Entertainment. PRE-LENTEN SEASON MARKED WITH GAYETY

All Manner of Festive Events Crowded Into Period Before Dame Fashion Enrobes Herself in Sackcloth.

Social Calendar.

MONDAY, February 12 -Bon Ton Card club, Mrs. Robison. Club, Mrs. Robison.
Luncheon, compilmentary to Miss Par-rotte and bridal party, Mrs. D. V.

Southwest Dancing club, Morand's assembly, deen club, Mrs. Edward Porter Peck.

Goodrich-Parrotte nuptials, Ali Saints' church.

a dance at the annual Cards, Mrs. Huntley.
Reception, Mrs. Fred Sackett, Mrs.
George Eddy, Mrs. Charles Sherman. FRIDAY, February is.—Reception in honor of silver anniversary, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Rehfeld.

Mrs. Barrett and Mrs. Royce, a dancing Miss Millard, Miss Kirkendall; box "L," Miss Millard, Miss Kirkendall; box "L," party at Morand's for their sons SATURDAY, February 17.—A. M. A. Card McCord; box "M." Mrs. Burgess, Mrs. Dr. Club, Mr. and Mrs. Rosenzweig.

Dinner, dances, Mr. and Mrs. Edward "N." Mrs. Charles Kountze, Mrs. McCorm-The Nash theater party of Tuesday even- lyn.

so scintillated with sparkling brilliancy that all other events turned a sickly hue in undoubtedly the "preferred set" will have and hracinths. another star to hitch their wagon to. The last of the pre-Lenten scason will be spent lace embroidered in sequins over white silk. in a dizzy whirl of dances, card parties, luncheons and dinners.

There is a good story affoat which proves silk with rose pleatings of lisse. the old adage that the way to a man's heart is through his stomach. Recently a young man has come to Omaha whose Gibsonesque appearance and devoted airs have won many a sigh from Omaha maidens. But aright the young man is already rushing toward his fate, a dark-eyed Kentucky belle who is spending the winter in Omaha.

One of the young man's erstwhile friends who, since leaving her native heath has become a charming Omaha matron, decided to maidens surrounding her were in charming have the young gentleman to dinner party to meet a few of his old friends. Accordingly the young woman called his 'phone Miss Wessels. number and this is the conversation which

"Hello, is Mr. Di Kreed there?" "Yes, this is he," in tones of severity for the spirit of Mr. Hyde was lord high executioner during business hours, "Well, this is Mrs. Blank." "Who?"

"Mrs. Blank."

"Oh, yes; well, I can't let you have that house rent any cheaper; it is the cheapest-'House rent?" came back the offended moswer. "Never said a word about house rent. I am Mrs. Blank and I wished to have you to a little informal dinner to meet a 1ew of your old friends tomorrow evening Now our young friend had not forgotten the teachings of his alma mater that in analyzing a sentence not thoroughly understood to look for the subject. Consequently lar bow-knot of green, which gave the exthe most prominent word was "dinner," the subordinate thoughts "the name of the hostess," "her place of residence," "old friends," were easily disposed of. The main point was dinner and quickly Dr. Jekyll knocked out Mr. Hyde in one round and in a voice radiant with sunshine responded:

"I shall be delighted to come, I assure you, but-but who is this, please? There is something wrong with the 'phone, I fear."

"Oh, thank you; count on me." A look that harmonized with his hostess' himself to the directory.

visions of more dinners arose.

self at the door looking his handsomest in and Mr. Fred Nash. dress-suit and boutonniere of violets.

as the hostess laughingly asked if her face Nash and Mr. George Meyers of Dubuque. were not more familiar than her name. The table was exquisite in floral decora-Somewhere in the distant past he had heard tions. Covers were laid for Miss Nash, Mr. she married-perhaps.

marriage bell.

Amateur Theatricals Entertaining. One of the most entertaining plays by an amateur company this winter, entitled, "Enlisted for the War; or, the Home Guard, rick, George Meyers, Mrs. Barker, Mr. and was given by the K. O. B. C. Dramatic club. assisted by Misses Moore, Engler and Balfard and Mr. C. L. Matthews, last Friday evening at the club rooms, 1105 North Eighteenth street. The following is the cast of

CURES QUICKLY.

