OPEN A STIFF FIGHT

At Daybreak Sunday Morning Boers Renew Battle with V

BRITISH CHARGE, DRIVING THE ENEMY.

Succeed in Taking Three Boer Positions During the Day.

WARREN HOLDS THE KEY TO SITUATION

Scures Rough Tableland West of Spionkop

by Brilliant Charge.

While Warren Was Fighting an Effectual Demonstration Was Proeccding at Potgletersdrift-Boers Suffer Henvy Loss.

SPEARMAN'S CAMP, Jan. 21, 10:20 p. m. After ten hours of continuous and terrible fire yesterday, Generals Hart and Clery advanced 1,000 yards. The Boers maintained an irregular fire during the night, but the British outposts did not reply.

This morning at daybreak the Boers opguns where they had slept and the engagement was renewed vigorously. The field artillery poured shrappel into the enemy's

A rumor that Ladysmith had been relieved enlivened the British, who sent up a ringing cheer. This was taken for an advance. The first kopje was carried at the point of the bayonet and the Boers retreated to the strewn with immense boulders, surmounted by mounds on the summit.

Boers were short of ammunition tions on the mountain and found shelter bebind the boulders.

Warren Holds Key to Boer Position. LONDON, Jan. 22.-The Daily Telegraph has the following dispatch, dated Saturday.

from Spearman's camp; "General Warren's forces have fought a our securing the rough tableland which con-became furious and from 3 in the afternoon until 6 the fire from both cannon and rifles troops, and eventually the Boer right broke and was forced back toward Spionkep.

it captured so gallantly. During the action today the enemy brought into play new guns one of which was a quick-firer. Tomorrow ought to settle the matter. In today's fighting our losses were trifling, but the Boers

"While General Warren was fighting his engagement an effectual demonstration was forces. proceeding at Potgietersdrift, the enemy's sitions near there being vigorously shelled by the British batteries."

Another Account of Fight. The Times has the following, dated Sunday evening, from Speaman's camp: "All yesterday and today General Warposition is a long ridge, four miles northwest of Trichardsdrift, ascending from the river. At dawn yesterday (Saturday) our guns occupied a kopje on the east of the sangars, extending forward and right along tain Cayzer, an expert signal officer, who the spur, making the position semi-circular. has been in communication with Ladysmith At 11 o'clock General Hart's brigade ad- from Weenan, has arrived here and saye vanced on the left, along a rocky, uneven General Buller is now in direct communispur, into the semi-circle, under heavy fire cation with General White by heliograph. from three directions. Taking advantage of Buller will not move from here until Warall possible cover the troops advanced to a ren's movement is complete. point within 500 yards of the enemy's right ving, but they did not advance beyond the Boers in Long Glen, between two lines of vary 3, emplacing during the darkness, so edge of the cover. There they remained un- hills. He was at it all day, slowly driv- as to bear on the enemy's big siege gun. til dark and bivouacked.

"In addition to Maxim-Nordenfeldts the enemy fired shrapnel captured at Colenso. Their fire was intermittent and was always temperarily silenced by our massed batteries. With night the enemy's right wing flousid's cavalry is now reported to hold a emy's slege gun out of position, for it evacuated its position."

Two Reports from Buller.

bles to the War office SPEARMAN'S CAMP, Jan. 21 - 9 p. m. General Warren has been engaged all day, chiefly on his left, which he has swung forward about a couple of miles. ground is very difficult and as the fighting is all the time uphill it is difficult to say exactly how much we have gained, but I think we are making substantial progress. This dispatch from Buller, dated Spearman's Camp, January 21, 6:55 a. m.; 'In order to relieve the pressure on Genetal Warren and to ascertain the strength positions toward Spienkon. They met alight without hurting anyone. of the enemy in the position in front of Potgieter's drift, General Lyttleton made a reconnoissance in force yesterday. This the face of a vigorous artillery bombardkept the enemy in their trenches in full ment, lasting till dark. The naval guns and strength all day. "Our casualties: Third battalion, King's Royal Rifles, two killed, twelve wounded, tion near Ventor's spruit yesterday; Major C. McGregor; Fusileers, Captain R. B. Blunt and Second from the Boers, also an occasional Hotch-Lieutenants M. G. Crofton and E. J. M. Bar- kiss. Otherwise on both occasions the Boers be forgotten. One sees a perfect pande-Vaughan and Second Lieutenant Murier; First York and Lancashires, Second Lieutenant A. H. Keirrey: Second Dublin Fusileers. Captain C. A. Hensley (since dead) and Major F English; Second Gordons, the Boers are seen carrying dead from Second Licotenant P. D. Stewart and 279 non-commissioned officers and men.

trowds at the War Office.

