EMPEROR IS STILL FURIOUS

Regards Seizure of German Vessels Bad Faith on Part of Salisbury.

MADE ON ORDER OF BRITISH ADMIRALTY

German Foreign Office Considers Reported Discoveries of a Quantity of Rifles in Cargo of Handed-rath as Unimportant.

BERLIN, Jan. 15.—Emperor William still takes the deepest interest in the Bunsen incident. The matter was under consideration today and the correspondent of the Associated Press was informed after the conference that the emperor is still furious about the seizure, which he regards as particularly ungracious and unbecoming on the part of Great Britain, inasmuch as he was not to believe during his recent visit that England would hereafter do everything in its power to preserve amicable relations.

In view of all of this his majesty regards the seizure of German vessels as "apparent bad faith on the part of Lord Salisbury."

The German ambassador in London, Count von Hatzfeldt, has informed the German government that the seizure was made on the order of the British admiralty and not on the order of the government. The emperor considers this a more subtle injury.

It is believed in court circles that while the state of Great Britain was under the influence of the imperial cabinet, which will retain a strictly private character, he will drop a word of the above tenor in the proper quarters. The semi-official dementi of the political mission attributed to Freiherr von Selden-Hibran's visit, which the foreign office refused today, is also a reflection on a section of the press, including the Deutsche Tageszeitung and the Staatsbürger Zeitung, the latter remarking that "the times are too critical to think of rogatans."

At the foreign office it is asserted in reply to inquiry that the reported discovery of a quantity of rifles in the cargo of the Handed-rath was unimportant, since it was already known, through the manifest, that there were several cases of hunting rifles on board.

CABINET CRISIS IN SERBIA

Ministry Said to Have Resigned—Granting of Amnesty to Political Prisoners Said to Be Cause.

VIENNA, Jan. 15.—The Neue Freie Presse says the Serbian ministry has resigned, owing to King Alexander insisting on granting amnesty to all the political prisoners convicted of high treason against his father, former King Milan.

In authoritative quarters in Vienna, however, the report of a cabinet crisis in Serbia is denied.

JAPANESE TO TRAIN CHINESE

Military Academy to Be Established at Peking with Mikado's Officers as Tutors.

PEKIN, Jan. 15.—A significant sign of the part Japan hopes to play in the future in China is that the Japanese government has definitely ordered to establish a military academy at Peking to educate Chinese under Japanese officers. It is generally believed that China is favorably disposed towards this proposition.

No Trouble with Indians

OTTAWA, Ont., Jan. 15.—There is no having become current of excitement among the Indians of the north, the home of the Crees, over the Transvaal war on the alleged ground that the grievances of the Beers were similar to those which provoked the war of 1855 in the Canadian northwest. Hon. Clifford Sifton, minister of the interior, ordered an inquiry and the Indian agent at Edmonton reports he has visited five of the reserves and found the Indians were even ignorant of there being a war in South Africa. He also met a reliable man who came from Lesotho State land, who gave a flat contradiction to the report that the Indians were all quiet and contented.

British Steamers in Trouble

LONDON, Jan. 15.—The British steamer Adato, which arrived at Rotterdam yesterday from Sabine Pass and Norfolk, after putting into Portland with the cargo in its second hold on fire and being afterward beached, owing to the severity of the flames, was raised and is being permitted to discharge the cargo from the holds that are sound. The British steamer Enigma, from Tacoma, via Kobe, January 9, for Hong Kong, is ashore off the Japanese coast, with its forward hold full of war. Assistance has been sent from Nagasaki.

Epidemic of Grip at Barcelona

BARCELONA, Jan. 15.—An epidemic of grip has broken out in Barcelona. It is especially increased. Half the population is bedfast and in the stores and work shops only a quarter of the usual number of employes are working.

Livermore Arrives at Stockholm

STOCKHOLM, Jan. 15.—Lieutenant Colonel Livermore, the United States military attaché, and Mrs. Livermore have arrived here.

Vanderbilt's Yacht at St. Michaels

ST. MICHAELS, Azores, Jan. 15.—William K. Vanderbilt's steam yacht Valiant, from New York, has arrived here.

LIGHT ON BARNET'S DEATH

Evidence that Barnett and Mollieux's Wife Lived Together Before Marriage of Mollieux.

NEW YORK, Jan. 15.—With the beginning of the tenth week of the trial of Roland B. Mollieux for the alleged murder of Mrs. Katherine J. Adams, Assistant District Attorney Osborne asserts that the end of the prosecution is in sight. It is reported that the state will rest its case not later than the middle of the week.

The prosecution today introduced testimony to show a motive for the poisoning of Henry C. Barnett by Mollieux. While Mollieux is not charged with the murder of Barnett, it is exceedingly important for the prosecution to connect the prisoner with Barnett's death as showing Mollieux's character, his letter-writing habits, his use of words of menace to kill those he hated. The testimony today reflected seriously on the good name of Mrs. Mollieux, but her husband listened unmoved.

The prosecution called to the stand Rachel Green of Washington, who testified that she had last seen Mollieux at 257 West Second-street, where a Mrs. Bell lived.
