Inion Pacific and Nearly Every Other Nebraska Road Charged with Disregarding Order Relative to Carload Rates.

Attorney General Smyth has filed suit in the Douglas county district court against the Union Pacific railroad, wherein it is charged that the defendant company has violated the regulations made by the State Board of Transportation relative to freight tariff on livestock shipments. The suit was filed Wednesday afternoon and it is said to be only the forerunner to other suits of simtlar character, in which nearly every road entering Omaha will be involved. In November, 1887, the State Board of Transportation made an order directing the railroads of Nebraska to restore carload ments here in the way of public improve- rates on shipments of livestock and forments and in the organization of native bidding them to charge rates per 100 pounda Attorney General Smyth says, when the roads abandoned carload rates and restored The two generals have formulated an rates per 100 pounds, thus greatly increasing the cost of shipments of livestock within this state. The board for some time has been collecting evidence to show violation of the order. Evidence showing such violation by the Union Pacific was submitted to Attorney General Smyth by the board and upon this showing that official began suit in the name of the state to recover the statutory penalty, which is not less than $500 nor more than $5,000, for each offense. This suit is for the maximum penalty. Attorney General Smyth is authority for the statement that there is in the hands of the board information which shows that a great many other violations have been committed. This evidence, however, is not quite completed in some particulars. When it is finished and placed before the attorney general supplemental action will follow, it is officially stated, against the Union Pacific and other railroad companies.
