There is nothing so bad for the throat and lungs as coughing. A 25c, bottle will cure an ordinary cough; harder coughs will need a 50c. size; the dollar bottle is cheapest in the long run.

Looking for a Pastor. There was a well attended congregational meeting at the Central United Presbyterian church Wednesday night for the purpose of pastor to take the place made vacant by the resignation of Dr. Gilchrist. There was much discussion, but very little was ae-complished. There was a division of senti-ment in regard to two candidates who had appeared before the church, Rev. Robert Yost of St. Louis and Rev. J. Pressley Thompson of Colorado Springs. Some were in favor of waiting until Rev. J. Knox Monigomery of Cincinnait should be heard before any action was taken. An informal vote indicated that Mr. Thompson was the favorite. The matter was finally referred to a committee of nine and a meeting will be called later to decide upon a man. 113 64 85 53 $32 1,003 1,066 DOL BOARD Marriage Liceases. but Enough Known to Assure Safe Election sued Tuesday: of Entire Ticket. King will take his seat in January along with the balance of the county officers. Patrick C. Caldwell was elected a justice of the peace, his vote being 1,326. Jaco Levy was re-elected by a vote of 1,329. For constables Patrick Cabill and James Brabits were chosen. The first had a vote of 1,399 and the latter 1,357 to his credit, Lou Etter, one of the best known re-publicans in the city, was elected assessor for the First ward by a vote of $30. His opponent, Ralph Hall, recoived 480 votes. John Zalondek was chosen assessor in the Second ward. His total vote was 385.

Thero were six candidates for assessor in the Third ward and C. O'Brien won out with a vote of 198. In the Fourth ward the interest in the selection of an assessor appeared to be greater than the choice of a judge of the supreme court. Many ballots were cast for assessor alone and this action tended to the handling of many ballots with but small results. Joseph Carrolls wins the prize with a vote of 135. City Treasurer Frank Broadwell, now clerk of the district court-elect, was busy all yesterday afternoon receiving the con gratulations of his friends.
