LONDON, Jan. 25.—(New York World Cablegram—Special Telegram.)—London was left all day in a state of anxiety over Buller's announcement that he would try to rush Spionkop Tuesday night and not a word of a news of any kind came through.

Lord Lansdowne, Wolseley, Wyndham, under secretary for war, and Churchill were all at the War office early in the day and all called or sent for information in the evening. As the hour of night wore on the gloom deepened; crowds in the corridors of the War office and about the tickers in the military clubs grimly waited until 2 or 3 o'clock this morning, but still no news came. No one could be found who thought that no news was good news.

Putting the best face possible upon the situation, the jingoes declared that it could only mean that for some reason an attempt to retake the position had not been made.

Trade This Week.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—General Otis reported to the War department today that the western coast of the island of Panay is now open for trade and that the coast of Laguna de Bay and the neighboring sections of the island will also be opened to unrestricted trade by the end of the week. He also reports several minor engagements with the Philippines in which the American arms met with the usual success. The enemy lost heavily and a large amount of arms and ammunition was captured. General Otis' telegram is as follows:

"MANILA, Jan. 24.—MacArthur, 20th to 2d, reports four minor engagements in which five insurgents were killed, several wounded and captured; also captured five rifles and other property, no casualties.

Major Bishop, Thirty-sixth infantry, in north Sabah, with detachment of sixty men, attacked two insurgent companies, killed nine, wounded and captured four, secured twenty-two rifles, several thousand

WAINRIGHT GIVEN A SWORD

Presented to the Gallant Commander of the Gloucester by Friends at Washington.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—Commander

Richard Wainright, who was in charge of the gallant Gloucester (the yacht Corsair converted into a cruiser), at the battle of Santiago, was presented a sword of honor and a silver service by a committee representing the citizens of the District of Columbia at the Columbia theater this afternoon. The theater was filled with a fashionable audience of official and resident society and the presentation was made under the shadow of the stars and stripes twined with the pennant that flew from the masthead of the Gloucester on the day of the battle.

President McKinley and Secretaries Hay and Gage and General and Mrs. Miles occupied boxes. Secretary Long and Admiral Dewey had seats on the stage with Commander Wainright. Immediately behind them were the officers of the Gloucester in full uniform.

President McKinley was warmly received as he came into the house, and Admiral Dewey was given an ovation as, escorted by the committee, he accompanied Secretary Long and Commander Wainright to the

Lance of Iowa Argues in Behalf

Roberts Without Swearing

Them In.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—The second day's debate in the house upon the Roberts case was less dramatic than that of Tuesday.

The galleries were almost as crowded, but the speaker were less demonstrative. The president's pastor, Rev. Dr. Bristol, was in the executive gallery the greater portion of the afternoon, listening to the arguments. Roberts was not present during the day. He had been heard the most recently on the floor of the house ever delivered upon the floor of the house.

Landis of Indiana, the young orator who distinguished himself during the last congress in an oratorical duel with Johnson of the west, won new laurels. He charged that the present case was a pattern for the result of our common sense. I protest on behalf of the American mother and her child and the American father, who will never consent to the entombment and delicateation of human passion. I protest on behalf of those doomed to illegitimacy. I

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—(Special Telea few days, issue a call for the national committee of that party to meet in Lincoln, Nebr., some time next month to decide upon a place for the meeting of the national con-vote for governor cast in 1898."

There may be no significance attached to the selection of Lincoln as the meeting place for the national executive committee, but