Jan. 22.-12.25 a. m .- Yesterday was lite a record day at the War office. As West India docks, London, December 23, ar anticipating important news the author- rived here today. liles announced on Saturday that the lobbies of the War office would be open Monday.

throughout Sunday and the knowledge that DAVIS IS TO SEE 00M PAUL 12,000 boxes of choice butter for the British as K FOR NATIVE PRIESTHOOD CONDITION OF THE WEATHER TO TRICK POPULISTS ought a continuous stream of inquirers of all classes. the bulletin announcing that nearly 300 had been wounded, but in general a cheery confidence was expressed in the success of General Buller's movement. On it being anguinced that further official dispatches e improbable tonight the crowd dissed, expressing disappointment that the news was no better. Chamberlain will dine at Osborge house with the queen today (Monday) and will return to London tomorrow

Plummer to the Relief. LOURENZO MARQUEZ, Jan. 21.-A dispatch from Gaberones, undated, says: Colonel Plummer has worked down this far toward Mafeking with three armored trains and a relieving force. The bridge is being rebuilt so that be may proceed.

Warren's Advance on Saturday. DURBAN, Jan. 21.—The Natal Advertiser ARMY BYOUNCS ON GROUND CAPTURED has the following from Spearman's camp. McKinley.

inted yesterday. "General Warren's column attacked a lengthy Boer position on the northern ridge riage will convey him to Pretoria. of Spion kop. A heavy bombardment by a field battery preceded the advance. The Boers eventually replied with two guns, several machine guns and rifles. The Britsh responded similarly and long range firing became general, lasting until dark.

a splendid position simultaneously by a Washington, has not some sort of official monstration on their frontal position, drawing a feeble fire from their Nordenand howitzers chelled the trenches with exened a stiff fire. The British stood to the cellent effect and many Boers were observed bolting. The British artillery completely silenced the Boer fire and at nightfall the British infantry occupied an excellent advanced position."

FOLLOW THEIR OLD-TIME TACTICS. Boers Make a Show of Resistance

Then Retreat to Safety. LONDON, Jan. 22, 4:30 a. m .- The justifinext kopje, which, like most others, was able severity of the censorship at the present moment prevents the special correspondents from giving additional information to sup-The British advanced steadily and the plement General Buller's latest dispatch. Boers relaxed slightly. The latter did not. The success of the movement depends almost show such tenacity as previously. Their cutirely upon how far he proves able to out-Nordenfeldt fired at long intervals and their maneuver the Boers, whose available forces Herald from Washington says: It is stated wish. His majesty is said to be 'thoroughly cannon fired but seldom. Apparently the are doubtless larger than his own. The authoritatively that Webster Davis is not in accord with the nation in condemning chief difficulty lies in the ability of the charged with any mission from this gov-All day the roar of musketry fire con- Boers to transport men, stores and ammunitinued. The British took three Boer posi- tion quickly and to entrench new positions. Secrecy regarding General Buller's progress the interior, left the department some therefore is essential and the public here is weeks ago, the outgrowth, it is said, of a quite content to wait patiently to form a correct notion of the British tactics. One thing, however, is quite clear. The gone on an entirely personal trip to South deliberately planned and successful battle. British commanders have profited by experi- Africa. This important engagement occurred to the ence and are now avoiding infantry charges. wast of Spionkop, and practically resulted in giving preference to the more judicious use of artillery.

dently entailed serious losses.

The Boern are following their old-time was extremely heavy. Point after point of the tactics-making a show of resistance and making its way through Zululand to the like vermin. They felt and knew that the enemy's positions were seized by the British then retreating in good order to prepared castern Transvaal. Our force under Builer commander had compelled their old general positions, and as they are working from the is on the left. iterior of their lines, they may be able Our force is bivouncking upon the ground to bring strong forces to defend the main raises some doubt as to whether he can use an advanced base at Resemend junction.

Nothing is heard regarding any counter attack by Sir George White from Ladysmith and General Buller's words, "I think we Clydesdale postoffice, on the road to Lady- he had been shot.

