

HORLOCKER CASE POSTPONED

Will Not Come on for Trial at the December Term of Court.

ATTORNEYS COME TO AN AGREEMENT

As Horlocker is Still in the Jacksonville Sanitarium, But Will, It is Understood, Soon Return to Hastings.

HASTINGS, Neb., Dec. 8.—(Special Telegram.)—The celebrated Horlocker-Morey poisoning case will come up in the December term of court, as the attorneys for the defendant and County Attorney McCreary have come to an understanding between themselves and for unknown reasons have agreed to postpone the trial until the spring term of the district court.

A petition had been circulated among the attorneys of Hastings asking that there be no jury trial in December and it was signed by nearly every member of the Adams county bar. This action led Judge Heall to file the following order in the district court's office today.

"In the district court in and for Adams county, Nebraska, to Lloyd Lynn, clerk of said court.

"Upon petition duly signed by the attorneys of said court requesting that the jury summoned for the December term be recalled and it further appearing to me that the county attorneys and the attorneys for the defendant in the case The State against Horlocker have stipulated in writing that said case be not tried at above term of court and it appearing to me that there are no other jury cases of importance for trial at this term, therefore, it is ordered that you notify each of the jurors summoned for said term that they are excused from attendance. Done at Hastings, this 8th day of December, A. D. 1899.

"P. D. BRALL, Judge District Court."

This movement was anticipated, as several of the most important witnesses in the case were recently permitted to depart from the city when it was known that they intended to be gone for several months.

Miss Viola Horlocker is still employed as keeper in the sanitarium at Jacksonville, Ill., but it is generally believed that she will return to Hastings before long.

This afternoon Pope was put on the stand and gave his account of the shooting. He said Jerome asked him to go upstairs to see about some repairs to the roof and fired at him without any warning just as he reached the top stair. The ball took effect in his back. He turned slightly at the head of the stairs and the second shot struck him in the side. After a futile attempt to open the back window he says he turned and went toward the stairs. Jerome still shooting, and he fell to the lower floor. He shouted ever having any trouble whatever with Jerome and could give no reason for his shooting. SOUTH OMAHA NEWS.

George L. Carman, superintendent of the Western Weighing association, with headquarters at Chicago, spent yesterday in the city and inspected the facilities for weighing live stock. On December 1 the railroad commenced charging for live stock handled at cents-per-hundred pounds instead of dollars-per-car. Two years ago, when the same plan was tried, large railroad scales were erected on the Union Pacific tracks near the I. street viaduct. Since the resumption of weighing, these scales have been reopened and are in constant use. The Union Pacific, Rock Island, Northwestern, Milwaukee, Elkhorn and Missouri Pacific roads weigh over these scales, while all stock handled by the Burlington is weighed at the Y in the northeast part of the yards. All the railroads are now interested in the Western Weighing association, which has supervision of all weighing. One reason for the abandonment of the plan two years ago was because the railroads were not united in the matter and the weighing of live stock was not one of the duties of the association. Now each road is interested and is treated impartially by the joint association. Since December 1 the association force here has been doubled and twenty men are employed. Ten men are engaged in weighing stock, while two inspectors of the association are detailed for duty at each packing house.

The new plan of weighing has greatly increased the amount of switching done and at present there is some little delay in delivering stock to the yard company. It is thought that everything will run smoothly in a short time and that there will be no cause for complaint. Cents-per-hundred pounds instead of dollars-per-car increases the revenue of the railroads, as in a majority of instances the tariff on shipments is raised. The railroad men admit that it costs more to ship stock now, they assert that shipments reach the yards in better condition than formerly, as there is less overloading and consequently fewer injuries. When a shipper loads a car he naturally loads it to full capacity and an account of this overloading animals were frequently injured in transit. Now, when stock is paid for by weight, there is no excuse for overloading and fewer cripples are received.

Cudaby's Soap Shipment. A special train of forty-five railcars of "Diamond C" soap, manufactured by the Cudaby Packing company, will leave here today via the Burlington for Salt Lake City. The loading of the cars was about completed yesterday and the decorations and banners will be placed on the cars and the two locomotives early this morning. A total of 20,000 cases of 100 bars each constitutes this shipment and the product has a selling value of $60,000. The soap weighs seventy-five pounds, net, to the box, making a total net shipment weight of 1,500,000 pounds. Each car carries from 450 to 500 boxes, according to the size of the car. If stacked up, one bar on top of another, this shipment would make a pile 135 miles high.

