

EVENTS OF THE DYING YEAR

Chronological Review of Happenings Recorded in the Ledger of 1899.

TWO WARS FEATURED IN THE STORY

The Harvest of Death by Violence and Natural Cause—Disasters on Land and Sea—Political and General Events.

The closing year differs from 1898 in one conspicuous feature, having two wars instead of one to center the attention of the world. Like its predecessors, it has the usual record of disasters on land and sea, by storm, fire, flood, earthquake, and pestilence to human causes, in which hundreds of lives were lost and property of incalculable value was destroyed.

IRISH-AMERICANS ARE ACTIVE

Reorganizing Local Branches of Once Powerful Irish National League.

PURPOSING TO STRIKE BLOW AT ENGLAND

Home Rule Meeting Listens to Beloved Addresses from Adjutant General Barry, John P. Sutton and Other Irishmen.

There was nothing of a sensationally pro-Boer coloring about the meeting of Irish-Americans at St. Philomena hall, Ninth and Howard streets, Sunday afternoon. It was, as indicated in the call, distinctly a meeting of those who favor home rule for Ireland and any design entertained of aiding the Boers in their war against England were carefully avoided in the speeches.

There were about 150 present when Jerry Howard called the meeting to order and proposed John Rush as chairman. Among the prominent Irish-Americans occupying seats upon the platform were Adjutant General Barry and John P. Sutton, both of Lincoln. The latter was some years ago secretary of the Irish National league at the time when the late John Fitzgerald was president.

In his opening remarks, explaining the objects of the meeting, Mr. Rush said that for 700 years the Irish people, during the persecutions of England, had never given up their arms. Their watchword had ever been that England's difficulty is Ireland's opportunity. He recalled the considerable hardships the days of his residence in Ireland when Lord Dillon had exacted from the tenants of the neighborhood from which the speaker came the means to enable him to gratify his gambling propensities at Monte Carlo and other resorts.

Mr. Rush said that the object of the meeting was to further the strength of the Irish people by reorganization of the Irish National league.

General Barry believes time is ripe for the reorganization of the Irish National league. He was chosen as secretary of the meeting, after which General Barry was introduced as a man who showed upon his personal evidences of his devotion to the stars and stripes, yet who had never forgotten the rights of the Irish people in Ireland.

Mr. Sutton declared that he was glad of the opportunity to appear before such a meeting, right under the shadow of the cathedral. Ireland had been so bound up with that grand old church which, through 1900 years had battled and triumphed, that he felt that Ireland must sooner or later irrevocably sever the relations which have held therein a cathedral could not be devoted to a holier purpose than to be set aside for a meeting to protest against Ireland's wrongs.

Mr. J. E. Lilly, a prominent citizen of Hannibal, Mo., lately had a wonderful deliverance from a frightful death. In telling of it he says: "I was taken with Typhoid Fever, that ran into Pneumonia. My lungs became hardened. I was so weak I couldn't even sit up to rest. Nothing helped me. I expected to soon die of Consumption. When I heard of Dr. King's New Discovery, one bottle gave great relief. I continued to use it and now am well and hearty. I can't say too much in its praise. This marvelous medicine is the surest and quickest cure in the world for all Typhoid fever. Regular sizes 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottles free at Kuhn & Co.'s drug store; every bottle guaranteed."

MINNEHAHA COUNCIL DANCE

Members of the Organization Enjoy a Social Saturday Night at Labor Temple.

The members of Minnehaha council No. 2 of the order of Daughters, the women's auxiliary to the Improved Order of Red Men, gave a social and dance in Labor temple Saturday night that was one of the merriest parties of the closing of the old year. The committees on arrangement had spared no pains to make the event one long to be remembered and every person had a happy time.

Short addresses were made by Frank McArde and Captain Cross, and then the meeting closed. It is understood that another meeting will be called for next Sunday, when the organization of the league and its list of officers will be made public.