BRITISH GAIN LITTLE GROUND ren has been attacking the Boers. Their, Fighting Continues All Day Sunday-Harland's Brigade Drives

(Copyright, 1900, by Press Publishing Co.) POTGIETERSDRIFT, Jan. 21 .- (New York information. The enemy's defenses were chiefly stone World Cablegram-Special Telegram.)-Cap-

On Sunday Harland's brigade fought the ing the enemy from point to point. When dusk fell they were in a valley, but could next afternoon, when, after the enemy had LONDON. Jan. 21.—General Buller ca- Tintwa pass and other lines of travel to The next day they moved back their guns Free State.

GEN. CLERY IS STILL ADVANCING. Moves Near the Main Entrenchments of the Enemy. (Copyright, 1909, by Press Publishing Co.) SPEARMAN'S CAMP, Jan. 21 .- 7 a. m .-(New York World Cablegram-Special Telegram.) This was an eventful day in artillery fire. A portion of Warren's column under Clery, with a strong force of field artillery, at daybreak took further advanced opposition; the enemy retiring to higher howkzers strongly bombarded the Boer

Part of Lyttleton's brigade, during the The war office has posted this dispatch forenoon, advanced for kopies, extending raised by the conviction that General Bulfrom General Buller, dated January 21, 10 the right and left flanks, taking close cover, her now has a thorough grasp of the situathe Boers replying with rifle fire. Later the remainder of the brigade, supported transport difficulties are being experienced by the Sixty-first field battery, also ad- The rivers are often flooded and what were Officers Staff Colonel B. Hamilton and vanced, the latter opening fire from the a short time ago trickling streams are now Lancashire trenches on the right. Heavy rifle fire again

First Border Rifles, Captain C. D. resolutely declined to respond to artiflery. At dusk a heavy mist and thunderstorm close to the Boer trenches.

As a result of yesterday's bombardment brandish their long whips and occesionally CHURCHILL.

Hospital Ship Maine at Capetown. CAPETOWN, Saturday. American hospital ship Maine, from the Lord Roberts will inspect the Maine on

Some gloomy forebodings were caused by United States' Assistant Secretary of the Interior Welcomed to Petoria.

CAUSES EUROPEAN PAPERS TO GOSSIP

it is Believed That He Has Some Offi cial Mission to Perform-Kruger Sends Private Car for His Use.

LOURENZO MARQUEZ, Jan. 21.-Webtary of the interior, arrived here today on lowing order: his way to Pretoria and called upon the governor general. Captain Alvara da Cocta Forreira, who gave him a most courteous reception and requested him to convey a message of special friendship to President McKinley.

The Transvaal government has informed

The Transvaal government has informed

"General Hildyard drew the Boers from Davis, notwithstanding the denial from

It is thought rather singular that a simple feldis and rifles. The British naval guns traveler, even though an official at home, should receive so much attention. The subject is attracting the continental papers. which are inquiring through their London representatives whether the British government has information with regard to the object of Mr. Davis. They are reluctant to Emperor is Thoroughly in Accord believe that one of President McKinley's assistant secretaries would take a vacation in the Transvaal and be given leave of absence from his duties for several months without some special purpose.

A recent dispatch from Washington terpreted.

erument to the Transvaal. Mr. Davis, who vessels. holds the office of assistant secretary of centroversy with Secretary Hitchcock and From the information which the censor Pension Commissioner Evans, and will has allowed to pass it is as yet impossible probably not return. He has obtained three months' leave of absence and has

EXPERT OPINION ON BATTLE The general idea is that Sir Redvers View Buller's Latest Report with Sat-

"Buller's dispatch of 9 p. m. last night self. are making substantial progress," remains smith, is nine miles, and the first five miles the last. This shows that there is still from Ventersspruit show a rise of 650 feet. that one or two more Methuens and South infantry were hurried from Hollo to re- Louis, will help him by suggestions. Mr. some very hard work in front of the British From that point on to Clydesdale there is Africa is lost to England forever." a fall of as much, therefore we take it War-The news from other points is of slight ren has not got to the summit level of this PROTECT PRISONERS BY THREATS. interest. General Kelly-Kenny's division part of the road and until he does there has been sent by General Gatacre to form must be a doubt about the result, though Both Sides in South African War Are the ground on both sides of the road undoubtedly favors him, as he pushes forward in small parties. Opportunities for the loers to break in along the great length of Buller's line are few, owing to the nature of the ground." The Post expert takes practically the whole is encouraging, but complains of scant

MOVE GUNS BACK FROM MAFEKING.

