 cars, compared with 1,155 cars last week and 1,789 cars a year ago. Chicago receipts were 171 cars. 33 of which graded contract. Chicago receipts were 171 cars, 35 of which graded contract. World's shipments were put at 5.679.000 bu. Local stocks showed an increase of 630.000 bu. Primary receipts were 1.335.000 bu. Atlantic port clearances of wheat and flour amounted to 749.000 bu. There was a good milling demand for the low grades of wheat. December opened 14.0%c higher at 65140655kc. After a slight further rally it ensed off to 6514c, then gradually advanced to 69c, which was the closing figure.

Corn was firm, partly in sympathy with wheat and partly on account of firm cables and moderate local receipts. The local decrease, $55.000 bu., was even larger than expected and also had some influence. There was a general covering movement by shorts in both December and May and advanced prices were well maintained. Receipts were 508 cars. December ranged from 30%c to 3114c and closed 14.0%c higher at 3114.03114c.

The market for oats was almost entirely a sympathetic one, prices following in a small way the fluctuations of wheat and Provisions were slow, but in the main steady. Heavy receipts of hogs acted as a drag to the market, but the slight opening decline was soon recovered and for the rest of the session prices kept within a narrow range. Shipments of meats were liberal and this and the strength of the grain markets sustained provisions. At the close January pork was unchanged at $3.75 €0.77%, January lard unchanged at $5.27% and January ribs a shade higher at $4.55 €0.77%.

symptoms of Weakness Disappear and Sharp Gains Established.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The course of the stock market today effectually dispated the symptoms of weakness which were engendered by the Saturday bank statement. The course of prices was downward in the early dealings, but practically all the declines were recovered and some striking gains were established in a considerable list of stocks. The downward course proceeded to the extent of 1 to 2 per cent in a number of the prominent industrials and reached as much as a point in a number of the railroads, including examples from the grangers, southwestern, southern, coalers and trunk lines. Northwestern The brokers price for lead is $4.40 and for copper $17.

pool in Leather had no small influence in dissipating the fears of a general break in prices.

There were many soothing explanations offered of the exhibit of a deficit in surplus reserves by Saturday's bank statement. The favorite explanation among speculators was that it was due to an "error" in the return of a single bank, or rather to the rectification of an error made in the previous week's return. It was this error, so it was said, which caused the unduly favorable statement of October 28 and the allowance for it which made the showing of the deficit of last Saturday and upset the stock market. The comfort found in this explanation was somewhat disturbed by the rise in the call money rate to 12 per cent and the calling of loans by the banks. But the conviction became general that Saturday's bank statement was not a fair index of the actual condition of the banks. The continued hardness of New York exchange at important interior points arouse? (e-pectations that the movement of money is about to turn in favor of New York. The short contracts which were put out in the morning were very generally covered infore the close. The eve of the elections was also the occasion for the covering of some short contracts which had been put out on the theory that this year's elections might be the prelude to the unsettled business conditions which are looked for in a presidential year. The drop in the money rate to 5 per cent late in the day accentuated the buying demand for stocks. An incident of the day was a sale of United States Milling at 12, compared with 24 for the last preceding sale sometime since.

Prices of bonds only partly recovered from the early decline in sympathy with stocks. Total sales, par value, $2.955.690. United States old 4s, coupon, advanced 4 in the bid price.

ters. As for the foreign markets, Liverpool had unexpectedly advanced $3634-points in the future department and 1-32d in the spot department. The receipts at nearly all points made a poor showing in comparison with those of equal date a year ago. At the close the market for futures was very steady in tone, with prices net 6015 points higher.

HOGS-Receipts were light and the hog market, as usual on Monday, did not cut much figure in the day's business. The market opened just about steady with the close of last Saturday-that is, not quito so good as Saturday's early market. The most of the hogs sold in good season, but later on buyers, under the evident impression that there would be a large run on Tuesday and possibly a lower market, became very indifferent, so that the market closed a little lower. The early sales were largely at $1.00, while toward the close it was very hard work to get that price, buy-on all desirable kinds of killing sheep and lambs.

There was also a fair demand for feeders and prices on that kind were just about the same as prevailed at the close of last week. It will be borne in mind that there is a good demand for desirable feeding lambs right along, but old ewes seem to drag most of the time, though the pens have been fairly well cleared on most days.