It is stated in connection with the shipment that the total consumption of soap in the civilized world is ten pounds per capita per annum. This shipment would, therefore, supply 150,000 people for one year. A special time card has been arranged for the big shipment and only daylight runs will be made. The train leaves here at 11 a. m. today and arrives at Hastings in 6:50 o'clock this evening. The start from Hastings will be made at 6 o'clock Sunday morning, arriving at Albia at 7:40 Sunday evening. Daily it will be reached at 12:45 p. m. December 11. The balance of the train to Salt Lake City will be made over the Denver & Rio Grande and the Rio Grande Western. W. E. Cudaby and wife accompany the train in a private car.

Thirty-Third Street in Bad Condition. The street and alley committee of the council is being urged by the mayor to take some action in regard to the condition of Thirty-third street from L street north to the city limits. This roadway is used a great deal by teams hauling packing house products, and the many washouts cause frequently doing considerable damage to the pavement. The committee is not at the present time. All they want now is the filling of the holes and the rounding up of the roadway. It is more than likely that the work will be ordered done as soon as the street and alley committee completes its investigation.

The preliminary hearing was moved to the county jail for safekeeping.

BOILERMAKERS' AGREEMENT

Strikers in Cheyenne Shops Return to Work This Morning.

THEY RESUME UNDER OLD WAGE SCALE

Claim to Have Assurances That the Company Will in Time Grant Them an Increase in Their Pay.

CHEYENNE, Dec. 8.—(Special Telegram.)—Grand President John McNeill of the Amalgamated Federation of Boilermakers and a committee of striking Union Pacific boiler-makers met Superintendent of Motive Power and Machinery McConnel at noon today and completed the final arrangements for a settlement of the strike. The strikers agreed to return to work tomorrow morning at the old wage scale in force at the time of the strike, with the understanding that the company will, within thirty days, return an answer to their demands for an increase in wages. The strikers say they have assurance that the company will grant some increase.

Three Strikers Arrested. No. 1 mine at Diamondville was in operation today with about the same force as yesterday, few, if any additional men presenting themselves for work. Three of the leading strikers, McAllister, Ross and Gaspard, were placed under arrest this afternoon, charged with threatening to commit murder and intimidating the working miners.

Joe Cutler, a correspondent of the Deseret News of Salt Lake, was also arrested. Cutler is alleged to have sent his paper the sensational dispatch which stated that Sheriff Ward's deputies were setting a bad example for the law-abiding people of Diamondville by riding up and down the streets of the town yelling and shooting off their guns to intimidate the citizens and make an impression on the strikers. The facts in the case are that nothing of the sort was done and that strict order has been maintained since the arrival at the coal camp of several months and plenty of coal that the strikers and Cutler will be prosecuted vigorously.

Manager White of the coal company left this morning for Montana, presumably for the purpose of securing more men, as those at the camp who are waiting to return to work evidently dare not do so for fear of the strikers.

Doctor in an Embigment. SIOUX FALLS, S. D., Dec. 8.—(Special Telegram.)—At Sioux Falls this afternoon Dr. John C. McKee and Miss Mary M. Babcock of Hartford were married. The couple appeared before Clerk of Courts Grip and applied for a marriage license, giving their ages as 26 and 19. Hardly had they been married by County Judge Wilber, when Mr. and Mrs. Scott Babcock, parents of the bride, rushed into the room, only to find they were too late to prevent the marriage. Dr. McKee, it appears, called at the Babcock residence this morning and invited the young woman to accompany him on a drive, ostensibly to visit some of his country patients. After they had been absent a long time the parents became suspicious and traced them to Sioux Falls to discover they had been outwitted. Mrs. Babcock says her daughter is not 16 years of age.

Body and Head Mass Bleeding Sores. Suffered Beyond Description. Physician Could Not Even Relieve. Had to Be Put Under Opium.

Father Gives Up, Utterly Discouraged. Reads of CUTICURA Remedies. Cured in Seven Weeks.

My infant boy was afflicted with a terrible skin disease. The upper part of his body was one mass of bleeding sores which extended to his head, and one of his ears was so inflamed that it would even refuse to grow. I gave every attention and description, and he had to be kept constantly under the influence of opium. Our physician did not know what to do, and I was getting better, the disease seemed to become more aggravated every day, until I became utterly discouraged. I could find nothing that would relieve him, and I was on the verge of giving up when I read of CUTICURA Remedies published by you. I bought the CUTICURA Remedies, using the CUTICURA Remedies for my infant's skin. After the third day the sores were discontinued, the child was free from pain and the terrible itching sensation. From day to day improvement progressed, and in seven weeks from the day we started to use CUTICURA the child was cured, the sores falling off, leaving a clean, smooth baby skin in their place.