Another Story of How the Boers Can Not Shoot Straight. MAFEKING, Jan. 6 .- (By runner to Moelendi, January 14, via Lourenzo Marquez, January 21.)-We concentrated our artiflery, ensisting of a seven-pounder, a Norden feldt and one little old ship's gun, on Jan We carefully concealed the guns until the not force the Boers off the last eminence fired a couple of shells, we let loose all our before them, and the British retired to the pieces, firing and loading as fast as possible. last kopje they had taken to bivouac. Dun- One of our shots must have thrown the enposition at the extreme left that commands ceased firing. With glasses we could see the roads to Drakensburg mountains, the Boers rapidly reinforcing that point. 700 yards. They emplaced a five-pounder and proceeded to drop shells regularly into Market square. We have made up our minds to stick it out and have food for another

> women's laager. MAFEKING, Jan. 10.—(Via Gaberones and arrived here yesterday, left today for scended. Lourenzo Marquez, January 21.)-The enemy | Paris. continued the bombardment with field guns and an occasional 100-pound shell.

three months. The whole garrison is en-

MEETING TRANSPORT DIFFICULTIES.

hind and Benends on Oxen. LONDON, Jan. 22 .- A dispatch to the day, January 19, says:

"The spirits of the troops are greatly tion. As the force has left the railway deep torrents.

"The scenes at the drift cannot easily monlum of ox wagons. Sometimes thirty exen are yoked to a single wagen and the an upset steps a whole train.

"At another point, or time, half a regi ment will drag a cart and its mules up the river bank by main force. The traction engines looked promising at firz, but since Chieveley I have seen nothing of them."

Sutter for British Troops LONDON, Jan. 21 - A committee of Danish | republic here, arrived in the city today from farmers has sent to the princess of Wales | New York.

he gift in the name of the sick and wounded and has returned a complimentary message which concludes with the phrase;

Especially as it is a present from my native country, Denmark,"

BOBS' FORBIDS PLUNDERING Rights of Noncombatants, Regardless of Race or Sympathies, to Be Respected.

CAPETOWN, Saturday, Jan. 20 .- Lord Roberts, purposing not to alienate the Cape Dutch and to see that the military respect the rights of noncombatants, regardless of race or sympathies, has issued, through ster Davis, United States assistant secre- Lord Kitchener, his chief or staff, the fot-

The commander-in-chief wishes to Im-

The Transvali government has informed Davis that President Kruger's saloon carriage will convey him to Preteria.

LONDON, Jan. 21.—The publication of the fact that President Kruger is sending a private car to take Webster Davis from Lourenzo Marquez to Pretoria is causing considerable speculation here as to whether Davis, notwithstanding the denial from Washington, has not some sort of official mission.

It is thought rather singular that a simple in the control of the subsistence of the army and the inhabitants are unwilling to meet such demands commanding officers may, after having the troops.

In all cases where supplies of any kind are required these must be baid for on delivery and a receipt for the amount taken. Officers will be held responsible for the observance of the rule that soliders are never allowed to enter private houses or to molest the inhabitants on any pretext whatever and every precaution must be bery by persons connected with the army. When supplies are absolutely necessary for the subsistence of the army and the inhabitants are unwilling to meet such demands commanding officers may, after having the roops.

BUELOW SPOKE KAISER'S WISH

with the Condemnation of Great Britain's Methods.

BERLIN, Jan. 21 .- There is the best authority for the statement that those parts of Count von Buelow's speech in the rising. pointed out that Mr. Davis had given up his Reichstag last Friday, when replying to proposed visit to the Transvaal owing to Herr Moeller's interpellation, which conthe possibility that it might be misin- tained severe strictures upon the British policy and a veiled warning to England, NEW YORK, Jan. 21 .- A special to the were due to Emperor William's expressed Great Britain's manner of seizing German

LEYDS TO START ON A MISSION

Transvani Representative Will Visit sible Mediation.

(Copyright, 1900, by Press Publishing Co.) BRUSSELS, Jan. 21 .- (New York World Cablegram-Special Telegram.)-Dr. Leyds starte tomorrow on an important mission at Berlin and Paris, which is expected to occupy a fortnight. There has been great Sunday's fighting, which can hardly be de- attack of the Boers, who are said to have "No doubt about it, there was a wild "Soon after midday the battle on the hill scribed as more than outpost affairs, evi- burned the little town, but this counter spirit of mutiny among the men. They attack did not develop to the extent we were mad at their comrades and their fine feared it might. A mounted column is now old general, Wauchope, being shot down to do what he would not have done him-

"Never before has a British general run his guns on or about Acton Homes on the so great a risk of being shot by his own road, for he says the fighting is all the time men and officers were in the greatest dread power the Americans. The plot failed It is understood that able writers are to uphill. From Acton Homes postoffice to that news would come at any moment that

"Among all the regiments here it is said

LONDON, Jan, 22.- The correspondent the Times at Lourenzo Marquez, telegraphing Saturday, says: "I learn from an absolutely unbiased and trustworthy informant that the Boers in Natal are disheartened. I also learn that the Britisl same view and thinks the situation on the residents in the two republics would suffer severely at the hands of the Dutch dld not the latter fear the result for the Boers in the hands of the British.

