

IN THE WORLD OF SPORTS

New History Made in Pugilism by Terry McGovern, the Brooklynite.

WRESTS CHAMPIONSHIP FROM G. O. DIXON

Colored Featherweight Relinquishes a Pugilistic Honor Successfully Defended by Him for More Than Eight Years.

For nearly nine years George Dixon, colored, was proud in the possession of the featherweight championship of the pugilistic world. In 1891 he won the title by knocking out...

McGovern is 19 years old—nearly 20. After leaving the lumber business Terry joined a boxing organization known as the "Gentlemen's Club" of Brooklyn. There he met...

Thomas Sharkey tacitly agrees with his admirers that he has been overrated. He is not a great fighter, but he is a great promoter. He is a man who has made his name...

By so doing he transferred to Terry McGovern the featherweight championship of the world. Both men are now in Chicago. McGovern is a man of great spirit and is a man who has made his name...

Immediately after the battle the two principals gave expression to their views as follows: "It was a great battle—one of the hardest fights that I have had since I entered the ring. I was not equal to the task. I was confident all along that I could defeat the champion, and the result shows that I was correct. The fact that Dixon lost does not mean that he is disgraced. I am the champion now and ready to protect my title against all comers. I will rest for a while, and when I resume boxing I will meet him all—first come, first served. Never in my fight with Dixon did I fear defeat."

I predicted that I would win before ten rounds, and the result shows that I was right. I do not bear a mark of the battle and could fight again tomorrow if necessary. Now that I have won the championship I hope that I will hold it as long as Dixon. I think Dixon was one of the best fighters the world has ever seen, and if I am half as good as the little colored lad I will be satisfied."—Terry McGovern.

"It is all over and McGovern is champion. He defeated me fairly and squarely in the hardest battle of my career and I have no more to say."—George Dixon.

BASE BALL MUSS UNSOLVED

No Headway in National Circuit Last Week—Affairs of Western League Progressing Nicely.

It would take a wizard, indeed, to forecast the outcome of the present national base ball situation. Well informed base ball men are utterly at a loss to put upon any satisfactory and reasonable solution of the problem. Although it is generally believed that the National league circuit will be decreased by four clubs, as has been predicted in these columns from the time the agitation started...

ARRANGING FOR BIG SHOOT

Omaha Sportsmen Make Extensive Preparations for Shooting Carnival January 25, 26 and 27.

Active preparations are now being carried on by Omaha sportsmen for the return shoot in the inter-city contest between Omaha and Kansas City. The event will be Friday and Saturday, January 25 and 26, on the grounds of the Omaha Gun club over the river. Thursday, January 27, will be devoted to an open shoot, at which time the Kansas City representatives will have an opportunity for practice. Interest in the forthcoming shooting carnival is growing each day. Local sportsmen anticipate that it will be a memorable event and they have the greatest confidence in the ability of the Omaha team to carry away the honors, duplicating the splendid record made in Kansas City.

As is generally understood, the leading sportsmen of Kansas City and Omaha desire to have a friendly rivalry between the crack shots of the two cities. It was arranged to hold three semi-occasional, each city to be represented by a team of ten men. The terms of the shoot are as follows: Local sportsmen anticipate that it will be a memorable event and they have the greatest confidence in the ability of the Omaha team to carry away the honors, duplicating the splendid record made in Kansas City.

It is expected that the shoot will attract to Omaha sportsmen from the entire middle West. The first day of the shoot will be a day of practice, and the second day will be a day of competition. The third day will be a day of practice. The shoot will be held at the Omaha Gun club over the river. The terms of the shoot are as follows: Local sportsmen anticipate that it will be a memorable event and they have the greatest confidence in the ability of the Omaha team to carry away the honors, duplicating the splendid record made in Kansas City.

As a finale to the event a banquet will be held at the Millard hotel Saturday night. The banquet will be a day of practice, and the second day will be a day of competition. The third day will be a day of practice. The shoot will be held at the Omaha Gun club over the river. The terms of the shoot are as follows: Local sportsmen anticipate that it will be a memorable event and they have the greatest confidence in the ability of the Omaha team to carry away the honors, duplicating the splendid record made in Kansas City.

