

SPIRIT DEALERS AS VICTIMS

Sioux City Attorney and His Client Are in Jail.

THY ARE CHARGED WITH BLACKMAIL

Sioux City Brewery and Saloon Convicted to Secure Their Conviction—Money to Keep Out of Court.

SIoux CITY, Ia., Nov. 25.—(Special Telegram.)—Eugene Lutz, well-known attorney, and A. D. Brauner, a traveling salesman, were arrested today and locked in separate cells at the police station. They are held under two charges of conspiracy and extortion. This is the outcome of the trouble between Brauner and the Sioux City Brewing company. He secured seven injunctions against saloons where Sioux City beer was sold, and it is charged by the brewing company which secured the arrests, that it is a blackmailing process, because Brauner had been discharged from its employ.

The men have been working together for some time against the saloons, and two saloon men say they have been obliged to pay them money to keep out of court. The liquor dealers of Sioux City have organized to prosecute these cases.

Lutz has practiced law here for a number of years. The present trouble may result in his disbarment from practice in the courts of Iowa, if he is convicted. He is out on bond, but Brauner is still in jail.

District Judge Dickinson refused to transfer the liquor injunction cases under the state statute law, to the federal court. He admits that the constitutional point made by the defense is a close one. These cases are likely to be tested in some other way.

HAD NAMES FROM MANY PLACES.

Bazaar Recalls Notables Who Once Belonged to Lemars Church.

LEMARS, Ia., Nov. 25.—(Special.)—A fancy bazaar was given by the Episcopal women of this week. The principal feature was a remembrance table. All former parishioners whose addresses could be got were invited upon contributions. As St. George's church was founded by the once famous Iowa English colony, the result of the canvass was interesting. Gifts came pouring in from all directions. A highly prized memento was a postage stamp and cancellation mark cut from a letter mailed in Ladysmith and sent out with the very last post which left the besieged city in South Africa. Among those who sent gifts were: Robert MacLagan, 28 Stafford street, Edinburgh, Scotland, a nephew of the archbishop of Canterbury; Frank Carver, Manchester, England; J. G. Watson, formerly of Calcutta and London, and now of Chicago; A. Hutchinson, London, England; Grosvenor club; Mrs. Albion Norris Fellows, Cedarcraft, Suffern, New York; Miss Emily C. Maguire, Dublin, Ireland; Mrs. W. H. Dent, Chicago; Mrs. Arthur Gee, England; Miss Lilla D. Bonner, Newark, N. J.; Miss Evelyn Roche, England.

DATE FOR THE STATE FAIR FIXED.

DES MOINES, Ia., Nov. 25.—(Special Telegram.)—President Herriman and Secretary Van Houten of the State Agricultural Society returned from Chicago today, where they attended a meeting of the American Association of Fairs and Expositions. The association honored Iowa by selecting Herriman its vice president for a year. The date fixed by the association for the holding of the Iowa State fair was August 24 to September 1.

IOWA TO HAVE ANOTHER PLASTER MILL.

PORT DODGE, Ia., Nov. 25.—(Special Telegram.)—Articles of incorporation were filed today for a new gypsum plaster company. A formaldehyde generator with fifty gallons of gas has been bought and put in the hands of an expert pharmacist, who is disinfecting the premises where smallpox exists.

TOLBERT IS ACQUITTED OF MURDER.

MAN CITY, Ia., Nov. 25.—(Special Telegram.)—Charles Tolbert, in his second trial for the murder of James Allison, was today found not guilty. Allison was stabbed to death in this city a year ago. Tolbert and L. R. Bon were arrested for the crime. Bon was tried and by a defect in the indictment escaped capital punishment and was given six years in prison.

SOUTH OMAHA NEWS.

Business men all over the city seem to have been awakened by the meeting of the Commercial club Friday night. The enthusiasm displayed proved effective and yesterday nearly every member of the club was talking improvements. In connection with a proper place for club meetings, D. S. Clark makes the suggestion that a building be erected on a side street near the center of the city to be used as a meeting place for the club, an auditorium. Mr. Clark figures that a structure such as he has in mind can be built for $2,000, with $1,000 additional for the land. His plan is to secure one hundred men who will agree to subscribe $40 each in this building. This would make $4,000, which is estimated, will be sufficient to purchase ground and erect a building.

Miners May Strike.

OTTUMWA, Ia., Nov. 25.—(Special Telegram.)—There is a probability of a general strike among the coal miners in District No. 13, embracing all of Iowa and part of Missouri. The executive board of the United Mine Workers of America was in session here today, but no action was taken. The meetings were held behind closed doors and the proceedings as far as possible have been made secret. The conservative miners have with the operators in regard to the wage scale and which does not expire until April 1, 1900, but there are many miners who want to demand an increase in the scale at once in view of the great increase in the price of coal.

Railroad Forfeits Special Tax.

NEVADA, Ia., Nov. 25.—(Special.)—The Duluth & New Orleans railroad, which was projected to run from Des Moines to Oaage, Ia., has forfeited the tax voted in aid of the project in Story county. The company will submit the tax proposition to the people again next spring, but the prospects for the issue carrying are much less now than when it was previously submitted. In Nevada township, outside of the town of Nevada, the farmers defeated the tax, but the town precinct carried it through. This so incensed the people of the country that they have been considering the matter of dividing the township.

Vaccinating Storm Lake People.

DES MOINES, Ia., Nov. 25.—(Special Telegram.)—Mayor Chapman of Storm Lake has arranged for the State Board of Health that out of a population of 2,300 everybody in the town has been vaccinated with few exceptions. A physician was employed for those who could not afford to pay for the operation. A formaldehyde generator with fifty gallons of gas has been bought and put in the hands of an expert pharmacist, who is disinfecting the premises where smallpox exists.