"The Standard and Diggers' News threat ens retallation on the British officers in Pretoria if the Boer prisoners are removed to St. Helena.

"I hear that the Transvanl government

WOUNDED KILLED BY ENGLISH.

Johannesburg mines."

Information to that Effect. killed by the English soldiers. He says a causing them to forget every sensation of and that the danger of further bloodshed the fight will be on in earnest. J. H. Edfriend of his own was thus killed by an hunger and fatigue and to remember only may be safely passed. English Lancer. Dr. Leyds also complains they are defenders of the flag. When we bitterly that English authorities keep most left Angeles in October, General Wheeler A. J. VANLANDINGHAM DIES of his letters and newspapers, but admits gave imperative command that no soldier that he receives letters by an indirect should start upon this march burdened with Commissioner of the St. Louis Traffic

Macrum Going to Paris. raged at the enemy for firing upon the ROME, Jan. 21 .- Charles E. Macrum, for-

They Post, who accompanied Macrum, said, in rest of the world. We have met with but have again fired at the women's langer, but the course of an interview at Naples, that little resistance and no loss of lives. In a trip to Washington, where he caught a the Boers know they must ultimately be fact, natives seem more inclined to welcome severe cold. Mr. Vanlandingham had been defeated, but are determined to resist to us as benefactors. the last. He praises the Boer tactics and expresses admiration for the bravery of Wade Succeeds General Anderson, th armies. The Afrikanders are regarded by Easton as a "permanent danger to the Wade of the Department of Dakota took tion. He was well known to railroad men ferred for at least a few days. Daily News from Potgletersdrift, dated Fri- British." He asserts that, prior to the war, temporary charge of the Department of the all over the country. the Transvaal government inquired what Lakes at noon today. He came direct from quantity of cartridges was allowed to the St. Paul and went to the department head-and then ordered double the quantity. English Stretcher Bearers Desert. LONDON, Jan. 21 .- (New York World Caegram-Special Telegram.)-The Standard prrespondent at Durban, under date of Jan-шту 19, ваув: 'It is reported here that ten of the volfront deliberately walked across into the interrupted, while the British are apparently drivers make a veritable babel of noise. Boer lines. The same thing happened at shouting in Duich, English and Zulu. They the battle of Coleman and it is to be presumed that several sples succeeded in enrolling themselves in the ambulance corps."

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—Montague White, ormerly consul of the Transvaal republic London, and who it is understood is in is country to endeavor to obtain recogniion as the diplomatic representative of the

Forecast for Nebraska-

Hone. Deg. 5 n. m..... 33 6 n. m..... 32

7 n. m..... 32 8 n. m..... 31 9 n. m.... 32

10 n. m..... 31 11 n. m.... 37

Fair and Continued Warm; Variable Winds

Temperature at Omaha Festerday:

WHAT HATH GOD WROUGHT

Annie Ellsworth Smith, Who Sent the

First Telegraphle Message.

Dies in New York.

was Mrs. Smith who, on May 24, 1844, when sent in triplicate in the dot and dash al-

Sheldon has not yet given any intimation of

Apart Tuesday to Awaken the Public Conscience.

shall be set apart in this city as a day

Catholic, all the churches in Frankfort. The this morning that the deplorable events of

Bureau Succumbs to Heart

Disease.

ST. LOUIS. Jan. 21.-A. J. Vanlandingcommissioner of the St. Louis traffic bu-

Troops at a Texas Murder Trial.

AUSTIN Tex. Jan. 21.—An additional company of Hangers was loday ordered to Bastron to remain there during the trial of the men charged with the murde of Arthur Burford, the son of Sheriff Burford of Colorado county, who was killed

Rich Man Murdered and Robbed.

The

different times during the day.

NEW YORK, Jan. 21,-Mrs. Annie Elle-

3 p. m.

5 p. m

Filipinos Ask Mgr. Chapelle to Drive Friars Out of Island.

SPANISH PAPER CAUSES A SENSATION

11 n. m. 37 12 m. 41 Received in Manila Containing Statement President McKinley Has Ordered Mgr. Chapette to Support the Dominteans.

