Choynski Says McCoy Was Out in th Second-Opinions of Fight Vary.

NEW YORK, Jan. 13.-The decision Johnny White in awarding the bout at the Broadway Athletic club last night to Mc Coy is quite generally upheld by the morn ing papers here, although two of them say that Choynski was treated unfairly. All the papers argue that the mistake of the timekeeper was deplorable and that in that respect the Californian did not receive his just dues. Timekeeper Dunn refused to direuss the fight. He closed his watch and left the building. But he was seen to protest to the referee at the end of the second round that he was right.
Choynski, in an interview with a World representative, said: "I was robbed of the fight. I knocked McCoy out in the second found with a right swing on the jaw and he was down tweive or lifteen seconds.
Both timekeepers, the club's and my own, agreed on that, and Dunn vang the bell to indicate that the fight was over. It was called a round, but McCoy had one minute and forty seconds to recover.
"In the third round McCoy knocked me down after the bell rang. I am a little deaf, but I heard the bell. McCoy did not.
It knocked me out and I was unable to come up for the next round. I was robbed." McCoy said: "I am sorry there was a misunderstanding about the time. I was not out, although I was pretty weak. I that Choynski was treated unfairly. A misunderstanding about the time. I was not out, although I was pretty weak. I was careless and got a punch on the jaw in the second round that dazed me.

Many of the spectators, when seen around the up-town hotels, late last night, declared that Choynski should have been given more consideration and there were not a few who hinted at "Jobbery." Jones Quits the Ruce Track.

RED OAK, In., Jan. 13.—(Special.)—Two weeks ago Morris J Jones shirped his famous stallion, Pactolus, to David City, Neb., having sold the animal to H. C. Aldrich of that place. Having prior to that time disposed of nearly all his horses this action practically takes Mr. Jones out of the breeding business. He has further than this sold his barns and unless they should be taken by a fair association or private parties will soon fear flown the stalls, amphitheater and buildings within the park lumber.

This maye is not a sudden one on the part. proper and realize the best he can on the part bumber.

This maye is not a sudden one on the part of Mr. Jones, for he said when the park was laid out and the track leads that he would mulatals it five years, after which time he would. In all probability, retire from the business. He has lived up to his agreement and pow feels the interior came to turn his attention to other and more prestable lines. He will consider to make Hed Oak his home, though personally may be absent from the city a large portion of the lime. Regree will be general over the destruction of the park, if that becomes necessary. The powe is retain it ought to succeed, but the indifferent success which has in the past attended county fair organizations here and elsewhere renders the raising of the necessary funds very uncertain. The park aside from its adaptability for race meetings and fairs, has served the city in a great variety of ways. How I age along without it is a most services question.
