

BRITAIN'S SHARD HIT

Kuruman Garrison Surrendered. Heavily, Dordrecht Evacuated.

720 HUNDRED AND SIXTY ARE CAPTURED

Losses of the British Greatly Added To in One Day's Reports.

BULLER ENGAGED IN SENDING RUMORS

Last Real News from Ladysmith is Garrison is Hard Pressed.

GLIMY VIEWS OF LONDON EXPERTS

General White Reports that Boer Forces Have Been Increased—Burgers in Control of All Trenches at Colenso.

Three more serious reverses have been suffered by British arms in South Africa.

Information has just been received of the surrender of the garrison at Kuruman, Bechuanaland, in the northern part of Cape Province.

London, Jan. 7.—The war office publishes the following dispatch from General Buller, commanding at Capetown: "General French reports, under date of January 6: "The situation is much the same as yesterday, but I regret to report that a serious accident has happened to the first battalion of the Suffolk regiment."

"The situation is much the same as yesterday, but I regret to report that a serious accident has happened to the first battalion of the Suffolk regiment."

"The situation is much the same as yesterday, but I regret to report that a serious accident has happened to the first battalion of the Suffolk regiment."

"The situation is much the same as yesterday, but I regret to report that a serious accident has happened to the first battalion of the Suffolk regiment."

"The situation is much the same as yesterday, but I regret to report that a serious accident has happened to the first battalion of the Suffolk regiment."

"The situation is much the same as yesterday, but I regret to report that a serious accident has happened to the first battalion of the Suffolk regiment."

"The situation is much the same as yesterday, but I regret to report that a serious accident has happened to the first battalion of the Suffolk regiment."

"The situation is much the same as yesterday, but I regret to report that a serious accident has happened to the first battalion of the Suffolk regiment."

"The situation is much the same as yesterday, but I regret to report that a serious accident has happened to the first battalion of the Suffolk regiment."

"The situation is much the same as yesterday, but I regret to report that a serious accident has happened to the first battalion of the Suffolk regiment."

"The situation is much the same as yesterday, but I regret to report that a serious accident has happened to the first battalion of the Suffolk regiment."

"The situation is much the same as yesterday, but I regret to report that a serious accident has happened to the first battalion of the Suffolk regiment."

"The situation is much the same as yesterday, but I regret to report that a serious accident has happened to the first battalion of the Suffolk regiment."

"The situation is much the same as yesterday, but I regret to report that a serious accident has happened to the first battalion of the Suffolk regiment."

"The situation is much the same as yesterday, but I regret to report that a serious accident has happened to the first battalion of the Suffolk regiment."

"The situation is much the same as yesterday, but I regret to report that a serious accident has happened to the first battalion of the Suffolk regiment."

"The situation is much the same as yesterday, but I regret to report that a serious accident has happened to the first battalion of the Suffolk regiment."

"The situation is much the same as yesterday, but I regret to report that a serious accident has happened to the first battalion of the Suffolk regiment."

"The situation is much the same as yesterday, but I regret to report that a serious accident has happened to the first battalion of the Suffolk regiment."

"The situation is much the same as yesterday, but I regret to report that a serious accident has happened to the first battalion of the Suffolk regiment."

"The situation is much the same as yesterday, but I regret to report that a serious accident has happened to the first battalion of the Suffolk regiment."

"The situation is much the same as yesterday, but I regret to report that a serious accident has happened to the first battalion of the Suffolk regiment."

"The situation is much the same as yesterday, but I regret to report that a serious accident has happened to the first battalion of the Suffolk regiment."

"The situation is much the same as yesterday, but I regret to report that a serious accident has happened to the first battalion of the Suffolk regiment."

"The situation is much the same as yesterday, but I regret to report that a serious accident has happened to the first battalion of the Suffolk regiment."

"The situation is much the same as yesterday, but I regret to report that a serious accident has happened to the first battalion of the Suffolk regiment."

"The situation is much the same as yesterday, but I regret to report that a serious accident has happened to the first battalion of the Suffolk regiment."

"The situation is much the same as yesterday, but I regret to report that a serious accident has happened to the first battalion of the Suffolk regiment."

"The situation is much the same as yesterday, but I regret to report that a serious accident has happened to the first battalion of the Suffolk regiment."

"The situation is much the same as yesterday, but I regret to report that a serious accident has happened to the first battalion of the Suffolk regiment."

"The situation is much the same as yesterday, but I regret to report that a serious accident has happened to the first battalion of the Suffolk regiment."

"The situation is much the same as yesterday, but I regret to report that a serious accident has happened to the first battalion of the Suffolk regiment."

"The situation is much the same as yesterday, but I regret to report that a serious accident has happened to the first battalion of the Suffolk regiment."

"The situation is much the same as yesterday, but I regret to report that a serious accident has happened to the first battalion of the Suffolk regiment."

IRISHMEN AND THE BOERS

Formal Statement Made by the Ancient Order of Hibernians.

SYMPATHY FOR THE TRANSVAAL REPUBLIC

Desires to Extend Aid to South African Nation, but Will Not Violate Neutrality Laws in Doing So.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—The national office of the Ancient Order of Hibernians met in this city today and later issued the following statement to the public: "The national officers met in Washington to discuss a demand on the part of a majority of the representatives of our 150,000 members that the order render some assistance to the Boers in the Transvaal. It was agreed to render any assistance compatible with our loyalty as American citizens and which would not interfere with the neutrality laws of the United States. We are impressed with the splendid precedent shown by the republic in going to war with Spain to free Cuba from the oppression of that country. We believe that American sympathy is with the Boers and that we are acting in accordance with the principles which urged the United States to carry the flag in a struggle for the liberation of the gallant Cubans. Our people would look to the arms of America if the government marched to the assistance of the South Africans."

"I commenced a bombardment of Kuruman yesterday (Monday), aiming at the police barracks. The fight lasted until 6 in the evening, when the garrison surrendered, issuing from the forts and yielding up arms."

"We took 120 prisoners, including Captain Bates and Captain Donnison, Mr. Hilliard, the magistrate, and eight other officers. We also captured seventy natives, together with a number of rifles and revolvers and a quantity of ammunition."

"Fifteen British were wounded. They are being attended by us, with the help of Dr. Bourne, an English physician."

"The horses, oxen, mules and flour taken from the prisoners have been sent to Pretoria by way of Vryburg."

"I commenced a bombardment of Kuruman yesterday (Monday), aiming at the police barracks. The fight lasted until 6 in the evening, when the garrison surrendered, issuing from the forts and yielding up arms."

"We took 120 prisoners, including Captain Bates and Captain Donnison, Mr. Hilliard, the magistrate, and eight other officers. We also captured seventy natives, together with a number of rifles and revolvers and a quantity of ammunition."

"Fifteen British were wounded. They are being attended by us, with the help of Dr. Bourne, an English physician."

"The horses, oxen, mules and flour taken from the prisoners have been sent to Pretoria by way of Vryburg."

"I commenced a bombardment of Kuruman yesterday (Monday), aiming at the police barracks. The fight lasted until 6 in the evening, when the garrison surrendered, issuing from the forts and yielding up arms."

"We took 120 prisoners, including Captain Bates and Captain Donnison, Mr. Hilliard, the magistrate, and eight other officers. We also captured seventy natives, together with a number of rifles and revolvers and a quantity of ammunition."

"Fifteen British were wounded. They are being attended by us, with the help of Dr. Bourne, an English physician."

"The horses, oxen, mules and flour taken from the prisoners have been sent to Pretoria by way of Vryburg."

"I commenced a bombardment of Kuruman yesterday (Monday), aiming at the police barracks. The fight lasted until 6 in the evening, when the garrison surrendered, issuing from the forts and yielding up arms."

"We took 120 prisoners, including Captain Bates and Captain Donnison, Mr. Hilliard, the magistrate, and eight other officers. We also captured seventy natives, together with a number of rifles and revolvers and a quantity of ammunition."

"Fifteen British were wounded. They are being attended by us, with the help of Dr. Bourne, an English physician."

"The horses, oxen, mules and flour taken from the prisoners have been sent to Pretoria by way of Vryburg."

"I commenced a bombardment of Kuruman yesterday (Monday), aiming at the police barracks. The fight lasted until 6 in the evening, when the garrison surrendered, issuing from the forts and yielding up arms."

"We took 120 prisoners, including Captain Bates and Captain Donnison, Mr. Hilliard, the magistrate, and eight other officers. We also captured seventy natives, together with a number of rifles and revolvers and a quantity of ammunition."

"Fifteen British were wounded. They are being attended by us, with the help of Dr. Bourne, an English physician."

"The horses, oxen, mules and flour taken from the prisoners have been sent to Pretoria by way of Vryburg."