(Copyright, 1900, by Press Publishing Co.) MANILA, Jan. 21 .- (New York World Cablegram-Special Telegram.)-Mgr. Chapelle, the papal delegate to the Philippines, is receiving many petitions from the natives. who, while declaring their allegiance to the worth Smith, widow of Roswell Smith Catholic church and their enmity to Prot- founder of the Century company, died at estantism, ask for a native priesthood and her home here today, aged 73 years. It HE WAITS FOR DIMOCRATS TO MOVE the expulsion of the friars.

A Spanish paper received here last week she was a girl of 17, sent the famous first contained the statement that Mgr. Chapelle telegraphic message, would support the Dominicans; that Noza- wrought?" from the United States supreme leds would be retained as archbishop and court room, Washington, to Baltimore, that the friars would be returned to their Her father, Henry L. Ellsworth, a sor parishes and supported by the United of Chlef Justice Oliver Elisworth, was the States government in the exercise of the first commissioner of patents and has been powers they held under Spain. All this, called "the father of the patent office." He the Spanish paper declared, had been or- had been a college friend of Prof. S. F. B. dered by President McKinley.

sation, not only among the natives, but 000 for the construction of a trial line being satisfied themselves by careful per-sonal investigation that such supplies are necessary and available, order these in such cases to be taken by force, full re-ceipt therefor being given. among the American troops. When asked tween Washington and Baltimore. Morse esting correspondence has come to light, about the matter by myself Mgr. Chapelle had been seeking the help of congress since showing that it was a well set preliminary said:

> In listening and learning and will an- was passed. It was Annie Ellsworth who character of letters sent out is seen in the sounce my intentions and decisions later. I carried the news of the passage of the bill following: am convinced, however, that if we were to Prof. Morse the next morning and he train from three sides. The Americans, in addition to their cas- tinued as president of the Century comualties, were compelled to abandon the pany until his death in 1892. train, which consisted of twenty-two horses The latter, with their packs, all fell into WILL EDIT AS CHRIST WOULD the hands of the insurgents, who pursued so much ceremony last November.

Eleven of these officials, including the educational institutions would give $1,000,000 president and several councillors, were for the creation of a great Christian daily?" ouged in jail on charges of plotting treason. The philanthropic gentleman has not ap-Several secured their release under heavy peared with the money but, in response to bonds, but others remain in prison. General the appeals of the leading citizens of Tofound evidence that the revolting peka, Sheldon's home town, Dell Keyser, police were following the orders of the president of the Topeka Capital company, autonomous government, which designed to offered to give the paper to Mr. Sheldon for use the forces under its control to over- one week, and the offer has been accepted. through being started prematurely, but assist Mr. Sheldon and that statesmen, Negros was in a state of uneasiness for a prominent divines and editors of some of week. Two companies of the Twenty-sixth the dailies of New York, Chicago and St.

inforce the garrison at Bacolor. The officials arrested include some of the his plans. most prominent men in Negros. It is believed that they will be expelled from the FRANKFORT'S DAY OF PRAYER

SOLDIER LAUDS JOE WHEELER Tells How He Lends Through Jungle Sometimes Exchanging Places with Privates.

MUNCIE, Ind., Jan. 21-B. F. Whaley. volunteer soldier, writes from Paniqui, Province of Tarlac, Luzon, Philippine Islands, making the following reference to General Joseph Wheeler:

"How could a single man in our ranks, be he veteran or "rooky," make even a wry face at the trials of war when the inspiring sight of that venerable "cotton headel" still making huge profits out of the southern war horse and hero of El Caney and San Juan, General Joseph Wheeler, is at the front of our column, leading the way talk of the possible repetition of such affairs as the Colson-Scott tragedy, which is dense jungles of this island, and now and at times indulged in by indiscreet political then dismounting from his horse and bid- partisans, had rendered necessary some the hostile factions of the fusion party this right, 1900, by Press Publishing Co.) ding some exhausted soldier to get into the steps to awaken the public conscience to the week. The supreme court will meet Tues-BRUSSELS, Jan. 21.-(New York World saddle, while he, taking the gun of the dangers threatening the commonweal Pray-Cablegram-Special Telegram.)-Dr. Leyds private and slinging it over his shoulder, ers will be offered at all three services, askin an interview here declared that he knew marches along with us, chatting with the ling that men of both parties may be to the clerkship. The various candidates positively that wounded Boers have been men about him in a gleeful, familiar way, guided to act with wisdom and moderation will be on hand tomerrow and by evening an ounce of unnecessary incumbrance. sequently we are at present the raggedest, dirtiest, nakedest, most dilapidated and weatherbeaten set of papa's lads upon which r United States consul at Pretoria, who the sunshine and rains of Luzon ever de-

