Suit on Unique Grounds. SIOUX FALLS, S. D., Jan. 7 .- (Special.)-W. T. Armstrong of Estelline has instituted if our figures were bettered by some three a damage suit against William Parsons of that place on unique grounds. He claims $5,000 damages for injuries received while assisting in moving a building belonging to Parsons. The building was moved with a team of horses by means of a capetan Charles Boylan had the contract for moving the building and engaged Armstrong to assist him. The capstan broke and the sweep to which the horses were attached flew back and struck Armstrong a severe blow across the hip. He was laid up for some time as a result of the injuries he received and is still lame. Whether or not Parsons was responsible for the accident is the interesting question which will have to be determined by the court when the case is tried. Discharged as Hankrupts.