"I commenced a bombardment of Kuruman yesterday (Monday), aiming at the police barracks. The fight lasted until 6 in the evening, when the garrison surrendered, issuing from the forts and yielding up arms."

"We took 120 prisoners, including Captain Bates and Captain Donnison, Mr. Hilliard, the magistrate, and eight other officers. We also captured seventy natives, together with a number of rifles and revolvers and a quantity of ammunition."

"Fifteen British were wounded. They are being attended by us, with the help of Dr. Bourne, an English physician."

"The horses, oxen, mules and flour taken from the prisoners have been sent to Pretoria by way of Vryburg."

"I commenced a bombardment of Kuruman yesterday (Monday), aiming at the police barracks. The fight lasted until 6 in the evening, when the garrison surrendered, issuing from the forts and yielding up arms."

"We took 120 prisoners, including Captain Bates and Captain Donnison, Mr. Hilliard, the magistrate, and eight other officers. We also captured seventy natives, together with a number of rifles and revolvers and a quantity of ammunition."

"Fifteen British were wounded. They are being attended by us, with the help of Dr. Bourne, an English physician."

"The horses, oxen, mules and flour taken from the prisoners have been sent to Pretoria by way of Vryburg."

"I commenced a bombardment of Kuruman yesterday (Monday), aiming at the police barracks. The fight lasted until 6 in the evening, when the garrison surrendered, issuing from the forts and yielding up arms."

"We took 120 prisoners, including Captain Bates and Captain Donnison, Mr. Hilliard, the magistrate, and eight other officers. We also captured seventy natives, together with a number of rifles and revolvers and a quantity of ammunition."

"Fifteen British were wounded. They are being attended by us, with the help of Dr. Bourne, an English physician."

"The horses, oxen, mules and flour taken from the prisoners have been sent to Pretoria by way of Vryburg."

"I commenced a bombardment of Kuruman yesterday (Monday), aiming at the police barracks. The fight lasted until 6 in the evening, when the garrison surrendered, issuing from the forts and yielding up arms."

"We took 120 prisoners, including Captain Bates and Captain Donnison, Mr. Hilliard, the magistrate, and eight other officers. We also captured seventy natives, together with a number of rifles and revolvers and a quantity of ammunition."

"Fifteen British were wounded. They are being attended by us, with the help of Dr. Bourne, an English physician."

"The horses, oxen, mules and flour taken from the prisoners have been sent to Pretoria by way of Vryburg."

"I commenced a bombardment of Kuruman yesterday (Monday), aiming at the police barracks. The fight lasted until 6 in the evening, when the garrison surrendered, issuing from the forts and yielding up arms."

"We took 120 prisoners, including Captain Bates and Captain Donnison, Mr. Hilliard, the magistrate, and eight other officers. We also captured seventy natives, together with a number of rifles and revolvers and a quantity of ammunition."

"Fifteen British were wounded. They are being attended by us, with the help of Dr. Bourne, an English physician."

"The horses, oxen, mules and flour taken from the prisoners have been sent to Pretoria by way of Vryburg."

SCHENCK AND HIS DISCOVERY

Man Who Claims to Know the Secret of Sex Returns from Vienna University.

EIGHT MONTHS IN CAPTIVITY

Lieutenant Gilmore and Party Rescued from What Seemed Certain Death.

CAPTORS ABANDON THEM TO SAVAGES

First Left with an Armed Guard Which Had Orders to Shoot Them—Tale of Fearsome Hardships.

MANILA, Jan. 7.—8:30 p. m.—Lieutenant J. C. Gilmore of the United States gunboat Yamacraw, who was captured by the insurgents last April near Balera on the coast of Luzon and rescued a few days ago by Colonel Luther R. Hale of the Thirty-third Infantry, sat today in the apartment of his sister, Mrs. Major Price, at the Hotel Oriente in Manila and told a remarkable story of his eight months in captivity, ending with his dramatic deliverance from a death that seemed inevitable.

"The story began with the harbor last evening from Vigan, province of South Ilocos, with Lieutenant Gilmore and nineteen other American prisoners, including seven of his sailors from the Yorktown."

"Lieutenant Gilmore, after reporting, came ashore and hobbled along, with the aid of a cane, to the Hotel Oriente, where American officers and ladies were waiting through the halls to the strains of 'Aguinaldo's March.'"

"Although tanned and ruddy from exposure, he is weak and nervous, showing the results of hardships. He speaks warmly of Aguinaldo and very bitterly against General Tino, declaring that while in the former's jurisdiction he was treated splendidly, but that after he fell into Tino's hands he suffered everything."