"Since starting on this southern campaign tor, boulevard at 8:30 o'clock tonight of

CHICAGO, Jan. 21.-General James F. German troops in the Franco-Prussian war quarters in the Pullman building, where General Anderson was awaiting his arrival. General Anderson, after receiving parting handshakes and best wishes from his subordinates, left the building. General Wade, after assuming charge of the department, said:

"I probably shall stay here a day or two and will then return to St. Paul. This is only a temporary appointment and I have no reason to think it will be made permanent. The department properly belongs to General ford of Colorado county, who was killed a few days ago by members of the Resco day and subpechas have been issued for 1,200 witnesses. The Rangers will disarm every man as he enters the town. The government has ordered that every possible measure be taken to prevent further blood-shed. Jim Coleman, T. B. Daniels, J. W. and L. W. Reece were indicted for the murder of Burford. The department properly belongs to General Brooke, and I cannot tell when he will be ordered back here. Meantime I shall be ordered back here. Meantime I shall be obliged to divide my time between the two departments."

Street Car Strike at Troy.

ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 21—All the street cars in Troy were tied up today as a result of the strike of 265 motormen and conductors of the United Traction company. The men demand 20 cents an hour and ten-hour day. The company operates lines in five cities, including Albany, but the other men refused to touch a car.

Rich Man Murdered and Robbed.

BRIDGEPORT, N. J., Jan. 21—The bady of George P. Eyre, the rich young man of Chester, Pa, who went on a shaoting expedition in a skiff on the Delaware river. December 21, and never returned, was found boating in the river today. He had been murdered and robbed. There was a gundled was crushed in. The feet were tied together with a stout cotton rope. He sides being wounded and tied about the ankles the rope had a large loop in it, as if it had been tied to a good-sized stone.

Edmisten Tries to Capture National Organization for Bryan.

GIVEN SEVERE REBUKE BY DR. ESKEW

Missourian Refuses to Attend Meeting of National Committeemen at Lincoln.

NOT WILLING TO BETRAY POPULISTS

Butler Receives Petitions Asking Him to Call Committee Meeting.

Middle-of-the-Ronders Are Said to Be in the Majority-Pryanites Ev> idently Afenid to Risk n Meeting.

LINCOLN, Jan. 21 .- (Special.) - In connection with the recent meeting of mem-Morse. Together they had endeavored to bers of the populist national committee as This statement caused a tremendous sen- induce congress to pass a bill granting $30.- invited participants in the meeting of the populist state committee here, some inter-1838, but it was not until the last five min- step toward capturing the populist national "The statement is absurd. I am engaged utes of the session of 1843-44 that the bill organization for Bryan and fusion.

am convinced, however, that if we were to Prof. Morse the next morning and he to leave the islands they would fall into a state of anarchy."

General Bates will soon return to the Sulu islands, as General Otis fears that his prolonged absence might cause an uptrice.

What hath God wrought?" and they were observed to Prof. Morse the next morning and he assured her that she should send the first message.

At her mother's suggestion Miss Ellsworth young the mother's proposed absence might cause an uptrice. "What hath God wrought?" and they were observed to attend. You are hereby respected to the proposed and the first message. quested to be present and participate in the deliberations, much of which will be phabet from Washington to Baltimore, The devoted to national politics, mapping out

ABANDON THE PACK TRAIN

Twenty-Two Horses, with Their

Packs, Fall Into the Hands of Insurgents.

MANILA, Jan. 21.—10 p. m.—The escort of fifty men of Company C, Thirtieth infantry, Lieutenant Ralston commanding, which was ambushed near Lipa, as already cabled, consisted of fifty convalescents from the hospital who were going to rejoin the regiment. The insurgents hid in the bushes along the road and opened fire upon the pack train from three sides.

phabet from Washington to Baltimore. The devoted to mational politics, mapping out our future action.

As a member of the national committee of Nebraska, I take great pleasure in extending this invitation to you and believe we can better be prepared when we meet to New York, where Roswell Smith, in connection with the late Dr. J. G. Holland and the house of Charles Scribner & Confounded Scribner's Monthly, the name of which was changed to the Century Magazine, published by the Century company in 1881. Roswell Smith, who was the publisher of the magazine from the start, constituted to take part in the meetings of our future action.