While affairs in the big eastern leagues are settling in, the Western league magnates are smiling, waiting for the time when they will be able to get together and decide the circuit problem. It was presumed that this would have been accomplished before this and when the Western league adjourned its first meeting it was with the expectation that it would be settled. The matter is still unsettled, and the league is still in a state of uncertainty. The terms of the shoot are as follows: Local sportsmen anticipate that it will be a memorable event and they have the greatest confidence in the ability of the Omaha team to carry away the honors, duplicating the splendid record made in Kansas City.

Each succeeding week brings fresh encouragement to the local enthusiasts and especially to Manager Buck Keith of the Twin City Base Ball club. Through the efforts of Manager Keith and Secretary Taylor a large number of coupon books, containing tickets for next season's games, have been distributed. The coupon books are now being distributed to the members of the club. The terms of the shoot are as follows: Local sportsmen anticipate that it will be a memorable event and they have the greatest confidence in the ability of the Omaha team to carry away the honors, duplicating the splendid record made in Kansas City.

The basketball team of the Young Men's Christian association is in training for district games soon to be played with outside clubs. The local Y. M. C. A. team will meet the Lincoln team on February 5, and other games are under consideration. Last night the squad from which the prize team will be chosen divided in two sections for practice work. There is considerable rivalry among the applicants for the prize team, and it is expected that the final selection will be a close one. The terms of the shoot are as follows: Local sportsmen anticipate that it will be a memorable event and they have the greatest confidence in the ability of the Omaha team to carry away the honors, duplicating the splendid record made in Kansas City.

After the practice game last night a contest occurred between "No. 4" team, manager of the team, and "No. 5" team, manager of the team. The contest was a close one, and it is expected that the final selection will be a close one. The terms of the shoot are as follows: Local sportsmen anticipate that it will be a memorable event and they have the greatest confidence in the ability of the Omaha team to carry away the honors, duplicating the splendid record made in Kansas City.

A correspondent at Iowa City writes to the sporting editor of The Bee as follows regarding athletic conditions at the University of Iowa: "The University of Iowa is making a fine record in the selection of Nonpareil park. Manager Keith will expend all the funds necessary to put the park in the best condition. He expects to have the field leveled to a ninety and will erect commodious grandstands and bleachers, the former so arranged as to satisfy the wishes of the most particular."

Manager Keith is in constant communication with "Bill" Traffey, who has been engaged to manage the Omaha team, and believes more and more that he has captured a bonanza by securing Traffey's services. Traffey writes that he can procure two or three crack pitchers and any other players which Buck may need, and will bring on all the necessary material from the east by the time active practice begins. Traffey is expected to arrive on the scene of his future conquests within a short time.

Among the men already signed by Manager Keith are the following: Catchers, Billy Traffey and Jack McLaughlin; pitchers, Billy Traffey and Jack McLaughlin; infielders, John Heisman, James Hoy, C. O. Middleton, Eddie Lawler, Sellers, Hopkins, "Speck" Hurlbut, Mel Cooley and Lou Camp.

Manager Manning of the Kansas City team is going to try a considerable number of new men on his team next season. Two of his finds are John Green and William Simmons, who played in Omaha last season as members of the Denver and the Superior teams. Green is a protegee of Charlie Reilly, who saw him play last season with the Denver Athletic club and came to the attention of Reilly. He is an outfielder and a Reilly believer. He is fully up to the league standard, Simmons will be remembered as the crack pitcher who made Buckner's Brewers mere plagues when it came to finding his delivery last summer. Reilly and Thiel from Atchison, also well known here, have been signed by Manning.

NEBRASKA WOMAN A WINNER

Interesting Chess Game in Which Each Contestant Wrongly Supposes the Other a Man.

Early in 1899 a chess controversy occurred through the columns of the Farm, Field and Fireside, following which invitations were issued for correspondence games by T. P. Dale of Manteno, Ill. Among others proposals were received from Mrs. C. Q. De France of Lincoln, Neb., and Mrs. L. R. Youngkins of Natrona, Pa. Both women used nom de plumes and Mr. Dale supposed his proposed opponent was a man. It was impossible, however, for him to satisfy all comers and he accordingly referred the two applicants to each other. Their identity was later disclosed and a pleasant acquaintance ensued. Their game was begun on February 29, and ended on August 14. The score was as follows:
