

NEW BOOKS AND MAGAZINES

Historical Novels and Tales of Adventure. Take the Lead.

HOLIDAY BOOKS GREATLY IN EVIDENCE.

Large Variety of Reading Matter to Suit All Kinds and Classes of Readers—New and Very Dainty Christmas Gift Books.

The popular craving for stories of romantic adventures is seen in the large number of such works that are now coming from the press.

One of the novels of the season that deserves more than a passing notice and one that bids fair to attract an unusual amount of public attention, is "Parson Kelly," by A. E. W. Mason and Andrew Lang.

Under the title of "Young April" Ederton Castle has written the story of an English lad of spirit, who has always been held in over-strict restraint by his father.

The historical portion of "The Sword of Justice," by Shepard Stevens, deals with the events treated in Parkman's "Pioneers of France in the New World."

The historical portion of "The Sword of Justice," by Shepard Stevens, deals with the events treated in Parkman's "Pioneers of France in the New World."

"The Bronze Buddha," by Cora Linn Daniels, is the story of the search for a particular idol of the ancient East Indian temple, which had for centuries been worshipped by thousands of devotees.

Mr. Frank T. Bullen's new book is entitled "The Log of a Sea-Waif."

Mr. Hamblin's railroad stories are as characteristic and American as anything in the world of books.

"The Half-Back" is a breezy story of outdoor sport that is bound to be read with intense interest by every healthy boy and by many girls.

school, where the serious work and discipline are varied by soft and foot ball matches and a regatta.

"A Bitter Heritage," by Mr. Bloudele-Burton, has just been issued as one of Appleton's Town and Country Library.

Mr. Hamlin Garland has prepared a new and revised edition of "Main Traveled Roads," which will contain some additional stories.

"The Bondwoman" is a new novel by Maria Ellis Ryan, who is well and favorably known, and much beloved, by a wide circle of readers.

Anyone capable of constructing a scrapbook can compile a volume of selected love-poems, but only one who is himself a true poet and a scholar could do what Mr. G. Hembert Westley has in the charming collection called "Love's Sweet Sake."

"The St. Nicholas Christmas Book" takes its title only indirectly from the white-bearded, merry-eyed old fellow who fills the children's stockings annually on "the night before Christmas."

Two things—two very important things—Mr. Morley Roberts has done excellently in his book "A Son of Empire."

"The Wood Rangers," by G. Waldo Browne is a story of the struggle between the early settlers of New Hampshire and the people of Massachusetts over the possession of a certain tract of disputed territory.

"One of Those Coincidences and Ten Other Stories," by Julia Hawthorne and others. Funk & Wagnalls Co., New York. Cloth, $1.00.

ABOUT CROUP.

Some Reading that Will Prove Interesting to Young Mothers—How to Guard Against the Disease.

Croup is a terror to young mothers and to post them concerning the cause, first symptoms and treatment is the object of this item.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—The Chamber Havana, which arrived today from Cuba, brought with it General Ludlow, civil governor of Havana, Lieutenant G. C. C. Miller, military aide to General Ludlow, and Mr. Milton Brown, the United States marine hospital physician.

Ludlow Reached New York. NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—The steamer Havana, which arrived today from Cuba, brought with it General Ludlow, civil governor of Havana, Lieutenant G. C. C. Miller, military aide to General Ludlow, and Mr. Milton Brown, the United States marine hospital physician.

as high order as that of a hero in front of battle. Young people will feel that in Mr. Paine they have a friend who, by means of these stories, sets forth their trials and victories with sympathy and understanding.

Two new volumes have been added to Appleton's Home-Reading Books under the titles, "The Story of the Fishes" and "About the Weather."

"Scientific Sewing and Garment Cutting" is the title of a little volume which owes its publication to the constant and increasing demand for information in regard to the system which is called "fashioning."

"Two Chums," by Minerva Thorpe, is the story of a little boy and his dog. Without a doubt, it is the most faithful dog, little Pierre started for America, in accordance with the dying request of his grandmother.

"Rupert's Ambition" is the title of a boy's book from the pen of Horatio Alger, Jr. It is a highly entertaining tale of the kind which is the attention of the young reader.

It is no easy matter to find a book that is as pleasing to the great majority of children as "Chatterbox," which has the advantage of containing such a great variety of matter that children differing widely in ages and temperaments will all find something to their liking.

"The St. Nicholas Christmas Book" takes its title only indirectly from the white-bearded, merry-eyed old fellow who fills the children's stockings annually on "the night before Christmas."

Two things—two very important things—Mr. Morley Roberts has done excellently in his book "A Son of Empire."

"The Wood Rangers," by G. Waldo Browne is a story of the struggle between the early settlers of New Hampshire and the people of Massachusetts over the possession of a certain tract of disputed territory.

"One of Those Coincidences and Ten Other Stories," by Julia Hawthorne and others. Funk & Wagnalls Co., New York. Cloth, $1.00.

"The Return of the Fairies," by Charles J. Bellamy, is an illustrated story book by the brother of the author of "Looking Backward" that will please young people.

Mr. Hamblin's railroad stories are as characteristic and American as anything in the world of books.

"The Half-Back" is a breezy story of outdoor sport that is bound to be read with intense interest by every healthy boy and by many girls.

BITS OF LIFE IN KAISERLAND

Experiences of Bachelor Girls in Emperor William's Country.

TUSSLE WITH CUSTOM HOUSE OFFICIALS

Quaint Sights and Scenes in Cologne and Strasburg and Along the Rhine—Wonders of the Great Cathedrals.