As a member of the national committee of Nebraska, I take great pleasure in extending this invitation to you and believe we can better be prepared when we meet to New York, where Roswell Smith, in connection will be here at that time and would be nection.

As a member of the national committee of Nebraska, I take great pleasure in extending this invitation to you and believe we can better be prepared when we meet at the call of the lisher of the magazine from the start, conour committee or convention. will attend this meeting, where these mat-ters will be considered.

J. H. EDMISTEN.

Did Not Know His Man. Mr. Edmisten evidently did not know his man, for following is Dr. Eskew's reply: our securing the rough tableland which constitutes the key of the Boer position.

"After a fisree cannonade had been directed against the enemy's lines for some time, the British troops assembled near an teninence known as Three Tree hill, while forms the center of a semicircle of crests, being from the first his factory werk forms the face of a heavy fusilidade from Maurer rifles, our troops were disposed as follows:

"Major General Woodgate's brigade on the feet, "Major General Woodgate's brigade on the left."

"Major G

Well, I think so myself, and I want you o see to it that no populists are perto see to it that no populists are per-mitted in your meeting, for they have no business there. Many free countries have lost their tib

Many free countries have lost their liberty by and through corruption, and ours may lose hers, for at this time the political corruption is sweeping over the land, and on its bosom are riding, like demons on the waters of hell, the imps of the evil spirit, fiendishly terturing and termenting all those who dare resist its destroying course. Very truly yours,

DEWITT ESKEW,
Member People's Party National Committee.

Butler Holds for Democratic Orders. It is understood that sixty-nine members of the national committee, being a good majority, have signed, asking Chairman Butler to call the committee to meet at Chicago February 12. These petitions have been presented by Joe Parker of Kentucky with a demand that they be complied with Hergymen of All Denominations Set but Senator Butler seems to be holding off until the pleasure of the democrats can be ascertained because they mean that the middle-of-the-roaders control the com-FRANKFORT, Ky., Jan. 21.—Clergymen of mittee, the fusioniets having favored the Frankfort have decided that next Tuesday meeting to be held in Lincoln. Populists here are quite wrought up over of humiliation and prayer. Services will it, fearing some new jugglery by the chairbe held in the Episcopal church at three man to frustrate the will of the committee majority and repudiate the Omaha agreechurches uniting in observance of the day ment, which guaranteed a populist conveninclude the Episcopal, Baptist, Methodist, tion thirty days ahead of those of the old we Presbyterian, Christian and Roman parties.

clergymen announced from their pulpits FUSIONISTS FIGHTING OVER SPOILS the last week in Frankfort and the continued Lincoln Again the Battleground for Hostile Officescekers.

LINCOLN, Jan. 21.- (Special Telegram.)-Lincoln will again be the battleground for day and the impression prevails that something will be done by the judges relative misten returned from Dawson county a few days ago and is devoting his entire time to his candidacy.

Lee Herdman, who just now seems to be the leading democratic candidate, also spent considerable time in Lincoln last week and is expected again tomorrow morning.

Harry S. Duncan of Hastings and W. S. Shoemaker of Omaha, who also aspire to ham, commissioner of the St. Louis traffic the position, will be here tomorrow. Sevbureau, died at his residence on Washingeral politicians interested in the outcome Correspondent Easton of the Washington we have been completely cut off from the pneumonia. He had been in bad health of the fight arrived tonight and will remain for two weeks, ever since his return from in the city until after court adjourns. D. E. Thompson has offered to donate a large lot at Fourteenth and M streets for the Carnegie library building. It is not as read for several years, coming here from desirable a location as the board would Kansas City, where he held a similar posi- like to have and its acceptance will be de-

G. A. R. INSTALLATION AT LEXINGTON Reno Post and Relief Corps Hold &

Joint Meeting LEXINGTON, Neb., Jan. 21.-(Special.)-Saturday night Reno post No. 112, Grand Army of the Republic, and Reno Relief orps No. 91 held a joint installation of officers at Grand Army of the Republic hall of this city, which was a very enjoyable occasion. Past President Mrs. Esther Krier was installing officer for the Relief corps and Past Commander H. A. Turton acted in that capacity for the post, assisted by Past Commander I. P. Griswold as officer the day. Mrs. J. S. Thomas filled the by Post Commander G. H. Blakeslee and Comrades Turton, Zimmerer and Kring, after which all present partook of an elegent repast furnished by the ladies of the position of conductor for the corps.

After the ceremonies speeches were made

The following is a list of the officers installed:

Blakeslee; senior vice commander, Joseph