"Colonel Hale and Lieutenant Colonel Howse, the latter of the Thirty-fourth Infantry, rescued Gilmore's party on December 19, near the head waters of the Abulog river, after they had been abandoned by the Filipinos and were expecting death from savage tribes around them."

"When the rescuing force reached them they were nearly starved, but were being rescued by the Filipinos in the hope of getting down the river to the coast."

"Lieutenant Gilmore made the following statement to a correspondent of the Associated Press: "The Filipinos abandoned us on the night of December 19. We had reached the Abulog river near its source that morning and the Filipinos rafted us over. We then went down the stream, along a rough trail, guarded by a company of Filipinos. That night we were separated from this guard and another company armed with Mausers was put in charge of us. I suggested something and questioned the lieutenant in command. He said: 'I have orders from General Tino to shoot you all, but my conscience forbids. I shall leave you here. I begged him for two rifles to protect us from savages, adding that I would give him letters to the Americans, who would pay him well and keep him from all harm. He refused this, however, saying that he would not do so. Soon afterward he left with his company.'"

"We had seen some savages in war paint around us and we prepared to fight them with our Mausers, the only weapons that were available to us. The next morning we followed the trail of the Filipino soldiers, feeling that it was better to stick to them than to be murdered by savages, but we could not catch up with them. Then I ordered the men to build rafts, in the hope of crossing the river. They shot a forlorn hope, but I knew the river must empty into the sea somewhere. I was so weak myself that I did not expect to get out. But I thought some of the men could, and I urged them to try. They were working on the rafts, the Americans came toward us yelling. One of my men shouted: 'They are on us!' He was lashing a raft of bamboos. I, however, knew it was not the yell of savages. The rescuing troops thought we had Filipino guards and called to us in English, 'Where are you? Where are you?' The shot was the finest body of officers and men I ever saw."

"Lieutenant Gilmore could not speak enthusiastically enough about the 140 picked men who had rescued him and his party."

"Shoot Rapids on Rafts."

"The command spent the day in making rafts. Colonel Hale thought Lieutenant Gilmore too weak to live through the trip, but he went anyway. They shot several horses and we lived on horseflesh for several days. I did not have a full meal from December 7 until I reached Vigan. Indeed, the rescuing party lived largely upon rice without salt. There was one day when I was reduced to eating grass and bark."

"When we were in the hands of General Tino's men he issued an order that any person aiding an American by food or money should be treated as a criminal. One citizen of Vigan, Senor Vera, was probably killed for befriending us. We would have starved but for the kindness of some of the residents of the towns and some of the Filipino colonists, but others treated us brutally. Whenever there was a prison we were kept in it. When there was no prison they would lodge us in a convent. We suffered greatly from want of exercise as well as lack of food."

"Starve and Beat Spaniards."

"For weeks Lieutenant Gilmore was covered with boils and in great pain. When the Filipinos found the Americans were approaching, the treatment became better. There was a sign painter in the party and he painted advertisements on the rocks throughout the retreat, with other emblems, like a skull and the word 'Vengeance,' by means of which the Americans were able to follow."

"The Filipino treatment of the Spaniards," said Lieutenant Gilmore, "was brutal in the extreme. The Spaniards had old grudges to wipe out against them. Many talk about the reconquerados in Cuba, but I have seen Spaniards dying at the rate of two or three per day of starvation in the hospitals at Vigan. I have seen Tagalo officers strike Spaniards in the face with whips and revolvers."

"Lieutenant Gilmore declined to speak regarding political conditions, except to say that he thought the insurrection would last as long as there were any Tagalos."

"The party reported to General Otis this morning. They were bandaged and ragged. Some carried rifles, others pet monkeys. They attracted a great deal of attention as they passed along the streets. Those whose emblems are about expiring will

REPUBLICAN DEMONSTRATION IN PARIS

Large Gathering of the People on the Occasion of the Anniversary of the Revolution.

NEWFOUNDLAND DEADLOCK UNBROKEN

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., Jan. 7.—Information from official quarters indicates that the deadlock between the British and the Newfoundlanders is still unbroken.

TAYLOR WILL NOT GIVE UP

If Goebel Wins Before the Legislature, Kentucky's Governor May Raise Federal Question.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Jan. 7.—Republican leaders, who are on confidential terms with Governor Taylor, intimated tonight that the republican contest may not quit the fight in the event the legislature and the State Contest board vote to seat Goebel as governor and the other democratic contestants.