Chicago, Ill., writes: "I am indebted a Chicago. thousand times to the Pyramid Pile Cure for the speedy relief and permanent cure of a most severe case of piles. I was troubled for months and yet was completely cured with one 50-cent box of the Pyramid and whist were played, Mrs. T. B. Kelkenney more than that I still have three of the carrying off first prize, a handsome vase, Pyramid suppositories left of that one box and Mrs. T. F. Foley taking a mush bowl that I did not need to use. I think it is the as consolation. The guest's prize, consisting grandest thing of the age and shall certainly of a set of Japanese bread and butter plates, recommend it to all sufferers, and you are at was awarded to Mrs. E. Cassidy. After the and I will gladly answer any correspond-

Thousands have resorted to expensive and dangerous surgical operations for cure of piles who could have been cured safely and a hospital under treatment of pile specialists presented a gain appearance in floral decora- of the club. The next meeting will be held without permanent relief, finally found the tions of roses and ferns. Mrs. Martin was at Mrs. Peck's Monday evening. cure where they least expected it, in the ably assisted in caring for her guests by Miss Lillian Auerswald very pleasantly Pyramid Pile Cure, which is applied at Mrs. Noyes Mrs. Frank Johnson and Mrs. entertained the Knocker Card club at her night, relieves the congested parts, reduces. Charles Smith. After an elegant luncheon home on Pinckney street Wednezday eventhe tumors gradually and naturally, removes. six-handed euchre was played. The prizes ing. Regardless of the inclemency of the after effects, as it contains no cocains nor Brady and Mrs. Robert Purvis.

It is a remedy no one need fear to apply to the most aggravated case.

50 cents for full sized treatment, tle beok on Cause and Cure of Piles.

Druggists sell the Pyramid Pile Cure at dinner at the Millard on Priday evening of Coulter. The consolation prizes were bric-a-brac took advantage of the auction cents for full sized treatment. last work in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Guy awarded to Miss Bessie Walker and Mr. sale at 1612 Farnam yesterday afternoon

Grant, G. A. Swessey: Major Boxer, D. C. | kel Erskine; Gaylie Gifford, Miss Moore; Mrs. Trueworth, Miss Ballard; Mattle Trueworth, Miss Engler.

Nash Theater Party.

The interior of Boyd's theater was a veritable fairyland with the innumerable lights. the boxes decorated with profusions of pink roses and knots of pink ribbons, with ferns and smilax artistically draped from one box women glistening with jewels.

The guests were greeted by the receiving Odeon club, Mrs. Edward Porter Peck.

TUESDAY, February II.—K. K. Kard Klub.
Mrs. W. B. Wallwork and Mrs. J. B.
Blanchard, 125 South Thirtleth street.
Cotiliton, Metropolitan hail.
Unique Pleasure club, ball. Thurston Rifles' armory.

WEDNESDAY, February II.—Valentine dance, Ruth Rebekah degree lodge No.
1. Independent Order of Odd Fellows, at Independent Order of Odd Fellows, at Independent Order of Odd Fellows' temple. aide the main entrance. The hon- Dixon and Mr. Fairfield. Crounse, Miss Edith Smith, Miss Allen, Miss Towle, Miss Creighton; box "C," contained Dance, Miss Swensberg, Metropolitan Mrs. Nash, Miss Nash, Miss Meyers, Miss hall.
At Home, Mrs. Shields and Mrs. Crow- Francis Nash, Miss Eather Nash, Miss Woodard. Mrs. Barker, Mrs. J. N. H. Pat-Neighborhood Card club, Mrs. Jaquith rick, Mrs. Manderson, Mrs. Millard, Mrs. and Mrs. Engel. J. C. Cowin occupied box "D." In box "E" Dancing party, Prof. and Mrs. Morand.
Mrs. Adolph Wernher entertains at cards for Mrs. A. J. Ahler of Chicago and Mrs. William C. Metzgis of Denver.

Crounse, Miss Jeanne Brown; box "F," Mrs. THURSDAY, February Is Omaha Guards, George Mercer, Mrs. Downing, Miss Taylor, a dance at the armory. Miss Dickinson, Miss Yates, Miss Kennard. Miss Dickinson, Miss Yates, Miss Kennard. In box "G" were Mrs. Wattles, Mrs. Thomas Orr, Mrs. Hitchcock, Mrs. Brady. Box "H" Mrs. Peck, Mrs. Chambers, Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Allison, Mrs. Daugherty, Mrs. Lomax; box "N." Mrs. Charles Kountze, Mrs. McCormack, Mrs. Charles Hull, Mrs. George Jos-

