POPE RULES ON EDUCATION

Teaching of Classics is Left to the Jesuits in America as Elsewhere.

NEW YORK, Dec. 30 .- A dispatch from Rome says: The sacred congregation of the propaganda has made its report on the dispute between the heads of the Christian Brothers in the United States and the French superiors of the order relative to the teaching of the classics in the Brothers' American schools.

After consideration of the statement of the case submitted by Archbishop Patrick W. Riordan of San Francisco the congregation rules that the American claims to greater initude in teaching than is permitted in Europe are inadmissible. It 15 expected that the pope will confirm the report at once.

Cardinal Satolli, who drafted the report, Rev. Charles W.