They all from St. Louis, this quartet of globe-trotting bachelor girls, who seem all that is worth seeing and give their impressions in the piquant, picturesque style of American girls.

We had a more than queer experience with the powers that be on the borders of Germany. The first of these was the officials in the land of the mustachioed emperor.

It is no easy matter to find a book that is as pleasing to the great majority of children as "Chatterbox," which has the advantage of containing such a great variety of matter that children differing widely in ages and temperaments will all find something to their liking.

Amid our conformation entered the silent German. For a moment he stood in the doorway gazing horror-struck at the ruins of his packing. Then he looked reproachfully at us and back to the collar, cuffs, underwear and socks which littered the seat and the floor.

Amid our conformation entered the silent German. For a moment he stood in the doorway gazing horror-struck at the ruins of his packing. Then he looked reproachfully at us and back to the collar, cuffs, underwear and socks which littered the seat and the floor.

Amid our conformation entered the silent German. For a moment he stood in the doorway gazing horror-struck at the ruins of his packing. Then he looked reproachfully at us and back to the collar, cuffs, underwear and socks which littered the seat and the floor.

Amid our conformation entered the silent German. For a moment he stood in the doorway gazing horror-struck at the ruins of his packing. Then he looked reproachfully at us and back to the collar, cuffs, underwear and socks which littered the seat and the floor.

Amid our conformation entered the silent German. For a moment he stood in the doorway gazing horror-struck at the ruins of his packing. Then he looked reproachfully at us and back to the collar, cuffs, underwear and socks which littered the seat and the floor.

Amid our conformation entered the silent German. For a moment he stood in the doorway gazing horror-struck at the ruins of his packing. Then he looked reproachfully at us and back to the collar, cuffs, underwear and socks which littered the seat and the floor.

Amid our conformation entered the silent German. For a moment he stood in the doorway gazing horror-struck at the ruins of his packing. Then he looked reproachfully at us and back to the collar, cuffs, underwear and socks which littered the seat and the floor.

Amid our conformation entered the silent German. For a moment he stood in the doorway gazing horror-struck at the ruins of his packing. Then he looked reproachfully at us and back to the collar, cuffs, underwear and socks which littered the seat and the floor.

are not able to build for ourselves a cathedral and a ruined castle, it will prove that we are singularly unobservant.

Such a glorious day as that was on the Rhine. Red-covered Baedeker had warned that it would prove a disappointment.

Strasburg's Wonderful Clock. Strasburg was another cathedral—havent! what scores of them I have seen!

Storks and Thimas. Strasburg is a most quaint old town. We strayed through the narrow streets, where the great old houses were so many that the second stories seem trying to kiss one another over your head.

Storks and Thimas. Strasburg is a most quaint old town. We strayed through the narrow streets, where the great old houses were so many that the second stories seem trying to kiss one another over your head.

Storks and Thimas. Strasburg is a most quaint old town. We strayed through the narrow streets, where the great old houses were so many that the second stories seem trying to kiss one another over your head.

Storks and Thimas. Strasburg is a most quaint old town. We strayed through the narrow streets, where the great old houses were so many that the second stories seem trying to kiss one another over your head.

Storks and Thimas. Strasburg is a most quaint old town. We strayed through the narrow streets, where the great old houses were so many that the second stories seem trying to kiss one another over your head.

Storks and Thimas. Strasburg is a most quaint old town. We strayed through the narrow streets, where the great old houses were so many that the second stories seem trying to kiss one another over your head.

IVORY SOAP PASTE.

In fifteen minutes, with only a cake of Ivory Soap and water, you can make a better cleansing paste than you can buy.

DIRECTIONS FOR MAKING.—To one pint of boiling water add one and one-half ounces (one-quarter of the usual size) of Ivory Soap cut into shavings, boil five minutes after the soap is thoroughly dissolved.

late the Washington Star. She is not in the least sensitive about the matter, and doesn't mind informing properly introduced people of the nature of the accident which maimed her.

James Whitcomb Riley and Nye were a peculiar pair. They were everlastingly playing practical jokes, relates a writer in the Philadelphia Post.

"I remember when we were riding together in the smoking compartment between Columbus and Cincinnati. Mr. Nye was a great smoker, and Mr. Riley did not dislike tobacco.

"I knew his father, and I would like to speak with him." "Oh, speak with him, yes. But he is deaf, and you want to speak loud."

HOW SHE ENCOURAGED HIM. Elevated to Beauteous Heights and Tobogganed to the Bottom. In some countries women are chosen for beauty of their capacity for work.

CASTORIA For Infants and Children. The Kind You Have Always Bought. Bears the Signature of Dr. J. C. Holt.

Shoe Leather is Going Up— Yet in the face of this advance Drexel continues to sell for $2.50 the best all-around shoe for young women's wear.

The Drexel Shoe Co. OMAHA. The most precious of gifts. Impaired or defective eyesight is almost a crime in these days.

Drexel Shoe Co., Omaha's Up-to-date Shoe House, 1619 FARNAM STREET.

If the Women Voted— The famous Kimball piano would receive more votes than all the other pianos put together. It has stood the test of years of service and today is the peer of them all.

WHY STILL MORE? The use of Van Houten's Cocoa as a daily beverage in family life is continually increasing. Why? The explanation is simple enough.

ARROW BRAND 25c + DONIPHAN. CLUETT PEABODY & Co. MAKERS. There is a very handsome young woman in New York who is rather well known in art circles.

THE EYESIGHT. Is the most precious of gifts. Impaired or defective eyesight is almost a crime in these days.

A. HOSPE, Music and Art, 1513 Douglas. There is a very handsome young woman in New York who is rather well known in art circles.