Some elegant toilets were worn, notable among them being that of Miss Adeline contrast. This unique form of entertainment Nash, a beautiful Parisian creation of white was the first of its kind in Omaha social silk and lace trimmed in chiffon and black circles and the result was so successful that velvet. She carried a large bunch of violets

Mrs. Nash wore a handsome gown of black Mrs. Floyd Smith wore a delicate blue satin wrought with black velvet and white

Miss Allen was charming in white liberty Miss Edith Smith wore a pink satin frock with innumerable ruffles of mousseline nbroidered in pink resebuds. Miss Crounse wore an effective pink silk and chiffon toilet; Miss Towle wore a dainty alas for the sighs, for if the stars read organdie and silk of apple green shade, rimmed in real lace. Miss Creighton appeared in turquoise blue taffeta, elaborately adorned with point lace, Mrs. Joseph Barker wore a beautiful frock blue crepe du chine. The bevy of fair frocks of white silk and chiffon; Miss Sellers, Miss Swensberg, Miss Kountze and with a jacket of black velvet and fur lined with cream satin. Miss Brown was in a pretty frock of lavnder silk and lisse.

Miss Higginson was beautiful in white atin covered with spangled net. Miss Peck was garbed in pale green crepe

Miss Elizabeth Allen was dainty in pale green silk with garniture of chiffon. Mrs. George Mercer was gorgeously attired in heavy cream satin elaborately trimmed in pearls. Miss Dickinson were a lavender brocade, the bodice of real lace trimmed in pearls. Mrs. John N. Baldwin's gown attracted he long train and the elaborate bodice were evening. The hours quickly passed with in three tones of pink with the very popuet dash of color. Mrs. Howard Baldrige was gorgeous in rimson creation.

Miss Eleanor Montgomery, who has recently returned from New York, wore a stunning gown of white brocade trimmed in white fringe. The decollete corsage had a Nile blue knot of velvet on the left shoulder. Dinners for Miss Nash.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Barton gave an elegantly appointed dinner Tuesday evening, complimentary to Miss Adeline Nash and name spread over his countenance, Quickly Mr. George Meyers of Dubuque, Ia. The Wednesday evening. The committee for arhe called Central for the 'phone number. He centerpiece was especially artistic, embroid- rangements were Misses Elia Frenzel, Agnes found the name in the 'phone book. Still no cred in crimson roses and edged with resigh of recegnition on his face. He betook naissance lace. An exquisite vase filled Bert Paul and Ernest Humphrey. with American Beauties rested upon it, sur-"Mrs. Blank, - street. By Jove! that's rounded by four silver candlesticks with fust across the street from my boarding crimson tapers and shades. An American place. Don't know her, but I shall give her Beauty marked the plates of Miss Nash, Mr. Chicago, Miss Creighton, Mr. and Mrs. Bar-

After the Nash theater party, Mr. and Mrs. There was a start almost imperceptible Barker gave an elaborate supper for Miss and Mrs. E. W. Nash, Mr. and Mrs. Harry "Mr. Di Kreed, will you take Miss Belle Cartan, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick, Dr. and Mrs. Council Bluffs, Miss Crounse, Miss Sellers delicious repast. of Chicago, Miss Chandler, Miss Wood, Merers. Fonda, Darling, Patrick, Crofoot, Berlin, Stewart of Council Bluffs, John Pat-Mrs. Joseph Barker.

Mrs. James Hamilton Entertains.

Mrs. James Hamilton gave an elaborate day. The table was beautiful in colorings prevailing color, pink. of white and green. The same shades decorated the rooms and predominated in the Wednesday night the members of the Twin courses. The centerpiece was an exquisite City club, composed of Omaha and South floral piece of bride's roses and hyacinths. Omaha people, met at the home of Mr. and A New Pile Cure Which Cures the entwined with terms and smilax. Each plate Mrs. C. A. Wagner, 2119 Grant street, and Most Aggravated Cases Safely and was marked by a single white rose and a spent a very enjoyable time at cards. After beautiful water color, the work of Miss Van several games of high five a sumptuous The Pyramid Pile Cure, a new preparation Gieson. The participants were: Miss Par- lunch was served. Music was one of the put up in suppository form, cures the most rotte, Mrs. McCulloch, Mrs. Selby, Mrs. aggravated cases of piles in a surprisingly Hughes, Mr. Rush, Mrs. Turley, Mrs. Thomas, Mrs. Sweeny, Miss Van Gieson, Mr. W. N. Dunn, No. 5719 Shields Ave., Mrs. Parrotte, Miss Kathrine Parrotte of their husbands royally last Wednesday

> Wisteria Club Plays Whist. The Wisteria club met Wednesday aftermeets next February 21 with Mts. H. G.

