F. M. Cunningham. The Knowles opened a six-nights' engage-ment at the Dohany theater last evening to a large-sized and well-pleased audience. As hypnotists both Prof. and Mrs. Knowles are high up in the profession. The performance was the best of its kind, possibly, ever seen in this city. The entertainment, while amusing, is at the same time instructive and affords a splendid opportunity of studying the methods employed in producing effects upon subjects. Mrs. Knowles, who also takes a prominent part in the entertain-ment, is conceded to be the best woman hypnotist in the country. Charles Langdon will have a hearing be-

Plenty of Trouble for Wilson. H. Greer, agent of the Milwaukes railway at this point, filed an information in Justice Vien's court yesterday charging Charles Wilson with the crime of forgery. Wilson is the man who is alleged to have signed on a Milwaukee pay roll the name of Mahnus Iverson and drawn the latter's heck, which he subsequently cashed at the First National bank of this city. Wilson, who completed a sentence in the city jail yesterday morning for drunkenness, was taken before Vien, where he admitted his guilt and gave as an excuse that he was under the influence of drink at the time he committed the forgery. His hearing has been set for this afternoon. The Rock Island railway also has a complaint against Wilson. It is charged that about ten days ago he broke into the company's toolhouse and stole a number of Green being seriously ill. shovels and other goods.
