

STATE HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Meeting Awakens Interest in the Work of the Organization.

REPORT OF SECRETARY CALDWELL READ

Association of Nebraska Pioneers Devotes Some Time to Reminiscences—Doings of a Day at the State House.

LINCOLN, Jan. 9.—(Special.)—The meeting of the State Historical Society, which closed here tonight, has served to awaken public interest in the work that is being conducted by that organization.

In conjunction with the Historical Society the Association of Nebraska Pioneers met today and discussed the proposition to consolidate the early history of Nebraska.

The program of the Historical Society tonight consisted of reminiscences of the old overland freighting period.

The report of Secretary H. W. Caldwell was read as follows: "The year which we are now celebrating is the most important any to the Historical Society.

"The society has published since our last meeting very valuable volume, consisting of an account of the lives of the first provisional governor of the unorganized territory of Nebraska.

"During the year an effort has been made to secure the donation to the society of every paper published in the state.

"In this connection I desire to call your attention to the growth of the library of the society. There are now on the shelves 12,800 volumes; 2,077 of these are bound and 8,763 are pamphlets.