> Matthis, 2212 Capitol avenue. Mrs. Euclid Martin Entertains.

characters: Robert Trueworth, H. G. Firker, Robert Gilmore, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Burt, Misses Lynn Wigman, Emily Wigman Wilder Rowell, W. H. Wagenseller, Jr.; Ho- Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Millard, Mr. and Mrs. Walker, Armstrong, Bath, Auerswald, Hey sea Jenks, H. H. Devol; Hiram Jenks, E. Charles Barton, Mrs. Partenbelmer, Miss den. Lillian Auerswald, Rucker, Messrs, P. Bailard; Crimp, C. L. Matthews; General Jessie Millard and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Mar. Colter, Lang, Gillen, Heyden, Zust, Dean,

Card Party at the Merriam. Mrs. George Weaver and Mrs. John Bodman gave a large card party Tuesday afternoon at the Merriam. Six-hand high five In honor of Miss Adeline Nash, whose was the game enjoyed by the fifty guests. narriage to Mr. George Meyers will take Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Marsh. Mrs. place February 21, Mr. F. A. Nash gave an Sheldon, Mrs. Shaw and Mrs. T. J. Mackay laborate theater party Tuesday evening. A The color scheme, pink, was carried out in pecial company was brought from Chicago the large bowls of bridesmaid roses and for the occasion, which charmingly enter- carnations, in the roay shades and in the tained the 600 assembled guests with two accessories of the dainty luncheon which was served after the games.

Woolworth Dinner Party.

High Five Party.

Mrs. Robert Purvis entertained at cards Thursday afternoon. High five was the game at the sixteen tables. The prizes were awarded to Mrs. Sholes. Mrs. Caufield, Mrs. Vinsonhaler and Mrs. Charles Barber. The decorations of crimson were effectively used in carnations, ices and the floral shades in tulip shapes. Palms and ferns further enhanced the rooms.

Kensington Ten. Miss Webster gave a charming Kensington

Monday afternoon in honor of Miss Moore of Council Bluffs. A delicious luncheon was served to Mesdames Charles Kountze, Luther Kountze, Kenyon, Mercer, Jerrens of Chicago, Miss Jeane Brown, Towle, Crounse Marie Crounse, Gertrude Kountze, Kelly and Helen Peck.

Mrs. Cummings entertained at luncheon for Miss Sellars of Chicago Thursday. Mrs. Joseph Barker gave an enjoyable chafing dish supper Thursday evening to a few friends.

Past Pleasures

Wednesday Lunch club was pleasantly entertained by Mrs. Cockrell and Mrs. Pollard this week. The Odeon Dramatic club held another uccessful meeting at the home of Mrs. Peck Monday evening. The Hanscom Park Card club were pleasntly entertained by Mrs. Jones and Mrs.

Sheridan Friday afternoon. Mrs. E. G. Streight entertained at cards fuesday evening and Wednesday afternoon. Pink roses graced the rooms.

Miss Jennie Orcutt entertained the affair proved most enjoyable. After the fances luncheon was served.

Mrs. George Voss gave her first postuptial reception Wednesday afternoon. She eceived her guests in a beautiful gown of Hutchins. ld rose velvet trimmed elaborately in lace. Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Kopald celebrated their twentieth anniversary by an elegant dinner Friday evening. The table attracted much admiration for artistic decoration. Covers were laid for ten.

Miss Lillie Clawson entertained Wednesday evening at her home on Burt street in honor of her aunt, Mrs. S. G. Lewis of Detroit, Mich. Music and games were the imusement of the evening. The Winter club continues to make

Thursday evening the red letter event of each alternate week. The young men of the organization justly pride themselves on the success of the series of dances. Fraternal lodge, No. 3, Bankers' Union of the World, gave a successful dancing party Friday evening at Morand's assembly. The music by Kaufman's orchestra gave an added impetus to the merry whirl, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cole pleasantly enter-music, dancing and refreshments. The Friday Card club was delightfully enertained by Mrs. C. E. Black and Mrs Wappich of 1909 Webster street this week. Prizes were awarded to the most successful contestants and tempting viands served. The Metropolitan club gave a large card party Wednesday evening. High five afforded the evening's entertainment. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Carl Brandels, Mrs.