"The contest will be given up, but they will win in the legislature, but are taking time for the forelock and are looking around for other moves in case Goebel should win."

"It is generally believed they will seek to raise a federal question and take the case to the United States supreme court. One of the questions which could be raised, they say, would be on the ousting of Lieutenant Governor Marshall as presiding officer of the joint assembly in the event of the adoption of the rules as passed by the senate yesterday and also on the prospective wholesale unseating of republican members of the legislature."

"The house will tomorrow take up the information filed in the senate Saturday, charging Whallen and Ryan with attempting to bribe Senator Harrell in the governorship contest, together with the resolution providing for a joint investigation committee. The resolution is practically certain to go through."

Senator Barrett, chairman of the republican joint caucus, has called that caucus to meet tomorrow night to nominate a candidate for senator. Former Governor W. O. Bradley will be the nominee. He will probably be named by the caucus.

Representative Orr, democrat, has prepared a bill, which he will introduce Tuesday, repealing the Goebel election commission law and providing for a bi-partisan commission.

BUILDING TRADES CONVENTION

MILWAUKEE, Jan. 7.—The annual convention of the National Building Trades Union of the United States is being held here today.

"The delegates from the various trades unions are represented in the convention. The general secretary, George H. W. Steinhilber of St. Louis, Mo., is in charge of the convention. The convention will probably be taken to other parts of the country before adjourning."

GOEBEL WILL BE GOVERNOR

CHICAGO, Jan. 7.—Woodson of Kentucky, national democratic committee man from that state and a member of the Chicago committee, who came here today to attend the Jacksonian convention, said he believed in Goebel.

"I am in possession of the governor's office between January 23 and February 1. Senator Blackburn and not Mr. Goebel is the man who should be carrying the contest up to the legislature."

ROLAND REED IS BETTER

NEW YORK, Jan. 7.—Roland Reed, the actor, was reported to be better tonight. His condition, however, is still regarded as critical.

CONDITION OF THE WEATHER

Forecast for Nebraska—Fair; Cooler; Variable Winds.

MURDER UNEARTHED

Mysterious Disappearance at Kearney Turns Out to Be a Killing.

YOUNG MAN SLAYS HIS AGED FATHER

Strikes Him on Head with Pitchfork and Drags the Body Away.

DEED WAS COMMITTED TWO MONTHS AGO

Sheriff is Suspicious and After Search Digs Up the Remains.

HEADLESS TRUNK WITH ONE ARM CUT OFF

Son Confesses His Crime When Confronted with the Facts—Three Persons Have Been Placed Under Arrest.

KEARNEY, Neb., Jan. 7.—(Special Telegram.)—Another tragedy was unearthed tonight when the headless body of C. M. Nelson, a Swedish farmer who lived eight miles northwest of Kearney, was found in a ravine two hundred yards southeast of his barn under a pile of straw and dirt. Besides the head, one arm was also missing.

"Mention was made in The Bee about two months ago of the disappearance of C. M. Nelson. At that time it was generally believed he had left his home to return to Sweden, but things which have since transpired led Sheriff Funk to the belief that he had met with foul play. Saturday the sheriff, accompanied by The Bee correspondent, went out to Nelson's farm and secured the assistance of twenty farmers and began a hunt for the remains. All nearby straw and haystacks were overturned, an old dug well descended and ravines hunted out. Then the hunters gathered around the house and barn to finish the search. In a straw barn attached to an old frame barn and built since the disappearance soft earth was found and the parties at once began to dig, excepting to unearth the body."

"When about two feet below the surface an old hat with a long tuft in the back was turned up together with a large shell-shaped bone. This bone was thought by many to come from some larger animal, but Sheriff Funk stuck it and the hat in his pocket and as it was growing late the search was abandoned for the day and the party returned to town."

"The bone dug up was taken to a doctor, who at once pronounced it as a portion of the human skull. The search was renewed today and the body found, as stated above. Tonight the youngest of Nelson's three children said his brother Theodore, aged 21 years, had done the killing."

MURDERER CONFESSES

"When Theodore was told that his brother had given him away he acknowledged that he had committed the crime. He said that he had hit his father on the head with a pitchfork, his blow killing him. He then tied a rope around his feet, hitched a horse to the body and pulled it over the hill and down into the draw, where it was found. The boy said he knew nothing of the dislocation of the head and arm, but it is thought he knows and does not care to tell. Because of the long cut in the rear of the hat and also that the skull is cut in two in the middle from front to rear and also because the boy says his father was bending over the horse-tank, the belief is general that the crime was committed with an axe and that the boy also cut off the head and arm."

