and the adjoining wholesale dry goods house of Strong, Lee & Co. was also badly flooded, making a total loss of approximately $300.000 The fire is supposed to have been caused by crossed electric light wires. The Krolik stock is valued at between $400,000 and $500,000 and is insured for $250,000. Their loss will be at least $200,000. The building, which is owned by the Francis Palmer cetate, is valued at $100,000 with about $40,-000 loss, and is fully insured. Strong, Lee & Co., whose establishment adjoins the Krolik store, suffered a heavy loss from water an approximate less of $100,000, amply insured. The building occupied by Strong, Lee & Co. is owned by the ex-Governor Jewell estate of Hartford, Conn. It has insurance enough to cover the loss.