Herman Rehfeld, Messrs, Morris and Furth. A number of young people tendered a surprise party to Miss Maud Buckley at her home, 937 North Twenty-eighth avenue, Karel, Ida Olsen and Messrs. Paul Quint,

Mrs. Holmes entertained at six-handed euchre Saturday afternoon. There were six tables and after ten games beautiful prizes were awarded to Mrs. Wood, Mrs. Bailey and the opportunity of getting acquainted," and and Mrs. Joseph Barker, Miss Sellers of Mrs. Fagan. The rooms presented a charming appearance in bridesmaid roses, quan-At 6:30 our young friend presented him- ton, Mr. Meyers of Dubuque, Dr. Lyman tities of pink carnations and roses of smilax. The luncheon was especially enjoyable,

One of the most delightful receptions of he week was given by Mrs. W. C. Lester, 1436 North Twentieth street, on Tuesday afternoon for Mrs. McMaster, who is about good cheer the hours were passed until 4 at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's par but to dinner?" and all went merry as a Coffman, Mr. and Mrs. John N. Baldwin of the spacious dining room and seated at a James Haynes, father of the groom, offici-

An enjoyable kensington was given Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Amos Field. The parlors were laviebly adorned with meteor roses, the mantel place was banked with palms and cut flowers. In the dining room pink prevailed. The table was heaped with beautiful roses and ferna. luncheon in honor of Miss Parrotte Wednes- The bonbons, cakes and ices carried out the Notwithstanding the inclement weather of piano and violin by the Misses Cleaves.

The ladies of the Big Four entertained evening at the pleasant rooms of Mrs. Quinn, 615 North Twentleth street. Progressive high five was played, Mr. L B. noon with Mrs. N. Plant. Seven games of Walmer carried away first prize and Mr. James L. Quinn the consolation prize. After partaking of elegant refreshments the party was entertained by a mandelin and guitar Omaha. selection by Mrs. Quinn and Mr. Best and a solo by Mr. Larson.

The Odeon club held its last meeting perfect liberty to refer any persons to me cardplaying lunch was served. The club Monday at the home of Mrz. Edmund Por- guest in Omaha. ter Peck. Mr. Charles Withelm has been elected vice president, the president, Mrs. Clement Chase, not having been able to attend the meetings for some time on ac-Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Euclid Martin count of the death of her brother, Mrs. W. painlessly by the Pyramid; in a number of gave a most successful whist luncheon to J. C. Kenyon. Miss Gertrude Kountze and instances, persons who have spent months in about ferry guests. The rooms and tables Miss Doane have been elected as members the intolerable itching and leaves no had were awarded to Mrs. Howell, Mrs. John weather most of the members were present, spent a few days last week with Mrs. Clark's After a number of interesting games the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rome Miller of the Markel Dinner Party.

Mr. aud Mrs. Markel gave a delightful prize, a beautiful fan. was won by Her Grand.

Miss Emily Wigman. The gentleman's prize, a tollet case, was won by Mr. Lyman A great many lovers of oriental rugs and The Pyramid Co. of Marshall, Mich., will Barion's return from Europe. Decorations Herbert Zust. Refreshments were served and last evening and succeeded in getting be pleased to mail free to any address a lit- were of pink and white. The guests were: and music and dancing indulged in till a semic rare and handsome articles for a frac-Mr. and Mrs. Guy Barton, Dr. and Mrs. late hour. The members of the club are tion of their real worth.

Hodgin and Auerswald. The Excelsion club was very pleasantly entertained last Friday evening at the residence of Miss Fannie Fruehauf, 816 South Twenty-first street. Two hours were de- here Saturday and Sunday. veted to several warmly contested games of Captain Frank Reynolds was a business present. high five. After funch the prize winners visitor in Omaba Saturday. were announced as follows: Mrs. J. A. Burater and Mr. Robert Young vire visitors in Omaha Saturday. Consolations, Miss Fannie Fruehauf and Mr. E. Hoeft. The next meeting will be held and relatives in Omaha Saturday and Sunday. ni the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse his brother, M. B. Potter, a couple of days Mrs. Crickmore entertained the South Side this week. Whist club in a most delightful manner at Judge and Mies Woolworth entertained at the home of Mrs. Brownlee on Tucsday attdinner for President Woodbury of the ernoon. There were four tables and nine Omaha water works Thursday evening. The games of whist were played. At 5 o'clock for a few days. to another and the elegant toilets of the decorations were elaborate in green and refreshments were served in the dining white. The guests were: Mr. Woodbury, room, The table was beautifully decorated this place, now of Omaha, was here Wednes-Mr. and Mrs. Cowgill, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur in smilax and violets. The first club prize day visiting friends, Crittenden Smith, Mr, and Mrs. Lowe, Miss was won by Mrs. Frice, the second going Wakeley, Misa Donne, Miss McKenns, Mr. to Mrs. Dinney, A bouquet of carnations lie schools here, visited her parents in Tewas given Mrs. Rogers as the most successkamah, Neb., Saturday and Sunday. ful visiting lady Movements and Wherenbouts. Mr. Martin Meyer has gone to New York. Mrs. James Preston of Denver is the gues Mirs Orentt.