"Nelson was nearly 60 years old and was living with his second wife, who is barely 20. He parted with his first wife a few years ago, they dividing all property, both real and personal. It is said that Nelson was very brutal in his treatment of his sons and the night he disappeared a neighbor saw him knock down his youngest son with a club and then start for the older one. It is probably this trouble which caused Nelson's death."

"The son who did the killing is under arrest, as is also a man by the name of Grant, an uncle of the murdered man's wife, who, it is thought, knows more about the killing than he is willing to tell. Mrs. Nelson is also under arrest. The coroner will hold an inquest over the remains at the city hall tomorrow morning."

THREATENS TO SHOOT A BROTHER

HASTINGS, Neb., Jan. 7.—(Special Telegram.)—A young man named Brooks, who has been employed as a colliery maker for J. H. Haney & Co. in this city, pulled a loaded revolver on William Taylor, better known as "Dixie," the colored bootblack, today and threatened to shoot him. "Dixie" was shining boots in the Klein restaurant, returning to Brooks, said: "Shine, sir!" This enraged Brooks, who pulled a sixshooter and said: "I'm a southern gentleman and don't allow any d—n nigger to speak to me." He held the pistol within two feet of the bootblack's breast and pulled the trigger, but fortunately the cartridge refused to explode. "Dixie" turned almost white and ran to the police headquarters. Chief Martin went to the Lepin hotel, where he found Brooks in his room in company with Frank Lepinski. Brooks was arrested and taken to jail, but the revolver was not found until later, when Lepinski was also put under arrest on the charge of being an accomplice, as it is supposed he hid the weapon and removed the cartridge in order to shield Brooks. Brooks claims to be from Dallas, Tex.

HELD ON SERIOUS CHARGES

STANTON, Neb., Jan. 7.—(Special.)—The county judge upon preliminary examination, bound over to the district court Walter P. Byrum on the charge of adultery and his wife, Lizzie Byrum, on the charge of being a procurer. Byrum is a barber and has resided here about two years, coming from Creston, this state. They have been under suspicion for several months and upon investigation several cases of seducing and debauching young girls in this community have been traced directly to them.

STEAMER WRECKED

TAMPA, Fla., Jan. 7.—A steamer has been wrecked last Wednesday night during a gale on a sandbar near Anna Maria island. A passing steamer rescued the crew.

TEMPERATURE AT OMAHA YESTERDAY

Table with 4 columns: Hour, Temp., Hour, Temp. Rows include 5 a.m., 6 a.m., 7 a.m., 8 a.m., 9 a.m., 10 a.m., 11 a.m., 12 m.

FAITH FAILS TO CURE TWO

Pennsylvania Father Refuses to Give Medicine to Dying Children—He is Now Ill.

REPORTS RECEIVED FROM WATSON

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—The Navy department today received the following cablegrams: "MANILA, Jan. 6.—Secretary of Navy, Washington: Watson, Anderson, Peterson, Edwards, arrived. Also Parley, Burke and Leobach. Watson, Anderson, Peterson, Edwards, Parley, Burke, Leobach, and Watson, are moving towards Perez Das Minas today."

FAITH FAILS TO CURE TWO

Pennsylvania Father Refuses to Give Medicine to Dying Children—He is Now Ill.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Jan. 7.—The Dispatch tomorrow will say: "Diphtheria and Christian Science have had a bitter battle in a New Brighton family for the last two weeks. Diphtheria has won so far. Two children are dead, while a third child and the father are dangerously ill with the same disease. Frank Martzoff and his wife have been believers in Christian Science for three years and so confirmed in the doctrine are they that they have seen their two little ones die of malignant diphtheria and were unwilling to give the child anything but rather than take her case 'out of the hands of the Lord.'"

"Not until forced to do so by the health authorities would the parents permit a physician in the house and even then the father refused to give the medicine prescribed and the health officer was compelled to take the family in charge. When the first child, Nancy, died Martzoff called on an undertaker to bury her. When asked for a certificate of death he said there was none and Coroner Taylor began an investigation. He found the second child, Roy, in the last stages of the disease and ordered Dr. Boyd to treat him. The father refused to give the boy the medicine and he died a few hours later. The health officials are now in charge and may be able to save the third child and the father, both of whom are down with the disease."

"Beaver Valley people are very much worried over the matter and it is likely that Christian