Miss Georgie Krug is now visiting Miss Gertie Wolston of Galveston, Tex. Mrs. T. C. Kimball and Miss Kimball are it Park hotel, Hot Springs, Ark. Mrs. Luther Kountze and Miss Webster have gone to Chicago for a short visit. Mr. and Mrs. Hake leave today for Cuba They will spend a few days in Chicago, Mrs, Ralph Shepard leaves for Chicago this veck, to be the guest of Mrs. Ned Kessler.

Chicago. Mrs. H. S. James of 1621 Emmet street left Saturday evening for St. Paul, to be gone two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Reichenberg left last night to spend a fortnight in Cincinnati and Mrs. W. D. Rector left Saturday for Mr. Tindell next Friday night, week's gray with her sister, Mrs. Charles Scovil of Chicago. Miss Libble Withnell left last evening for friends in Benson on last Monday. Cincinnati, to visit relatives. She will be absent three weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Crandall left las vening for Laramie, where they will make to her home with a severe cold, is again able to be out their future home. Captain Grote Hutcheson and bride will returned from a visit with relatives and arrive in Omaha today and will take spartfriends in Stanton.

ments at the Millard. Mrs. Rome Miller, accompanied by Mrs. Patton of Des Moines, has gone to San the severe cold weather. Francisco for the winter. Miss Swensberg will have Miss Webster Episcopal church today at 11 a. m. by Rev.

of Chicago as her guest next week, for whom Younger Dancing club Friday evening. The she will give a dancing party Wednesday evening. Miss Mercy Salisbury left last week for Chicago, where she will be the guest of her sister, Mrs. Ned Kessler and Miss Florence

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Sutherland, reently of 1906 Capitol avenue, have taken housekeeping apartments at the Albion, South Tenth street. Mrs. L. H. Bigelow of Chicago and little daughters, Ellen and Dorothy, are visiting heir parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Anderson. 2775 Webster street. Mr. H. W. Bevan of the American Chicory ompany, salls for Italy Sunday on the Prince Bismarck by way of England. He Fox; Weary Wayside (henchman), O'Linn will be absent two months. McGuire, James Barclay (villain), C. E. Sel-Prof. A. H. Waterhouse, principal of the leck; Phil Warburton (social leader), Frank High school, and his wife, went to Waterloo, Kellar; Judge Van Cruger, E. A. Steiger; Neb., yesterday in response to a telegram Mrs. Van Cruger, Gertie McGuire; Warden that Mrs. Waterhouse's father was very ill. Burrows and Jackson (negro), George Rich Mr. Loomis McKim of Norfolk, who has ards; Lena, Miss Maud Hibbard; Miss Sedle recently accepted a position with The Bee as traveling solicitor, spent a few days in the city, the guest of W. H. Sutherland and music between acts.

Mrs. R. E. Pease is home from a year | On Friday evening Mrs. much attention. It was a pink taffeta em- tained the Woman's Alliance and friends of abroad, spent in England, Germany and tained at dinner in honor of Mr. Barr's broidered in rosebuds. The pleating around the Unity church at the Normandie Friday Switzerland. She was accompanied by her birthday. nicce, Miss Jewell Wood, who after a chort visit will return to her home in Kansas

> The engagement of Miss Clara Turner sister of Mrs. N. B. Balcomb, to Mr. Charles the program a light luncheon was served. Battelle is anhounced. Miss Charlotte Bowen, daughter of Mi and Mrs. William R. Molthrop, was united in marriage to Mr. Louis Vierling Wednesday, February 7, at Chicago. Mrs. C. D. Horgan and Mr. J. E. Haley, ooth of Colorado, were married at the Trinity Methodist church, Los Angeles, at high oon, February 5. They will make their iome at San Bernardino.

Weddings and Engagements.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Nash have issued initations to the marriage of their daughter. Miss Adeline, to Mr. George Meyers of Dubuque. Ia. The wedding will take place at St. John's Catholic church at 11 o'clock February 21.

Mr. Harry Hardwicke of Lincoln was 00 married to Miss Anna C, Lewis Wednesday at high noon at Kountze Memorial church Only relatives were present. Rev. Trefz offiwas a box, (4 doses), all ciated. The church was adorned with quanti ties of cut flowers and paims. Miss Grace Carter, daughter of Dr. and

Mrs. Carter, was united in matrimony to to remove from the state. With music and Mr. George B. Haynes Wednesday evening o'clock, when the guests were invited into ents. Rev. Clyde Cirsel, assisted by Rev ated. The home was claborately adorned with roses and palms. After the ceremony a sumptuous supper was served. Mr. and Mrs. Haynes will make their home for the present at the Millard hotel. The marriage of Mr. William B. White horn of this city to Miss Jennie Good Danville, Ill., was solemnized at the hon of the bride on Monday. The ceremony wa performed by Rev. Willis Parsons of the First Congregational church of Danville, the house being tastefully decorated for the oc casion with smilax and English ivy. The attendant of the bride was her sister, Miss Clara Good, 'Mr. Albert Good acting as best man. Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Whitehorn returned to Omaha by way of St. Louis, where they spent several days as the guests of Miss Fannie Harkins. Miss principle features and was ably rendered on Good was a well known society girl of Danville, having grown to womanhood in that city. Mr. Whitehorn is employed in the tax commissioner's office and is well known in social and political circles. Mr. and Mrs Whitehorn will make their residence a 2662 Douglas street.

Out of Town Guests. Mrs. C. C. Spaulding of Ord is visiting in

Mrs. James Preston of Denver is the gues of Miss Orcutt Miss Dorice Justice of Minneapolis is

Dr. W. H. Dearing of Lincoln is spending a few days with Omaha friends. Mr. George Meyers of Dubuque, after a short visit in Omaha, left Thursday for his

Mrs. William T. Wiserman of Laucaster O., is with her sister, Mrs. Charles E. Williamson, for a few days. Mr. and Mrs. William Clark of Liuroin

Miss Affa McLain of Kansas City is vis-

OMAHA SUBURBS.

Miss Harriet Hunt visited with friends

Mr. J. Potter from Blair, Neb., visited

Mr. Myers of Langdon, Mo., is here visit-

Miss Leathy King, who has been at Wayne

Neb., for the last three months, returned here Friday and will remain here for the H. V. Latham, a government engineer, started a gang of men cutting willows near

Cut-Off lake Thursday, preparatory to do-

Ing some riprapping near here.

David Gallop and family, who went to California nearly a year ago, returned here Friday and will probably make this their feture bome as both Mr. and Mrs. Gallop were raised here.

There has been a large quantity of ice harvested here the last few days of this week, as it is getting late in the year and everyone is rushing things to get a good supply on hand while the cold weather lasts.

Elenson.

everyone is rushing things to get a good

Benson.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. An-

The M. K. L. S. will meet at the home of Mrs. William Graybach visited with

The schools were dismissed last Thursday

Miss Maud Lowe, who has been confined

Mrs, George Hawkins and children have

The revival meetings of last week were discontinued for a few nights on account of Services will be held at the Methodist

Mr. Luce. Special services tonight and this

Mr. George Richards and Miss Maggie

Dunn were married last Wednesday even-

Miss Mattie Nevins was called home from Omaha a week ago on account of the illness

The drama, "Tony, the Convict," given by the Benson Dramatic club last Friday and Saturday nights, at the Benson town hall.

was a grand success, a large number at-tending both nights, and the acting was good. The following is the cast of characters: Tony Warren (convict), Mr. G. W.

Dandec.

Mrs. W. L. Selby entertained a few

The Dundee Weman's club met on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Barr. After

Quiets

the Nerves

equalizes circulation,

ache Wafers, 10 cents

Send 10c for sample box to Max Gessler, Milwaukee, Wis., if druggist does not keep them.

style.

druggists.

cures headache: new

Gessler's Magic Head 00

women very informally at luncheon on Thursday.

of Mr. Nevins, who had a paralytic stroke, from which he is somewhat recovered now.

ing at the home of the bride's parents, a few miles west of Benson

n account of the very bad weather.

ng some riprapping near here.

lerson Thursday, February 8.

present.

dainty designs being used at the tables. Florence On Saturday afternoon in honor of Miss Charles Brewer went to Calhoun Wednes-Parrette Mrs. S. R. Rush and Mrs. Hughes lay on a business trip. enterrained a number of their women Mrs. J. W. Fisher of Omaha visited Mrs.

Jacob Weber, ir., Monday, Mrs. James McCullough's second Dundee Will Shipley of Calhoun visited relatives afternoon was largely attended last Wednesday and very much enjoyed by the women Sunday evening services are held regularly in the school house with attractive Mr. Frank L. Tracy and Miss Ida Miller ing his daughter, Mrs. James Q. Breneman, Miss Jessie George, a former resident of Miss Jennie Story, a teacher in the pub-

Chinese and Japanese dishes and spoons in sented with a Dundee Cook Book, prepared and put tegether by the women during the Funeral of Ralph W. Kells.

The funeral services of Ralph W. Kells, late of Company L. First Nebraska regiment, U. S. V., will be held at the Thirran Riffes armory, Douglas and Seven-enth streets, today at 2:30. The services till be conducted by Rev. Dr. Wheeler of e. First Presbyterian church of South

Sunday evening services are hold regularly in the school house with attractive programs. Last Sunday evening Rev. 1. L. Leavitt officiated.

On Friday Mrs. E. V. Heaford gave an afternoon company, the cutting of silhouettes from white paper being the chief feature of the afternoon. Mrs. McCullough won the prize for the best head, a charming picture in blue and white enamel.

On Saturday Mrs. James W. Hamilton entertained twelve women at luncheon in honor of Miss Parrotte. The table decorations were in green and white, a large bunch of bride roses forming the centerpiece and adorning each plate. Miss Parrotte was pre-

THE FAMOUS URHLAUB COLLECTION OF

ORIENTAL RUGS From Persia, India and Turkey, consisting of 1,500 picked

pieces - mostly antiques - collected by Mr. John C. Uhrlaub of Chicago, the well known connoisseur of eastern textiles. Particular attention is called to the choice specimens of the Silk, Kirman, Senne, Iran, Teheran and Khorassan weaves. No such art collection has ever been shown together before. All of

> THE ABOVE WILL BE SOLD WITHOUT RESERVE AT

.. AUCTION

EVERY PIECE GUARANTEED AS REPRESENTED

A choice selection of Ivories, Arms, Cloissonne Bronzes, Royal Vienna, Porcelains, etc., Chinese and Japanese Curios, Tabourets, etc., will be included in this

SALE TOMORROW AND TUESDAY

AT 10:30 AND 2:30 P. M. CLOSING SALE, TUESDAY AFTERNOON, AT

1612 Farnam Street

NO SUCH OPPORTUNITY HAS EVER BEFORE BEEN OFFERED TO ARI LOVERS

OMAHA AUCTION CO.

M. H. BLISS

TARREST REPRESENTATION OF THE PROPERTY AND THE PROPERTY OF THE

China, Crockery,

Glassware & Lamps ****

Now Located at

1417 Douglas St.

OMAHA, NEBRASKA.

MRS. J. BENSON-

Corset Sale The 537 W. C. C. Short Corset, colors black and gray, never sold less than $2.00, we will sell for $1.25. A very fine quality of W. B. Medium Length Corset, regular $2.00 corset, we will sell for $1.25-colors gray or white. Style 536, W. C. C. Corset, never sold less than $1.50, we will sell for $1.00colors gray and black. Young ladies' W. C. C. Corsef, style 418, long waist, regular price, $1.00, we will sell for 50c. Other lines of Corsets, in broken sizes or lines that we are not keeping up-we witt sell at a big reduction—in all sizes and colors. The Jackson Coract Waist, never gold less than $1.00, we will sell for 65c-colors black, gray and white-in all sizes. Children's Double V Waists, 50c quality for 25c. Some very fine Handkerchiefs we are selling for just half former price.

SCOFIELD'S.

On Monday we commence showing New Tailored Sults for ladies-latest designscorrect materials-made as good as they car

New Silk Waists.

New Dress Skirts. New Silk Petticoats. New Mercerized Petticoats. WE GIVE YOU FULL VALUE FOR

A CLUAK & SUIT CO. 1510 Douglas Street.

Miss Affa McLain of Kansas City in Vis-Basso-Baritone

English Oratorio.

Suite 315 Ramge Bldg., Omaha